10. PASSENGERS' BAGGAGE

10.1 Carriage of Goods Act 1979

Passengers' baggage is carried in accordance with the provisions of the Carriage of Goods Act 1979.

10.2 Free allowance

Passengers will be granted free conveyance, subject to the provisions of clause 11, relating to checked baggage, of their bona fide personal baggage as follows:

- Per adult paying passenger—two items of baggage.
- Per child travelling at half fare—one item of baggage.
- Families travelling on family tickets (clause 5.4)—maximum of five items of baggage.
- Invalids wheelchairs (motor or hand propelled) accompanying passengers.
- Prams and pushchairs accompanying passengers.

10.3 Corporation's right to determine free baggage

The Corporation reserves the right to determine whether any package or article (other than bona fide personal baggage) may be carried free as baggage under the provisions of clause 10.2. In particular, the Corporation reserves the right to levy additional charges for light and bulky packages of passengers' baggage. The Corporation may refuse any articles which, from their bulky or objectionable character it is inexpedient to carry as passengers' baggage. Such packages must be consigned, and will be carried and charged for at parcels or goods rates as may be appropriate.
