Decision No. 10/81

Com. 13/80

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of complaints by Robert Walter Dawson.

WARRANT HOLDER: Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (Television New Zealand Radio New Zealand):

B. H. Slane, chairman, Lionel R. Sceats, member, Robert Boyd-Bell, co-opted member, Gordon C. Ell, co-opted member.

Decision

Mr Dawson made 4 complaints to the Broadcasting Corporation. One was upheld.

We deal with each complaint individually.

Television 2: "Eyewitness"

An "Eyewitness" television current affairs programme broadcast on 9 September 1980, examined the result of the East Coast Bays by-election. Mr Dawson objected to the use of what appeared to be random interviews with 3 un-named people because they were not balanced or representative. He said it breached standards of objective journalism.

We have viewed a tape of the programme.

In the circumstances of the programme it was not necessary to obtain a number of interviews and present a balanced collection of them. While the purpose of the vox pop is frequently to do just that, in this instance it was to introduce consideration of National Party leadership and to illustrate the views held by some electors.

There was nothing in the introduction to the interviews to suggest they were anything more than examples of the "body of concern" about the leadership. The introduction did not mislead.
