The National Opera of New Zealand Name Order 1982

DAVID BEATTIE, Governor-General
By His Deputy RONALD DAVISON

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 28th day of June 1982

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL BY HIS DEPUTY IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS section 33 (1) of the Companies Act 1955 provides that where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Governor-General that an association about to be formed as a limited company is to be formed for promoting commerce, art, science, religion, charity, or any other object useful to the community, and intends to apply its profits, if any, or other income in promoting its objects, and to prohibit the payment of any dividend to its members, the Governor-General may by Order in Council direct that the association may be registered as a company with limited liability, without the addition of the word "Limited" to its name: And whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Governor-General that an association about to be formed as a limited company with the name "The National Opera of New Zealand" is to be formed with its objects being among those specified in the said section 33 (1), and intends to apply its profits, if any, or other income in promoting its objects, and to prohibit the payment of any dividend to its members:

Now, therefore, pursuant to section 33 of the Companies Act 1955, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the National Opera of New Zealand Name Order 1982.

(2) This order shall come into force on the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette.

2. "Limited" dispensed with—It is hereby directed that the association about to be formed as a limited company with the name "The National Opera of New Zealand" may be registered as a company with limited liability, without the addition of the word "Limited" to its name.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.
