Trading Bank Reserve Asset Ratio

Pursuant to section 33 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, the Reserve Bank, acting with the approval of the Minister of Finance, hereby gives notice that as from and including the 1st January 1984 and until further notice each trading bank shall maintain during each calendar month balances at the Reserve Bank plus holdings of Reserve Bank notes, of New Zealand coin, and of New Zealand Government securities, such that the aggregate of the averages of those balances and holdings during that calendar month (determined in accordance with clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this notice) equals or exceeds the aggregate of:

26.5 percent of that trading bank’s average demand and time deposit liabilities in New Zealand in the immediately preceding calendar month (determined in accordance with the provisions of clause 3 of this notice).

Provided that a trading bank may make up its balances and holdings as aforesaid for a calendar month to the amount hereinafter required for that calendar month by way of borrowings from the Reserve Bank made during the next following calendar month and on terms and conditions to be determined by the Reserve Bank and the proceeds of all such borrowings shall be credited to the account of that trading bank with the Reserve Bank termed “Contra Deposit Account” and on terms and conditions to be determined by the Reserve Bank.

For the purposes of this notice:

1. Balances held by a trading bank at the Reserve Bank shall (subject to clause 6 of this notice) include both demand deposit balances and time deposit balances of that trading bank.
2. The average of a trading bank’s holdings of Reserve Bank notes and of New Zealand coin for a calendar month shall be the average of the figures shown in all weekly returns of Banking Statistics by that trading bank under the Statistics Act 1975 received during that calendar month.
3. The average of a trading bank’s balances at the Reserve Bank and holdings of New Zealand Government securities for a calendar month shall in each case be the average of the figures for balances and such securities held by that trading bank on each day during that calendar month.
4. Government securities held by a trading bank shall consist of Government stock and Treasury bills (all at nominal value) held by that trading bank.
5. The average demand and time deposit liabilities of a trading bank in a calendar month shall be the average of the figures for days within that calendar month, as shown in that trading bank’s weekly returns of Banking Statistics under the Statistics Act 1975.
6. The proceeds of any borrowings made by a trading bank pursuant to the proviso to this notice shall be deemed to be a part of and be included in the balances held by that trading bank at the Reserve Bank on the last day of the preceding calendar month.

The proceeds of any such borrowing shall not be included in the balances held by that trading bank at the Reserve Bank during any other calendar month.

R. S. DEANE, Deputy Governor.

In the matter of the Companies Act 1955, and in the matter of CAVALIER CARPETS OF NEW ZEALAND LIMITED, incorporated company having its registered office at Auckland—Applicant:

Notice is hereby given that a sealed copy of the order of the High Court of New Zealand dated the 21st day of October confirming the reduction of the share premium account of CAVALIER CARPETS OF NEW ZEALAND LIMITED was registered with the Registrar of Companies on the 2nd day of December 1983. The said order is in the words and figures following:

1. That the action of the applicant resolved in the special resolution passed by the applicant on the 18th day of August 1983 whereby the applicant is permitted to distribute up to the sum of $442,104 from the amount standing to the credit of the share premium account of the applicant be confirmed subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) That the applicant may not vary or revoke such special resolution without the prior approval of the Court; and
(ii) That so long as any part of the said sum of $442,104 remains undistributed the accounts of the applicant shall be noted to show:

(a) the existence of the said special resolution; and
(b) what part of the said sum remains undistributed but still subject to the special resolution as at the dates to which those accounts are made up.

2. That no minute as referred to in section 78 of the Companies Act 1955 is required and accordingly that no minute need be produced to the Registrar or registered.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to section 36 of the above-mentioned Act that Hugh Douglas Moss of New Plymouth, solicitor, as surviving executor and trustee of the Will of the said William Allan Sedgwick and as sole executor and trustee of the Will of Clara Jane Sedgwick has applied to the High Court for the approval of a scheme prepared under section 34 of the said Act for the disposition as hereinafter mentioned of the funds held by him pursuant to the Will of the said William Allan Sedgwick and of the land and buildings and net rents held by him pursuant to the Will of Clara Jane Sedgwick upon trust for the trustees of the Whitley Methodist Church, the said trust being impossible or impracticable or inexpedient to carry out for the purposes stated in such trust.

