

rebroadcast. It is now thought that the clause prohibiting networking may prohibit this type of broadcasting or at least put it in doubt.

To put the matter beyond doubt the warrant will be amended in this respect to provide the usual prohibition against networking but to make it clear that Radio New Zealand bulletins including those containing sports news may be broadcast by the station.

With regard to the extension of hours the extension seems to fulfil a useful purpose in programming for the Dunedin audience.

No objections have been received to either aspect of the application.

The tribunal will grant the application and at the same time to make the position clear insert the usual prohibition regarding networking but with the proviso that the warrant holder may, notwithstanding any prohibition contained or implied in the warrant, form or join in forming or enter into or be or become a member of any network of broadcasting stations for the purpose of rebroadcasting Radio New Zealand news bulletins including bulletins which contain sports news.

The hours will be amended by deleting the present provision for the hours of transmission on Sundays and substituting: Sundays 0900-2300.

Dated at 19th day of April 1984.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.
