88 p. 1982.

$3.50 plus 55c p & p

Produced jointly by Brian Priestley and the Department of Justice, this publication is intended to capture and hold the reader's attention and facility to ready referencing of the subject covered. It does this admirably in being a guide to the information available to the public within one of New Zealand's most important and complex Government departments, as well as a booklet which is likely to be read and considered by many people interested in the campaign for more openies in companion. for more openness in government.

MANPOWER PLANNING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

51 p. 1981. Discussion Paper No. 1. $3.95 plus 55c p & p 'Manpower planning' is a term which has a wide and rather ill-defined meaning. This report, addressed to the central question: "What is manpower planning?", opens with the philosophy of manpower planning, what it is, its aims and objectives. This is followed by a discussion of what is involved in forecasting the supply and demand for people and skills in the public service. The essentials of departmental manpower is then discussed followed by a chapter devoted to the practice of career development and concluding with a statement on the future development of manpower planning in the public service.
