Decision No. 14/85

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of applications for commercial FM sound radio warrants for Manawatu by:

(1) THE MANAWATU RADIO COMPANY LIMITED
(2) BROADCASTING CORPORATION OF NEW ZEALAND:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Members: Anne E. Wilson and Robert Boyd-Bell.

The Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (BCNZ) application introduced a new concept in radio programming derived from subminimal coding of a message to the local studio to trigger programme material prepared there in advance. The application was made therefore not for a full operation as part of the existing ZM network which provides full programme services, except for networking in the evening and early hours of the morning. The ZM-FM station could be described as a hybrid between a FM and a mini-station. Unlike other such local operations the station was not addressing itself to a broad demographic nor providing full community services.

The intention was to extend to the Manawatu the main centre ZM service by a network operation with a 4-hour local operation during peak hours. During the network period up to midnight, local material could be prepared locally for insertion by an electronic trigger from Wellington to give the network programming a local flavour. This would apply to both local commercials and capsules of local information.

The programming can be provided at a lower cost than a stand alone operation and, according to the Corporation, could be successful in the market with lower revenue expectations.

In the first year the total income of the ZM station was likely to be $477,000 compared with gross advertising revenue last year of the Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd. of $1,235,654 which after commissions and other expenses netted $932,306. At the end of the third year the total ZM income was estimated at $605,200, after allowing for an inflation factor of 13.8 percent for the second year and 11.3 percent for the third year. The new station was to be a contemporary music station with a carefully defined target audience of 15-30. The station would not duplicate services already provided, the Corporation claimed, although it later modified its position when 2XS denied that it was targeting a 20-44 age group.

The Corporation saw ZZA providing a news, sport, information, current affairs and music service for 25-34 and the YA and YC programmes providing their traditional services. The student radio station provided alternative music. The FM proposal would provide a mix of predominantly current music with some older material. The BCNZ claimed that the proposal represented a realistic, cost efficient alternative, budgeting on a level of income which could be supported by the broadcast licence holders.

Nevertheless the Corporation said, it would provide a full and comprehensive service leaving the listener in no doubt that the station was locally based and reflecting market needs of the local retail community was as well as the programme interests and the needs of the local listening audience.

Periods of local origination would be from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. daily. A toll-free direct line to Wellington would ensure participation in station promotions and contests for 18 hours a day.

The Corporation suggested that the ZM-FM programme would be targeted to a 20-44 or a 25-44 age group once both FM stations were established. The Corporation claimed the applications were therefore complementary with ZZA providing a 23-34 news, sport, information and current affairs orientated service and the ZM-FM programme would provide a mix of predominantly current music with some older material.

Section 80—In considering the applications, the Tribunal, before determining whether or not to grant each of the applications, had regard to the following matters set out in section 80 of the Broadcasting Act 1976, so far as they are applicable.

(a) The extent to which the proposed service is desirable in the public interest—

The 2XS application would introduce an FM service with a broad appeal to the existing coverage area of the AM station. With modifications to the existing programme, we expect it would be a popular programme. The existence of the AM station, at least for a short period, would help to promote audience switching to the FM mode.

The extension of the present service to FM is in accordance with the policy for the development of FM broadcasting and reflects the applicant's commitment to FM. We are not sure that it would be either for the benefit of the applicant or the public for the AM service to continue for as long as three years. While there may be perceived advantages from an economic point of view in sustaining the FM operation during its formative stage, it may, in the long run, simply split the audience.

The AM station has been successful and is providing an attractive service.

The 2M application presents a proven appeal to a young (15-20) age group with an emphasis on the 15-25. It introduces some local elements, similar to that of a mini-station and to that limited extent can be regarded as a local service. We have considered the operational aspects of the proposed service in the light of present audience patterns. It appeared that, if this application were granted as well as the 2XS application, the 2M service would compete directly and successfully for the 15-20 age group but may well find that 2XS-FM dominated the 20-35 age group and even 20-40.
The merits of the application are that it brings a specialist type of programming that has proved popular in metropolitan centres. It has an undoubted appeal in provincial centres partly because it introduces participation in metropolitan radio.

