IN THE MATTER of Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and IN THE MATTER of an application by GEORGE REES MILLS and BARRY THOMAS DUKE, of Auckland, solicitors, trustees in the estate of WILLIAM MORTIMER CAMPBELL, deceased, for the approval of a scheme:

NOTICE is hereby given that George Rees Mills and Barry Thomas Duke of Auckland, solicitors, as trustees in the estate of William Mortimer Campbell, formerly of Auckland, deceased, have applied to the High Court at Dunedin for approval of a scheme modifying the trusts upon which they hold the estate.

The will of the late William Mortimer Campbell, directed his trustees to hold the residue of his estate upon trust to establish a scholarship fund known as the W. M. Campbell Scholarship for the purposes of encouraging the teaching and writing of essays and poetry, such scholarship to be awarded to a pupil at the Owaka District High School for the furtherance of his or her education. The recipient to be decided by the Head of the English Department at the Otago Boys' High School is the pupil judged most worthy on the basis of poems or essays submitted for this purpose. The scholarship consists of the net income yielded by the trust fund in the preceding year and is to be paid to scholarship winners in such manner and upon such conditions as the Trustees in their absolute discretion think fit.
