Decision No. 4/83

Com. 31/82

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of The Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint by the Society for Promotion of Community Standards Inc.

Warrant Holder BCNZ (Television 1)

B. H. Slane, Chairman; Lionel R. Scears, member; Ann E. Wilson, member; Gordon C. Elt, co-opted member; Robert Boyd-Bell, co-opted member.

Decision

The society complained of a segment in the Television 1 Close Up programme broadcast at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, 28 July. The society claimed the programme, in breach of section 24(1)(e), Broadcasting Act 1976, failed to maintain, in its programmes and their presentation, standards generally acceptable in the community. In particular it failed to have regard to the principle that when controversial issues of public importance are discussed, reasonable efforts are made to present significant points of view either in the same programme or other programmes within the period of interest.

The society also complained that the same segment of the programme breached Rule 5.1 which provides:

A television news and current affairs service should take account of the following points:

- Children form a significant part of the early evening audience.
- This should be considered when deciding on the extent to which an item may be treated or illustrated in bulletins before 8.30 p.m.
- The programme was tailored as "Gay Pride 10 Years On—What's Really Changed?", and was entitled "Pride and Prejudice".
- The society complained that the programme was concerned with a controversial issue of public importance, the gay or homosexual scene in New Zealand, and the introduction of a Bill to legalise homosexual acts which are at present illegal. The society said its secretary Miss P. M. Bartlett was the only person interviewed on the programme to express opposition while 24 number of people were interviewed who supported the change in the law.
- The society also considered that the subject was inappropriate for 8 p.m. when 10- and 11-year-old children were not yet in bed and were watching television. It also objected to the showing in the programme of a scene from an R18 movie called Making Love currently screening in the country in which viewers could see two men caressing one another's bodies and kissing.
- The item, it was complained, also contained scenes of homosexual dancing check to check in an Auckland cabaret frequented by homosexuals. The society considered the programme should not have been broadcast before 9 p.m. but in any event in accordance with the rules should not have been broadcast before 8.30 p.m.

The Corporation did not uphold the complaint. It considered the programme struck a reasonable balance in itself giving, among others, the views of mainstream churches and the legal position. It noted that the topic was one which had been, and would continue to be, controversial. The Corporation considered there would be more opportunities for expression of further points of view as the question of changes in the law was debated.

While some sympathy was expressed with the view that the segment should have been placed later in the programme, it was thought that the way in which the subject was treated was not such as to breach Rule 5.1(e).

The society referred the complaint to the Broadcasting Tribunal adding that it did not consider that homosexual love-making, exemplified in extracts from R18 movies which children were not permitted to see in cinemas should be permitted to be screened on television in family viewing.

The society said no mainstream church leaders were on the programme, nor was there a lawyer voicing a different view from the person on the programme who advocated legalising homosexual acts for 16 and over.

In submissions to the Tribunal, the Broadcasting Corporation said that it did not consider that homosexual love-making, exemplified in extracts from R18 movies which children were not permitted to see in cinemas should be permitted to be screened on television in family viewing.

The Corporation pointed out that there was no prohibition under section 24(2) from televising any part of an R18 film provided it did not include any portion which the Government Film Censor had required to be excised. There was no prohibition on adult programmes on television.

The Corporation also argued that the excerpt, together with other filming of homosexual recreational activities, was portrayed in subdued light. No element of obscene exposure entered the reenactment.

The Corporation claimed that in the dim light it was not possible to determine whether homosexual activities were occurring. The Corporation considered it was reasonable to expect that young children in the age range quoted by the complainant would not be viewing a programme such as Close Up at 8 p.m.

The Tribunal viewed a video tape of the programme and examined a transcript.

The Tribunal did not consider that the programme ultimately did provide a balance between the views of those who advocate change in the law and public acceptance of the homosexual way of life and those who oppose it.

This occurred principally by the programme choosing to confine itself to Miss Bartlett's views as representing the views of those who opposed a change in the law. There would obviously be a range of views expressed and it appeared that Miss Bartlett's view had been chosen to support the opinion that the opposition was based on prejudice.

