- deletes definitions which are not appropriate to the bylaw;
- provides for the redefinition of Standards from documents incorporated in the bylaw by reference, to means of compliance. This is done to simplify the publication of MP 101 and reduce the extent of documents incorporated by reference in the bylaw;
- to include a standard clause in the bylaw, commonly included in means of compliance Standards, providing for reference to named Standards to be taken as including amendments to those Standards.

Copies of the standard specifications so amended may be ordered from the Standards Association of New Zealand, Wellington Trade Centre, 15-23 Sturdee Street (or Private Bag), Wellington.
