Decision No. 1048
Reference No. Ind. 15/82
Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: High Times, August 1979, No. 48 and September 1979, No. 49, published by Trans-High Corporation, New York.

Judge W. M. Willis, (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 15 September 1982.

Appearances: Mr J. M. McNeice for Comptroller of Customs. Mr J. Winstanley in person.

This publication was imported on 6 February 1982 by the importer as part of personal effects brought back from a trip to Australia. The publications were seized by Customs and as the importer has disputed forfeiture the department referred the publications to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Each publication is approximately 210 × 275 mm; the August 1979 edition is 114 pages in length; the September edition is approximately 150 pages in length. Both magazines contain mainly illicit drug related advertisements and most of the articles in the magazines are drug oriented.

The importer appeared before the Tribunal in person. He told us that the 2 magazines were purchased in an open bookstore in Sydney by his 16-year-old son. Mr Winstanley stated that he or his family had no sinister intent in importing the material, and after having seen and heard him, we fully accept that as the position.

At the time of the importation Mr Winstanley was not aware of any previous restriction that had been imposed on the publication; although he had been subsequently informed of the situation by the Customs Department. We accept that he intended the publications to be used for discussion in the home environment, and perhaps in his son’s discussion group at school. The importer felt, as no doubt many parents do, that difficult issues should be aired rather than swept under the carpet.

The restriction order referred to earlier arose out of the Tribunal’s classification of previous issues of this magazine in decision 922 (12 April 1979). The Tribunal classified High Times as indecent and imposed a serial restriction order under section 15A of the Act for a period of 2 years. That restriction order expired before the importation of these magazines, and so a fresh classification is required.

In decision 922 the rationale behind the Tribunal’s classification of the publications as indecent was:

“The dominant effect of the magazines is the approval and encouragement of the use of all kinds of drugs with passing reference to methods and equipment to avoid detection. While not all that is contained in these magazines could be said to be indecent under the Act, the effect as a whole in each and every case is to describe, depict or otherwise deal with matters of crimes in New Zealand in a manner which the Tribunal considers is injurious to the public good.”

It appears to us that the present issues have not changed significantly in outlook or content, and for the reasons described in our earlier decision and others since then (e.g., see Decision No. 951, 30 May 1980) we declare these present issues to be indecent.

W. M. WILLIS, District Court Judge, Chairman.