The programme also examined the commercial acceptance of homosexuals and the absence of any legal reform. If it had confined itself to that then we would have seen the need for balance occur in the programme or later. But a number of those interviewed went further and advocated reform of the law to which Miss Bartlett was the only respondent.

However, it is one thing to say that the programme was not itself balanced and another to say that the complaint should be upheld. At the time of the preparation of the programme the reporter believed that a Bill was to be introduced to Parliament. It would be reasonable to assume then that there would be some debate on the matter within a reasonable time. The Tribunal takes the view that the programme content was not such that it was imperative that there should be balancing material within the same programme.

But we consider that balancing material should be provided in another programme. Since the expected debate has not taken place. Television New Zealand will no doubt consider the ways in which it can adequately represent the views of those who oppose homosexual law reform in terms other than those put forward in the programme. The period of current interest has not yet concluded and is unlikely to do so immediately but the need for some balance cannot be put aside indefinitely.

In respect of section 24(1)(e), the complaint is not upheld.

With regard to the time the programme was shown the Tribunal has considered a number of factors. The first is that the programme itself set about dramatically presenting a trailer of its content and it cannot be assumed that the scene in question was not at least attracted to watch. As the homosexual item was the first in the Close Up programme, it was broadcast shortly after 8 p.m.

The Tribunal would not consider it improper for excerpts from an R18 film to be shown in the programme but regard must be had to the excerpt chosen. While in the context of this programme it cannot be said to be obscene or even erotic, it did spend some 30 seconds showing in silhouette two males caressing and then kissing. They were identified (by the voice over) as men.

The Tribunal finds that, in this programme, the material shown was not essential.

Nor was it suitable for broadcast before 8.30 p.m.

It is concluded that the material was inserted for the dramatic effect it would have. This was not a case where the display of the material was natural in context or part of a drama presentation.

The chosen content of the movie was shown not just to identify the movie but for its impact.

Having regard to the material included in this segment of the programme, the Tribunal finds it was not appropriate for broadcast before 8.30 p.m.

The complaint in that respect is upheld.

Co-opted Members:

Ms Elizabeth Foyn-Bell were co-opted as persons whose qualifications or experience were likely to be of assistance to the Tribunal in dealing with the complaint. They took part in the consideration of the complaint and the deliberations of the Tribunal but the decision in that of the permanent members.

Dated the 16th day of February 1983.

For the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Exchange Rates

In terms of section 25 (2) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, the Reserve Bank today released outer limits for rates of exchange to be used in transactions involving the conversion of New Zealand currency into foreign currencies and foreign currencies into New Zealand currency when delivery of the foreign currency dealt in will be effected by telegraphic transfer. The following range of rates, for the main currencies used by New Zealand traders in settling foreign exchange transactions, will remain in force until replaced by a new Schedule issued by the Reserve Bank. These rates do not apply to transactions for settlement after the expiration of 2 business days (forward transactions) or to transactions in which instruments are purchased which do not entitle the buyer to foreign currency balances in the foreign centre until the instruments have been delivered at the foreign centre. In the latter case interest at foreign centre rates may be deducted from the telegraphic transfer rate to compensate the purchaser for his loss during the transit period.

IN THE MATTER of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of THE DUNKLEY CHILDREN’S TEMPORARY HOMES INCORPORATED:
Between The Dunkley Children’s Temporary Homes Incorporated—Applicant: and Her Majesty’s Attorney-General for the Dominion of New Zealand—Respondent:
Notice is hereby given that a scheme for transferring the assets of the Dunkley Children’s Temporary Homes Incorporated to The Dunedin Diocesan Trust Board has been prepared under the provisions of the above Act and approved by The Honourable the Attorney-General for New Zealand. It is proposed that the board will apply the income arising from the trust fund in or towards the medical treatment, education, care or welfare of handicapped, needy and/or deprived children in the provinces of Otago and Southland.

A copy of the scheme with the Attorney-General’s report thereon has been filed in the office of the Registrar of the High Court at Dunedin. The application for an order approving the scheme will be heard at the High Court at Dunedin on Wednesday the 4th day of May 1983 at 10 o’clock in the forenoon.

