Commerce Act 1975

NOTICE is hereby given that by letter dated 6 July 1984, the Minister of Trade and Industry withdrew his earlier reference to the Commerce Commission of 17 May 1984, wherein he required the Commission to inquire into the advisability of removing cement from the Positive List of Controlled Goods and Services. In his latest letter the Minister indicated that the cement manufacturing companies had conveyed to him their wish to have the question of the possible removal of cement from price control deferred at present and that he had acceded to this request.

The Minister’s latest letter requires the Commission, in terms of section 104 of the Act, to inquire into and report to him (with reasons) on:

(a) The current price control methods of the Secretary of Trade and Industry in relation to the setting of maximum cement prices.

(b) The current pricing practices of the cement manufacturing industry in the distribution and sale of cement.

(c) Whether changes are considered necessary to current price control practices.

(d) Such other recommendations as the Commission thinks fit.

The Commission proposes to consider these issues in conjunction with its consideration of the applications made by the cement manufacturers for the approval of a proposed Collective Pricing Agreement and a proposed Individual Resale Price Maintenance Agreement, at a public hearing to commence at 10.30 a.m. on Tuesday, 27 November 1984, at the Commission’s Offices, Sixth Floor, 163 The Terrace, Wellington.

TRUCK OPERATING COSTS
In the case of vehicles used for business purposes, especially trucks, it is essential that a record be kept of vehicle expenditure and performance. This handbook will assist operators of motor vehicles ranging from 3.2 tone petrol trucks to 45.0 tone heavy articulated diesel trucks to identify and possibly reduce operating costs.

THE PATH TO REFORM
Edited by C. Burns
$15.75 plus $1.50 p & p
The Path to Reform, derived from the 1981 Convention of the New Zealand Institute of Public Administration is about the path to administrative reform in the State Services in New Zealand. It continues the exploration of the States Services begun in "State Servants and the Public in the 1980's" and continued in the "Accountability of Executive." Like its predecessors, "The Path to Reform" reads like a Who's Who of New Zealand public administrators.

EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT: For Busy Managers
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
$4.95 plus 55c p & p
Management has been described as "what managers do". But what is that? Getting things done? Getting other people to do them? Using resources economically? And what does the 'effective' manager do? This book looks at answers to such questions. It has been written as an introduction to the subject, especially for New Zealand managers who want to manage their organisation better.
A statement on the future development of manpower planning in 'Manpower planning' is a term which has a wide and rather ill-
of particular value to students and teachers, engineers, planners,

MANPOWER PLANNING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
'Manpower planning' is a term which has a wide and rather illdeﬁned meaning. This report, addressed to the central question:
"What is manpower planning?", opens with the philosophy of manpower planning, what it is, its aims and objectives. This is followed by a discussion of what is involved in forecasting the supply and demand for people and skills in the public service. The essentials departmental manpower is then discussed followed by a chapter devoted to the practice of career development and concluding with a statement on the future development of manpower planning in the public service.

of different community groups, sporting, cultural, and recreational clubs. Included are suggestions for various administrative frameworks; legal structure, meetings, public relations, ﬁnance, and the constitution of the organisation.

PROFESSIONALLY SPEAKING
25p. 1983. $3.25 plus 55c p & p
“Speech is power; speech is to persuade, to convert, to compel”, said Emerson. Ignorance is the biggest stumbling block in the path of the aspiring public speaker. Your purpose in speaking must be that you have something to say, rather than that you have to say something. This inexpensive booklet will help the person who has to speak professionally.

P.R. FOR THE ADMINISTRATOR

THE NEW ZEALAND WARS
By James Cowan
This book was first published in 1922 and reprinted without amendments in 1955. It has been out of print for many years. This edition has a new and perceptive introduction by Michael King and in addition the original seven page index has been replaced by a substantial and comprehensive index. This 1983 edition is called a facsimile edition because it is being reproduced from the original text. However, the introduction, index and illustrations include alterations and improvements on the original.