It also brings with it the BCNZ commitment to introduce the Concert Programme on FM. This is a considerable benefit to the region.

(b) The economic effect with the establishment of the station to which the application relates is likely to have in respect of broadcasting stations already in operation—

The 2XS application was not opposed by the BCNZ. There was evidence presented to us that suggested an adverse impact on the Corporation—there was certainly no evidence of concern about the $77,548 drop in 2ZA revenue which M. J. P. Dunlop, for the Corporation, estimated.

This 5 percent drop contrasts with his estimate that the grant of the 2XS-FM application to the Corporation would result in a loss of 3 percent of 2XS-FM revenue which M. J. P. Dunlop for the Corporation estimated.

He considered that with the ZM stations the core audience was 15-24 years. ZM-FM would gain its audience in the 25-34 age group, 2XS-FM would gain 23 percent of audience share and 2XS-AM would gain its 23 percent of audience principally in the 20-44 age group.

The Department of Statistics calculates the population 10 years and over is 76,000 for the statistical division of Palmerston North. It would be an extremely competitive market with existing FM stations at 25,333 people per station compared with 28,533 in the Hawke's Bay.

Mr Dunlop said that Radio New Zealand has accepted that it was probable that audience with a population of 40,000 would eventually have two local stations and population centres above 75-80,000 would have three. He saw the ZM service as the third service taking a large amount of income out of the market, he emphasised the importance of a quick phase-out of 2XS-AM in the interests of all the operators and of the public. He believed that the listener base would increase rapidly as a result of that course being followed with two FM operators.

We accepted that evidence. The grant of both warrants would require the ZM station to stick strictly to its format of 15 plus but would allow the 2XS-FM original target audience of 10-34 to be extended to its present target of 10-44 and we would expect that the station might skew that audience to the middle and higher levels of its demographic group. Whether it did this or not would be for the operators.

We considered that the effect of granting the ZM application on Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd will not be so serious as to affect its changeover and to make the decision whether to continue the AM service as the third service taking a very strong share in the 15-29 age group by default. He claimed that ZM was serving the same audience.

We noted the evidence of the Manawatu witnesses who saw growth in the market.

We were asked to limit the period to a few months rather than to 3 years. While that may aid the Corporation, we do not believe as a new entrant it should so restrict 2XS-AM. Moreover we do agree the merits of a shorter period should be considered by Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd. from a point of view. As long as the AM operation continues some of the audience over 25 will not move across to the FM station.

The Tribunal would therefore be unlikely to impose such a condition.

It is also clear that the risks being taken by the Manawatu Radio Co. are greater than those being taken by the BCNZ.

We would therefore consider it reasonable that the 2XS-FM operation should have a lead time of 6 months on the ZM-FM commencement in order to give it an opportunity to establish its changeover and to make the decision whether to continue the AM operation beyond that date.

We consider then that the effect of granting the ZM application on Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd. will not be so serious as to affect its viability and does not outweigh the advantages of introducing the ZM service.

We noted the evidence of the Manawatu witnesses who saw growth in the market.

(c) The effect which the establishment of the station to which the application relates may have on broadcasting services provided by the Corporation in the public interest—

The Corporation did not oppose the grant of the 2XS-FM application on this ground.

One effect claimed for the establishment of the ZM-FM station is that it will enable the Corporation to finance an FM Concert Programme service for the Manawatu. This was also put in a negative form to us, namely: that the Corporation would not proceed with conversion to FM of the Concert Programme in this region if it did not get the ZM-FM warrant, unless it was otherwise directed.

The essence of this approach, like some previous approaches of the Corporation that we have been directed to carry out some selected obligations under the Act unless the Tribunal took a certain course, was somewhat distasteful. This approach has perhaps been forced on the Corporation from time to time by political directives rather than by the Corporation's own wishes.