Any person opposing the proposed scheme must give notice of his opposition to the Registrar of the High Court at Dunedin, The Honourable the Attorney-General of New Zealand and the Dunkley Children’s Temporary Homes Incorporated no later than the 26th day of April 1983.

COOK ALLAN & CO., Solicitors for the Dunkley Children’s Temporary Homes Incorporated.

To Credit Managers. And to Whom It May Concern:
DOMINION PAINT CENTRE LTD.

On the 1st day of December 1981 a petition to wind up Dominion Paint Centre Ltd. (herein called “the company”) was presented to the Auckland High Court. The petition was based on failure by the company to pay the amount of a judgment obtained in the District Court at Auckland on the 25th day of September 1981. At the time the petition was filed the company had appealed to the High Court at Auckland against that judgment and the hearing of the appeal was still pending. The petitioner nevertheless advertised the petition on the 13th day of January 1982. The petition alleged the company’s inability to pay its debts.

The company has at all times been able to fully satisfy its creditors. The non-payment of the judgment was because the company alleged that it had a valid ground of appeal that should be heard. The judgment has now been satisfied in full.

This notice is inserted by Graham Greene and Partners, chartered accountants, Newmarket, on behalf of Dominion Paint Centre Ltd.

FLORA OF NEW ZEALAND, VOLUME III
By A. J. Healy and E. Edgar
220 p. 1980. $18.50 plus $1.50 p & p

Volumes I and II of Flora of New Zealand were concerned with native plants. The authors call volume III a "weed flora". The book is an identification manual, intended for agriculturists concerned with weed control, for botanists making vegetation surveys, and for anyone who needs to identify those weedy plants.

GLASSHOUSE TOMATOES
Agriculture Bulletin 3370

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

86 p. 1978. $3.25 plus 55c p & p

The present text replaces earlier editions of the bulletin. Important factors to consider when establishing a tomato-growing glasshouse, are lighting, soil type, site, water supply, shelter, and proximity to a market. These as well as general cultural practices are dealt with in this bulletin.
One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader. Descriptions of a few of the many types of reports.

Living Letters

The five basic exercises (5BX) Plan is designed to show how to structuring, writing, and revising reports, ideas on visual aids and descriptions of a few of the many types of reports.

Trees and Shrubs of New Zealand

This book has been designed especially to assist many people who lack a formal botanical training yet are deeply interested in New Zealand's trees and shrubs and want to be able to identify them and name them correctly. There is a complete coverage of the native trees and shrubs and over 400 species have been illustrated.

5BX Plan

The XBX Plan for physical fitness has been designed for varying age groups of males and women. The ten exercises in this booklet have been selected and their manner of use has been designed to enable women to achieve physical well being and to improve desirable qualities such as vitality, appearance, and personality. The XBX has been planned for gradual, painless progression toward physical fitness which will take just 12 minutes per day to do.

Introducing Management Services in the Public Service

Management Services is one means by which managers may obtain objective advice on their methods of carrying out their management task. This booklet is designed to explain to Public Sector Administrators how Management Services may help them to fulfil their managerial role.

Open Justice

Produced jointly by Brian Priestley and the Department of Justice, this publication is intended to capture and hold the reader's attention and facility to ready referencing of the subject covered. It does this admirably in being a guide to the information available to the public within one of New Zealand's most important and complex Government departments, as well as a booklet which is likely to be read and considered by many people interested in the campaign for more openness in government.

Who Makes Social Policy?

This booklet is intended as a guide for those whose work involves interviewing, for various purposes, recent Pacific Island migrants to New Zealand.

The Boat Owner's Guide to Corrosion

Much has been written about marine corrosion and its mitigation and yet the same problems and many old misconceptions still seem to persist. This booklet aims to assist the boat owner to identify the basic types of metallic corrosion, to understand their causes and the procedures that should be followed to avoid corrosion situations from developing in the first instance.

The State in Business: Public Enterprise in New Zealand

The authors' main aim is to present a framework for exploring questions prevalent in current public debate, such as the justification for government involvement in enterprise, the scope for private sector provision, and efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability in public enterprise.