Particulars of the said scheme are as follows:

1. To apply the whole or such part of the capital of the Trust Funds as the Trust Board shall from time to time think fit in the provision of an unit for the frail, aged and elderly sick as part of the Tainui Home owned by the Trust Board in Clifton Street, New Plymouth, either by adapting part of the said home for that purpose or by adding thereto or both and in furnishing, decorating and fitting up such unit to such a standard as the Trust Board in its discretion shall determine. The wing of the Tainui Home in which such unit is situated shall be known as the Sedgwick Wing.

2. To permit the Trust Board to use, manage and control the said unit as an integral part of Tainui Home and to provide such additional care for elderly persons as in the opinion of the Trust Board may be required.

3. To invest any surplus of the Trust Fund after providing funds as aforesaid upon the trusts provided in the said Wills shall be applied for the following purposes:

5. The Trust Board shall make provision in its annual accounts for such additional care for elderly persons as in the opinion of the Trust Board may be required.

4. With the prior consent of the Methodist Church of New Zealand to apply the whole or any part of the capital of that Trust Fund in adding to repairing or maintaining the said unit.

5. The Trust Board shall make provision in its annual accounts for such additional care for elderly persons as in the opinion of the Trust Board may be required.

6. The provisions of the constitution of the Tainui Home Trust Board shall mutatis mutandis apply to this Trust Deed.

The said scheme and the Attorney-General's report thereon have been filed in and may be inspected at the offices of the High Court at New Plymouth.

The date proposed for the hearing of the application to approve the said scheme is Monday, the 27th day of February 1984.

Any person desiring to oppose the said scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at New Plymouth in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as aforesaid in (I) hereof in investments for the time being authorised by law and from time to time vary and transpose such investments. The Trust Board shall apply the annual income arising therefrom in maintaining the said unit including staff wages and the subsiding of accommodation costs payable by the occupants of such unit.

With the prior consent of the Methodist Church of New Zealand to apply the whole or any part of the capital of that Trust Fund in adding to repairing or maintaining the said unit.

5. The Trust Board shall make provision in its annual accounts for such additional care for elderly persons as in the opinion of the Trust Board may be required.

6. The provisions of the constitution of the Tainui Home Trust Board shall mutatis mutandis apply to this Trust Deed.

The said scheme and the Attorney-General's report thereon have been filed in and may be inspected at the offices of the High Court at New Plymouth.

The date proposed for the hearing of the application to approve the said scheme is Monday, the 27th day of February 1984.

Any person desiring to oppose the said scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at New Plymouth in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as aforesaid in (I) hereof in investments for the time being authorised by law and from time to time vary and transpose such investments. The Trust Board shall apply the annual income arising therefrom in maintaining the said unit including staff wages and the subsiding of accommodation costs payable by the occupants of such unit.

FLORA OF NEW ZEALAND, VOLUME III

By A. J. Healy and E. Edgar

220 p. 1980. $18.50 plus $1.50 p & p

Volumes I and II of Flora of New Zealand were concerned with native plants. The authors call volume III a “weed flora”. The book is an identification manual, intended for agriculturists concerned with weed control, for botanists making vegetation surveys, and for anyone who needs to identify those weedy plants.

GLASSHOUSE TOMATOES

Agriculture Bulletin 370

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

86 p. 1978. $3.25 plus 55c p & p

The present text replaces earlier editions of the bulletin. Important factors to consider when establishing a tomato-growing glasshouse, are lighting, soil type, site, water supply, shelter, and proximity to a market. These as well as general cultural practices are dealt with in this bulletin.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old cliches of “acknowledging receipt of”, “according to our records”, and “enclosed please find” it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing Living Letters.

