Altering the Scope of the Commission of Inquiry into the Administration of the District Court at Wellington, and Extending the Time Within Which the Commission May Report

DAVID BEATTIE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to:

PETER GORDON HILLYER, LL.B., of Auckland, One of Her Majesty's Counsel Learned in the Law; and

ERIC ALDERSON MISSEN, O.B.E., of Wellington, a former Secretary for Justice; and

GIDEON TAIT, O.B.E., of Auckland, Retired Assistant Commissioner of Police;

GREETING:

WHEREAS by Order in Council made on the 29th day of September 1982*, you, the said Peter Gordon Hillyer, Eric Alderson Missen, and Gideon Tait were appointed to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon—

- (a) Whether, since the 1st day of April 1981, there has been impropriety on the part of any member of the staff of the District Court at Wellington, or any other person, in relation to any prosecution instituted by a document filed in that Court;
- (b) Whether, in any other respect, and if so in what respect and to what extent, there has been, since the 1st day of April

1981, laxity, irregularity, or both, on the part of the staff of the District Court at Wellington:

- (c) Generally upon such other matters arising out of the premises as may come to your notice in the course of your inquiries and which you consider should be investigated in connection therewith, and upon any matters which you consider should be brought to the attention of the Government:

And whereas the words "or any other person" (which appear in paragraph (a) of the terms of reference) unnecessarily extend the scope of the inquiry and would prevent the inquiry being concluded within a reasonable time:

And whereas it is expedient that the scope of the inquiry be altered as hereinafter provided:

And whereas by the said Order in Council you were required to submit your report not later than the 31st day of January 1983:

And whereas it is expedient that the time for so reporting should be extended as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, I, Sir David Stuart Beattie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby order as follows:

- (1) The said Order in Council is hereby amended by revoking paragraph (a) of the terms of reference set out in the said Order in Council, and substituting the following paragraph:

"(a) Whether, since the 1st day of April 1981, there has been impropriety on the part of any member of the staff of the District Court at Wellington in relation to any prosecution instituted by a document filed in that Court, and whether any other person appears to have obtained or tried to obtain irregular disposition by any member of the staff of that Court of any prosecution instituted by a document filed in that Court."

- (2) The time within which you are so required to report is hereby extended until the 31st day of March 1983, without prejudice to the continuation of the liberty conferred on you by the said Order in Council to report your proceedings and recommendations from time to time if you should judge it expedient so to do.

And I hereby confirm the said Order in Council and the Commission thereby constituted save as modified by these presents.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 7th day of December 1982.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Officers of Government of Ross Dependency Appointment

DAVID BEATTIE, Governor-General

WHEREAS, by the Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923*, made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (hereinafter called the Governor) was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him:

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:

And whereas, by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:

And whereas it is expedient that the persons hereinafter named be appointed officers of the Government of the Dependency:

Now, therefore, I, The Honourable Sir David Stuart Beattie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Ross Dependency, hereby appoint