The Path to Reform

The Path to Reform, derived from the 1981 Convention of the New Zealand Institute of Public Administration is about the path to administrative reform in the State Services in New Zealand. It continues the exploration of the States Services begun in "State Services and the Public in the 1980's" and continued in the "Accountability of Executive." Like its predecessors, "The Path to Reform" reads like a Who's Who of New Zealand public administrators.

Dimensions of the Public Sector 1960-1981

Mervyn Pope presents and discusses some new data series designed to give a broad overview of the nature and extent of public sector involvement in the New Zealand economy. Subjects include Government as a Tax Collector; As a Spender; As a Producer; As a Provider of Household Incomes; Composition of Government Non-Market Sector Expenditure; What Government Provides; Organisational Form; Funding-Current Activity; Capital Formation, and Capital Funding.

New Zealand Atlas of Coastal Resources

Encased in its own sturdy and attractive cylinder, the Atlas will be of interest to all those who use the coast to work and play, and is of particular value to students and teachers, engineers, planners, scientists, fishermen, boat owners, divers, marine farmers, and many other people interested in coastal resources.
MANPOWER PLANNING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
$3.95 plus 55c p & p
‘Manpower planning’ is a term which has a wide and rather ill-defined meaning. This report, addressed to the central question: “What is manpower planning?” opens with the philosophy of manpower planning, what it is, its aims and objectives. This is followed by a discussion of what is involved in forecasting the supply and demand for people and skills in the public service. The essentials of departmental manpower is then discussed followed by a chapter devoted to the practice of career development and concluding with a statement on the future development of manpower planning in the public service.

AFTER WORK
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
36 p. 1982 reprinted.
$3.50 plus 55c p & p
Written and produced in the Training and Development Branch Office, of the State Services Commission, this booklet asks “Have you made preparations or plans for retirement?” It includes information on Public Service Retirement Policy; finance; where to live; health and adjustment; names of organisations which may be of interest and a list of books and articles written about retirement.

THE SURRENDER AND OCCUPATION OF JAPAN
Edited by Robin Kay
DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
$75.00 plus $4.80 p & p
This is the second of a series of three volumes of documents on New Zealand’s external relations: the first, “The Australian - New Zealand Agreement 1944”, this volume: “The Surrender and Occupation of Japan” which covers six divisions of the period, selected by topic but dealt with chronologically within topics, and reveals the growing awareness amongst those responsible for a New Zealand policy of what New Zealand’s interest actually were: the third volume, “The ANZUS Pact and the Treaty of Peace With Japan”, not yet published, will show something of the new order in which covers such varied aspects as the plants and vegetation, animals, birds and insects, Maori history, the weather, volcanology, tracks, mountaineering, tramping and ski-ing.

PEOPLE LIKE US
Celebrating Cultural Diversity
120 p. 1982. Illustrated.
$18.95 plus $1.50 p & p
People Like Us is a story of the contribution made by people from Asia, Africa, Europe, and the Pacific to our neighbourhoods. It contains stories which are told by individuals and families on their reasons for coming to New Zealand; what they found and how they are coping. Subjects range from mixed marriages to different foods. It is a book of human interest for all the family and with its striking photographs, 25 monochrome, and 23 colour, People Like Us will make a lovely and interesting gift for overseas friends.

VISUAL WAYS
By Geoff Moss
$4.75 plus 55c p & p
Too often people find themselves having to speak in public, to train new employees, to teach various skills, or to give advice on arranging displays and exhibits without having had any relevant basic training. If you are such a person, this book was written to help in getting a message across more effectively by using visual aids.

WHERE TO START
By Vincent Burke
DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
$5.95 plus 85c p & p
This publication has been designed to help New Zealanders in the initial stages of getting a club, group, or organisation off the ground. The information it contains will be of assistance to a wide variety of different community groups, sporting, cultural, and recreational clubs. Included are suggestions for various administrative frameworks, legal structure, meetings, public relations, finance, and the constitution of the organisation.