We have regard to the development of broadcasting in New Zealand and, in particular, FM broadcasting. The effect on the Corporation in this case would be that the profit expected to be generated from the ZM operation will enable an extension of non-commercial services to the area.

We must have regard to the development of broadcasting in New Zealand and, in particular, FM broadcasting. The effect on the Corporation in this case would be that the profit expected to be generated from the ZM operation will enable an extension of non-commercial services to the area.
On behalf of the Corporation, Mr Dunlop told the Tribunal:

"Upon receipt of a warrant for a commercial ZM-FM station for the Manawatu the Corporation undertakes to apply for a warrant for an FM service to reley the Concert Programme in the Manawatu."

An argument was raised by counsel for Manawatu Radio Co. that there was some significance in the fact that YC stations were being commenced while commercial FM operations began. That ignores the fact that the Tribunal recommended and the Government accepted that the development of the Concert Programme FM should take place first in those areas which have not been receiving a satisfactory YC-AM service.

It could have been expected therefore that the Corporation, with its stated commitment to a specific budget for Concert Programme FM development irrespective of any other revenue, might have seen the Manawatu as one of those places it would serve in any event without delay.

In the circumstances we deem it appropriate to link the ZM proposal with the Concert Programme FM plan and provide for simultaneous commencement of both services.

We believe there is a need in this area of substantial population for an FM service. Both applicants would provide one.

We also find that there is a need for the FM service in the area. The station has made a commitment to FM and thus the needs of the area. The station has been a committed to FM and has demonstrated the courage to carry it out by moving to FM rather than sitting on its AM warrant and resisting any FM intrusion.

We also find that there is a need for the 2ZA service and that the introduction of the 2Z-FM service would not in any way substitute for the service provided by 2ZA and thus the needs filled by that station. The ZM service is oriented for a different audience and is not a substitute or alternative for 2ZA.

Both applicants have the commercial ability to carry on their proposed services. The Corporation is prepared to fund the capital involvement and has produced its costings on a marginal cost basis. On a true costing basis it is likely that the profit is very much less and possibly non-existent.

However, it pleases the Corporation to consider these matters on a marginal cost basis which produces an apparent surplus to apply to other activities, namely the Concert Programme. If the Corporation were happy to carry on the business of licensing the proposed services, the Tribunal, on behalf of the consumer, probably should not look the gift horse in the mouth.

We regard this approach as a dangerous one, however. As we have said before, we think it tends to justify every extension of service, and to provide arguments against any contraction of services. It would have been helpful if the Corporation could have indicated what the actual costs would be.

The Manawatu Radio Co. after the swallowing of setting up costs and the cost of establishing itself in the marketplace, has now produced a profit according to the figures that were produced to us of $161,839, which is a more than satisfactory return on shareholders' funds. The profit was an increase of about one-third on the previous year. It was, however, arrived at without payment of tax.

It is also to be noted that 2XS's revenue had not increased in the year and that the better profit situation arose from lower payments of tax.

With the experience the company now has however, we believe it would be in a position to finance the changeover and withstand any difficulties that might arise over the next year or two in the establishment of the FM station. The financial viability will be aided by there being two FM stations in the area and only one AM commercial service after the 2XS-AM operation closes down.

It is appropriate to mention at this point that the selective use of statistics did Manawatu Radio Co. no credit and the Tribunal had to call for further details to get a true picture of the profiles of each of the Palmerston North stations.

One might have expected that the industry was mature enough to present figures which objectively showed the respective strengths and weaknesses of the stations in the market, rather than present them to the Tribunal in the selective form used to secure sales.

Eventually it was clear from a table presented in relation to the McNair survey from April 1983 which covered the 6 a.m. to midnight, Monday to Saturday audiences that 2XS dominated the 13-24 age group with more than 80 percent of the audience that it carried the 25-29 audience with 60 percent against 2ZA's 33 percent, but the trend changed after that. In the 30-34 age group 2XS had 40 percent of the audience compared with 2ZA's 53 percent for the 35-39 age group only 21 percent compared with the Corporation's 67 percent.

