(S.A. 114/2/8)
The 8 novels under consideration have, as the Comptroller of Customs states, "a common theme in that they describe in often graphic detail, the development of sexual relationship". He further states that "It would appear however, that the standard of writing is higher than is normally encountered in publications based on this theme", so it would appear that the present publications written by Anonymous, with one exception, differ very little from the example studied in 1971. All have a sexual theme, are provocative, sensual in presentation, even bizarre, but there is no doubt either that each novel is written in an easy to read and flowing style. The exception is I. It is subtitled "a sensuous novel of an ultimate love experience" and in the author's preface it is said to be a "mysterious amalgam on love and religion". The sexual theme is more explicit than in the other novels and combined as it is with a religious theme it becomes clearly offensive. I is classified as unconditionally indecent.

As far as the other novels are concerned the Tribunal needs to be consistent in making its decision. Also, the publications have been available for some time in hardback form, so any classification given should reflect this factor.

Therefore, in order to be consistent, there would appear to be no reason to differ from Decision No. 294. The Tribunal classifies the 8 publications, Them, Us, Two, Him, Me, Woman and You as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publication:

Reference No. Ind. 9/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

THESE publications were privately imported through Auckland Parcels Post in February 1984. The books were seized and the importer disputed forfeiture. They have been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Young Lust No. 5 is a comic with sex as its theme. It is described as being exotic, erotic and neurotic. As the Comptroller says in its satire of sex, morsel it depicts homosexual acts as well as heterosexual sexual intercourse. Young Lust No. 1 to No. 3 were considered by the Tribunal in Decision 686 and 782. The Young Lust Reader was also considered in Decision 884. This particular publication is not different from earlier cases and it is classified as indecent.

Cocaine Comix No. 2 utilises the use of cocaine as its theme. In our view the publication attempts to promote and glamourise the illicit use of cocaine which is what the Comptroller submitted. It is classified as indecent.

Tits and Clits No. 2 is a sex based comic poorly produced and crude in the extreme. It is classified as indecent. The Checkered Demon III is as the Comptroller submits a combination of violence and sex. It is likewise classified as indecent.

All these publications come from the United States and none have any literary or artistic merit nor any redeeming features.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of June 1984.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

DECISION

These publications were privately imported through Auckland Parcels Post in February 1984. The books were seized and the importer disputed forfeiture. They have been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Young Lust No. 5 is a comic with sex as its theme. It is described as being exotic, erotic and neurotic. As the Comptroller says in its satire of sex, morsel it depicts homosexual acts as well as heterosexual sexual intercourse. Young Lust No. 1 to No. 3 were considered by the Tribunal in Decision 686 and 782. The Young Lust Reader was also considered in Decision 884. This particular publication is not different from earlier cases and it is classified as indecent.

Cocaine Comix No. 2 utilises the use of cocaine as its theme. In our view the publication attempts to promote and glamourise the illicit use of cocaine which is what the Comptroller submitted. It is classified as indecent.

Tits and Clits No. 2 is a sex based comic poorly produced and crude in the extreme. It is classified as indecent. The Checkered Demon III is as the Comptroller submits a combination of violence and sex. It is likewise classified as indecent.

All these publications come from the United States and none have any literary or artistic merit nor any redeeming features.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of June 1984.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 1984

1. General Accounting Policies
(a) The measurement base adopted is that of historical cost. Reliance is placed on the fact that the Bank is a going concern.
(b) Accrual accounting is used to match expenses and revenues.

2. Particular Accounting Policies
Particular accounting policies used which significantly affect the measurement of the Bank's profit and its financial position, are set out below:
(a) Recognition of Income
Interest on investments is recognised as income for the period in which it is earned, rather than the period in which it is received. Interest charged on personal loans is apportioned over the term of the loan, using the "Rule of 78" method.
(b) Depreciation
Fixed assets are being depreciated on a straight line basis at rates which will write off the cost over their estimated useful lives to estimated residual values. The principal write off periods are:
Buildings 40—100 years
Computer and Office 5—10 years
Calculating Equipment 10—15 years
Furniture and Fittings 3—15 years
Other Fixed Assets
(c) Taxation
Taxation charged against net profit is the estimated expense relating to the result of the year. It includes an amount for taxation, the payment of which is deferred to future periods, because taxation practice differs from accounting policies in the treatment of:
(i) Interest accrued on investments
(ii) Depreciation charges
(iii) Interest accrued included in the purchase price of New Zealand Government securities.
(d) Investments
New Zealand Government and local authorities securities are stated at cost, excluding interest accrued at date of purchase. Such securities are normally held to maturity, and their value on redemption approximates cost.

3. Changes in Accounting Policies
There have been no material changes in accounting policies.
4. The loss on New Zealand Government Securities recorded this year resulted from the sale of low yielding securities, the proceeds from which were re-invested in higher yielding securities.
5. (a) Fixed Assets

AUDITORS' REPORT
We have audited the books and accounts of the Auckland Savings Bank for the year ended 31 March 1984 in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and have carried out such procedures as we considered necessary. In our opinion, the balance sheet and profit and loss account, together with the notes thereon, are properly drawn up so as to give a true and fair view of the financial affairs of the Auckland Savings Bank as at 31 March 1984 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with section 43 (2) of the Trustee Banks Act 1983.
