In the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Deviation

Hearing: 5 February 1981.

Decision: 24 July 1981.

Appearances: Mr. P. E. F. M. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No submissions by importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

This publication was imported commercially and seized at Auckland by the Customs Department in August 1980. As the importer has disputed forfeiture the Customs Department has referred the publication to the Tribunal for classification, prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966, with the recommendation that the book should be considered to be injurious to the public good and declared indecent.

Deviation is a paperback publication, 159 pages in length, published in 1966. In its submission, Mr. P. E. F. M. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs, stated that although the book "is reputed to be a study of abnormal love and mainly consists of so-called case histories...there is no proper summary of cause and effects, nor does the compiler appear to have the qualifications to make this publication an authoritative work of medical or scientific importance. The recitation of many abnormal practices is considered to be injurious to the public good and renders this book indecent."

It was noted by the Tribunal that the publication is quite old, having been published prior to the introduction of sexual deviations into an encyclopedia. The matter included is listed under a series of headings, each clearly with a specific and abnormal sexual practice, and it would be fair to comment that all of the terms used would be readily found in an encyclopedia. The problem facing the Tribunal is whether the compilation of these deviant terms together in a publication creates a situation which is injurious to the public good and renders this book indecent.

Sexual deviations of one sort or another are well known to psychiatrists. This book deals with the sexual deviations in what might be called layman's language, illustrated by what are said to be clinical studies. In the Tribunal's view it is not a book which would have a great appeal and as already mentioned the studies are available in other texts. The Tribunal classifies this book as not indecent.

Decision No. 1001

Reference No. Ind. 6/81

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Oui Volume 9, Nos. 11 and 12, Volume 10 Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, published by Playboy Publications Inc., U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: Messrs. H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs. J. V. B. McLinden, I. M. Malcolm.

Hearing: Wellington, 21 July 1981.

Decision: 30 July 1981.

Appearances: Mr. P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs, Mr. R. A. Heron for importers, Gorden and Gotech.

DECISION

These 6 Volumes were submitted to the Tribunal for classification pursuant to the provisions of section 14 (1). In past years publications of this same magazine have been submitted to the Tribunal and have been classified as indecent. Because of an apparent change in style the importers have requested this review. Mr. Leloir made the submission that the standard of the magazine had changed in the last few years and is generally more restrained in its pictures and text. It is true that the sexual material accounts for half to two thirds of the magazine although the "Aggressive sex" section is prominent has disappeared. The comparison with earlier copies of the magazine plainly shows the difference in publication. In the photographs there is less emphasis on genitalia and the articles are also more restrained.

The Tribunal agrees that the current publications are different from those of the past and sees no need for a classification of indecency to be made. It does, however, feel that there ought to be some restriction placed upon the magazine so that it is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18. It is not at this stage prepared to make a restriction order in terms of section 15 (a).

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 45c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of," "according to our records," and "enclosed, please find"? It is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY PART I

By Elsdon Best

424 p. 1976. $18 plus $1.25 p & p

An account of the theory of the universe and its creation, study of the origin of man, religious beliefs, rites, magic and folklore of the Maori people of New Zealand. First published in 1924, reprinted without textual alterations and retaining the original bulletin numbers. (Government Printer.)

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM Bulletin No. 1

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, gave an authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and reaches such conclusions from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

MAORI

By Witi Ihimaera

45 p. 1975. $1.20 plus 35c p & p

A colourful booklet describing the coming of the Maori to New Zealand, his history, heritage, folklore, beliefs, and cultural unity.

Each chapter has a quotation from a Maori proverb, phrase, saying, or canoe chant and these concepts are presented in words and pictures.

Continues with the arrival of the pakeha and the pattern of events which followed, the Treaty of Waitangi and the Land Wars. Moves on to the Maori today, finishing with the theme, one country, two heritages in unity.

Well illustrated with 64 coloured photos, of interest to all New Zealanders and tourists. (Tourist and Publicity Department.)

MAORI AGRICULTURE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI AS HE WAS

By Elsdon Best

295 p. 1974 reprint. $6.50 plus 70c p & p

Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the illustrations of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. It's continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

THE MAORI CANOE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 7

451 p. 1976. $17.50 plus $1.25 p & p

A reprinted edition without textual alterations and retaining the old Dominion Museum number. Another example of Elsdon Best's dedicated effort to preserve Maori culture. The material presented on canoes, their materials, types, methods of construction, and associated artifacts make interesting reading for the layman as well as for scholars of the Maori. (Government Printer.)

NATIONAL PARKS OF NEW ZEALAND

178 p. Revised third edition, 1974. $10.50

The revision of this popular publication has included numerous new colour plates and additional information on some of our parks. Because of the popularity of this book it is expected this edition will be in great demand. In addition to the book being an ideal souvenir for the overseas visitor it makes an ideal gift and also a valuable asset to anyone's home library.

SHADOW OF THE LAND
By Ian Wards
422 p. 1968.
The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakareko, a Kaitaia chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the “shadow of the land” had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the “shadow” would be the Maori portion.
The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand, the Maoris, trust in ‘the Treaty of Waitangi, and guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privi­leges.
It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt that there was never an attempt to govern by “moral suasion”.
New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.
The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.