The BCNZ introduced a business survey which was largely accepted by 2XS although it was pointed out not all the information gathered had been analysed for presentation to the Tribunal.

There was also one question which was challenged by 2XS. Basically however the surveys produced no information that was substantial evidence to persuade us to refuse an application.

The transfer of 2XS to FM will, in due course, make the AM frequency available for other purposes.

There were no issues relating to this.

It is a convenient point, however, to consider the news question. We accept the evidence of 2XS that it may well be necessary to maintain a higher news profile than one might expect in a FM music station in a metropolitan area.

We also accept that the 2ZM service will provide a slightly different emphasis of news from other Radio New Zealand sources.

It is convenient here to consider the local origination aspects.

While 2XS-FM will provide a 24-hour local service, the Radio New Zealand ZM proposition will mean that in terms of local origination it is nothing like a full station.

2XS has the existing advantage over 2ZA which joins the network for the Tonight Show in the evenings and for the midnight to 5 a.m. period. However, 2ZA does provide full services to the community in the networking periods—that will also limit the competitive element against the total commitment of 2XS to the region.

We would therefore limit the period of local origination and not allow it to be extended without the approval of the Tribunal. It is also an argument for limiting the commercial content which ZM may extract from the market.

We discuss this later.

The Tribunal has concluded that upon the grant of both warrants it would have been helpful if the Corporation could have indicated what the actual costs would be.

While 2XS-FM will provide a 24-hour local service, the Radio New Zealand ZM proposition will mean that in terms of local origination it is nothing like a full station.

2XS has the existing advantage over 2ZA which joins the network for the Tonight Show in the evenings and for the midnight to 5 a.m. period. However, 2ZA does provide full services to the community in the networking periods—that will also limit the competitive element against the total commitment of 2XS to the region.

We would therefore limit the period of local origination and not allow it to be extended without the approval of the Tribunal. It is also an argument for limiting the commercial content which ZM may extract from the market.

We discuss this later.

2ZM expected an average of 6 minutes per hour and 2XS 8 minutes. Both stations opposed any limitation being imposed by the Tribunal. We believe that ZM will require the higher commercial content to be profitable.

Normally in a two-station market the Tribunal would have been inclined to impose any commercial limit on either station. However, it is concerned that despite the Corporation's stated intention to draw quite modest revenue from the area, there would be a possibility of it either extracting a higher revenue or—despite its protestations—using the station to depress advertising rates to the level, also 30 above in the evening. One way to ensure that the Corporation's effect on revenue is limited would be to impose a limit on the commercial content of that station on a maximum minutes per hour basis.

The Tribunal has concluded that upon the grant of both warrants it must require a limit of 6 minutes per hour of advertising for the ZM-FM station. It would be prepared to review that situation after 3 years and to consider short term variations in the light of operating conditions.
The effect will be to limit the Corporation's increasing its local revenue without increasing rates which meets one of the criticisms from 2XS.

There would be no advertising limit placed on 2XS which we believe should be given the flexibility in this market situation in the light of our decision to grant a ZM warrant.

(l) The proposed rates and changes to be made in respect of advertising programmes—

It was argued for 2XS that the proposed ZM rates were too low and that it would act as a spoiler in the market. We believe that the condition which we have imposed will, to some extent, limit that. We consider it likely that the ultimate of Radio New Zealand's shares of the market is optimistic.

The relative cost per thousand may not be too far apart if regard is had for the fact that the Corporation claims to stick more rigidly to its carded rates than Mr Summerville, the manager of 2XS, indicated would be the case with 2XS.