TREES AND SHRUBS OF NEW ZEALAND

By A. L. Poole and Nancy M. Adams

275 p. 1979 fourth impression with amendments. $15.95 plus $1.50 p & p

This book has been designed especially to assist many people who lack a formal botanical training yet are deeply interested in New Zealand’s trees and shrubs and want to be able to identify them and name them correctly. There is a complete coverage of the native trees and shrubs and over 400 species have been illustrated.
SBX PLAN
ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE
The five basic exercises (SBX) Plan is designed to show how to develop and hold a high level of physical fitness. The scheme is not dependent on elaborate facilities or equipment. The exercises require only eleven minutes a day and can be done in the house or office. The Plan is scientifically designed to develop personal fitness at a rate set by youselv, to your required level, without getting stiff or sore muscles. It is self measuring with charts for age groupings, along with graduated standards for checking progress. The programs are designed for varying age groups of males.

TOWN BIRDS OF NEW ZEALAND
Wall Posters
Size: 840 × 590 mm
$4.95 each plus 55c p & p
Two stunning large wall posters display a total of 35 bird photographs from the book 'Field Guide To Town Birds'. The photographs are shown in full colour against a black background giving a sparkling eye-catching display of each bird in all its photographic detail.

FUR, FEATHER AND FIN
Frances M. Ross
47 p. 1983. Illustrated. $2.25 plus 55c p & p
This booklet takes a nostalgic look at a century of wildlife in the Te Anau region. With historical monochrome photographs and text, Frances Ross has compiled a very interesting account of the impact that man has made on the flora and fauna of the region. A Tourist Guide to Te Anau, just as it appeared in Tourist Guide to the Lakes, Mountains and Fiords of Otago, published by the Government Printer in 1898, has been thoughtfully included to round off this glimpse into our past.

NEW ZEALAND FOREST PARKS
Geoffrey Chavasse and John Johns
288 p. 1983. Illustrated. $42.95 plus $3.60 p & p
New Zealand Forest Parks is one of those books that you will reach for time after time to simply enjoy or to relive visits made, to plan visits to come. Each forest park is described in a separate chapter with photographs, text, maps, and charts to illustrate our nineteen forest parks, perhaps unrivalled for diversity and interest anywhere else in the world.

THE NEW ZEALAND WARS
By James Cowan
$69.50 plus $4.80 p & p
This book was first published in 1922 and reprinted without amendments in 1955. It has been out of print for many years. This edition has a new and perceptive introduction by Michael King and in addition the original seven page index has been replaced by a substantial and comprehensive index. This 1983 edition is called a facsimile edition because it is being reproduced from the original text. However, the introduction, index and illustrations include alterations and improvements on the original.

ELECTRICITY FOR MOTOR MECHANICS
N.Z. TECHNICAL CORRESPONDENCE INSTITUTE
256 p. 1983 reprint. Illustrated. $10.00 plus 85c p & p
Noted in paper back, this popular publication provides a basis for the study of automotive electricity for apprentice motor mechanics. Car owners, too, and persons interested in the general maintenance of motor engines will find the book a reliable guide to the detection and remedy of minor electrical faults.

VISUAL WAYS
By Geoff Moss
46 p. 1982. Illustrated. $4.75 plus 55c p & p
Too often people find themselves having to speak in public, to train new employees, to teach various skills, or to give advice on arranging displays and exhibits without having had any relevant basic training. If you are such a person, this book was written to help in getting a message across more effectively by using visual aids.

WHERE TO START
By Vincent Burke
DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
61 p. 1982. Illustrated. $5.95 plus 85c p & p
This publication has been designed to help New Zealanders in the initial stages of getting a club, group, or organisation off the ground. The information it contains will be of assistance to a wide variety of different community groups, sporting, cultural, and recreational clubs. Included are suggestions for various administrative frameworks; legal structure, meetings, public relations, finance, and the constitution of the organisation.

ABOUT NEW ZEALAND
MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
40 p. 1982. Illustrated. $4.95 plus 55c p & p
Designed with our overseas friends in mind, About New Zealand is a booklet which briefly describes the land, its people at work, and play, trade, and relationships with other nations and areas: industry and energy; health and welfare. The text is complimented by over 60 colour photographs.