(m) Such matter as may be necessary for the purpose of imposing conditions under section 71a of this Act—

The Tribunal has had regard to the timing of these proposals. While it accepts that it may be economically feasible and more efficient to install 2 transmitters with the necessary antennae to commence at the same time, other considerations need to be taken into account.

Normally the Tribunal would have been inclined to require both stations to go on air at the same time, which has the useful effect of limiting the period for negotiation for the co-sharing agreement with the Corporation by the Corporation's ambitions to get on the air. It feels that some advantage in the establishment of itself on the FM band needs to be given to the existing operator which has taken the greatest risk in deciding to change of FM.

The Corporation is introducing a new service and this service, the Tribunal considers, should be preceded by the local station having the option of establishing itself on FM.

We consider that a period of 6 months would be adequate for this purpose and we therefore have decided that the commencement date for the Corporation's FM warrant will be not sooner than 6 months after the commencement of broadcasting by 2XS-FM.

The Tribunal has no objection to networking between the 2XS-AM and 2XS-FM stations for new bulletins.

(o) Such other matters as may be prescribed in regulations in that behalf—

The transfer of 2XS to FM is fully in accordance with the Government's policy for the development of FM broadcasting as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand. The Tribunal commends 2XS for making the application and being prepared to make the change.

The FM application is an expansion on behalf of the Corporation to develop its distribution network to a young market outside the three metropolitan centres. Although it was not contemplated as part of the overall development of FM broadcasting, there is nothing in previous Government policy which would suggest that this extension may not take place. It is not a network operation solely and a combination of network and local broadcasting puts it in a unique position as far as FM development so far has been concerned.

It is convenient here to consider the effect of Regulation 14A.

"14A. (1) A single sound-radio warrant may be issued in respect of—

(a) A frequency modulation broadcasting station; or

(b) Both a frequency modulation broadcasting station and an amplitude modulation broadcasting station.

(2) Notwithstanding section 72 of the Act, but subject to the proviso to that section and to regulation 16A of these regulations—

(a) A frequency modulation broadcasting station may, in respect of a frequency modulation broadcasting station shall, unless sooner revoked, continue in force for a period to be specified in the warrant, which period shall not exceed 5 years after the date of the issue of the warrant.

(3) Where—

(a) An applicant for a sound-radio warrant in respect of a commercial frequency modulation broadcasting station or in respect of both a commercial frequency modulation broadcasting station and a commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station is the holder of a sound-radio warrant in respect of a commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station; and it shall, unless the Tribunal determines that there are special circumstances, be a condition of any warrant granted that the applicant surrender the warrant previously held in respect of the commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station (whether or not the warrant granted authorises the operation of the commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station).

(4) Notwithstanding subclause (3) of this regulation, where the Tribunal grants a sound-radio warrant that authorises the operation of a commercial frequency modulation broadcasting station and of a commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station, the Tribunal may make it a condition of the warrant that the holder of the warrant shall surrender the warrant, to the extent that the warrant authorises the operation of a commercial amplitude modulation broadcasting station, at the expiration of a period to be specified in the warrant, which period shall not exceed 4 years from the date on which the commercial frequency modulation broadcasting station begins broadcasting.

(5) The Tribunal shall specify in every sound-radio warrant issued in respect of a frequency modulation broadcasting station or in respect of both a frequency modulation broadcasting station and an amplitude modulation broadcasting station the frequency of the frequency modulation broadcasting station to which the frequency modulation broadcasting station relates.

(6) It shall be a condition of every sound-radio warrant issued in respect of a frequency modulation broadcasting station that the holder of the warrant observe in respect of that station the coverage objectives specified in the warrant in respect of that station.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that nothing in these regulations excepts sound-radio warrants issued in respect of frequency modulation broadcasting stations from the application of subsections (3) to (5) of section 71 of the Act."

It will be known from the decision of the Tribunal in the case of the Christchurch FM warrants that the Tribunal has already interpreted the regulation in relation to a situation where the Corporation had both a ZB and a ZM operation already operating in the same market when the ZM station was to be changed to FM. The Tribunal has ruled that it does not consider the regulation requires the Corporation to surrender all warrants in the same area.

We saw the regulation as being one which required the Corporation, when transferring a station from AM to FM, to surrender the AM warrant within a period of 4 years. This we considered to be of no concern to the Corporation stations.

Submissions that a station besides the one changing over to FM should lose its warrant were rejected.

Under Regulation 14A, unless the Tribunal determines that there are special circumstances, the Corporation should have to surrender the ZZA warrant as a condition of the grant of a ZM-FM warrant.

But the Corporation is proposing the introduction of a new service, not the transfer of ZZA to FM. The intention of the regulations is that if the Corporation proposed that another station of the 2Z2A kind had been proposed for FM then it was reasonable that the ZZA-AM station should be required to close down within 4 years.

In the present case however, the operation is basically one of a network operation with some local origination and the station is totally geared to FM broadcasting.

In those circumstances the Tribunal does consider that special circumstances exist which enables the Tribunal to exempt the Corporation from the requirement to surrender the ZZA-AM warrant.

In reality the two stations will be quite different and will serve different markets and different needs. It would be quite incongruous for the Tribunal to find that it was necessary for the establishment of the ZM station for ZZA to surrender a ZM warrant on some sort of balancing-up operation.

A submission was made that the Corporation should have to give up a warrant for every new one it gets. The Tribunal's report, which recommended the Government policy on which the regulation is based, did not accept that argument.

The facts that the station is not a conversion of ZZA to FM, that it is serving a different audience from the AM station, and that the FM service for YC Concert Programme listeners will be introduced as a result of this grant, combine to make convincing special circumstances.
We consider there is a tendency to associate this policy with some assumption that the Corporation should not have an AM and FM operation in the same area. This is not the case.

In fact, for private stations it is made perfectly clear in the regulations that the restrictions on the number of warrants do not prevent the same warrant holder having an AM and FM station serving the same area.

Conclusion

The 2XS FM application was not opposed. The Corporation did oppose Manawatu Radio Co. being permitted 3 years AM operation. The opposition in that respect has not been upheld, although the Tribunal considers the applicant may well consider a short intensive period of dual operation.

The Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd. application is granted on the following conditions:

1. That the warrant will lapse if not issued within 18 months or such further time as the Tribunal may approve.
2. That a supplementary warrant for the existing AM operation be issued for a term of 3 years from the date of the issue of the FM warrant on the same conditions as the existing warrant. Some of the conditions will be slightly changed to bring them into line with the form of conditions imposed recently in warrants.
3. The usual condition as to the compliance with technical rules.
4. That the present conditions relating to 2XS networking will be continued plus permission to network news with the AM station.
5. The coverage area will be as defined in the plan attached to the application.
6. The conditions otherwise will be in substance the existing conditions of the 2XS warrant redrafted in line with conditions imposed recently in warrants.

The application of the BCNZ was opposed by Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd. but the Tribunal has decided to grant the application on conditions.

The conditions are:

1. The warrant will expire if not taken up within 2 years or such later time as the Tribunal shall approve.
2. Without the consent of the Tribunal broadcasting shall commence not earlier than:
   a. Six months after the date on which broadcasting commences under the FM warrant granted to the Manawatu Radio Co. Ltd.
   b. FM broadcasting of the Concert Programme commences from Mt Wharite.
3. Advertising shall not exceed a maximum of 6 minutes per hour without the consent of the Tribunal.
4. The period of local origination from the Manawatu studios shall not exceed 4 hours daily without the consent of the Tribunal.
5. Notwithstanding 4, encapsulated local information and advertisements may be inserted in the programme outside the hours of local origination.
6. The warrant holder shall not substantially depart from the basic format and intent of its programmes or the type or extent of the services proposed without the prior consent of the Tribunal and subject to any conditions the Tribunal may impose in the public interest when granting such consent.

Dated this 30th day of July 1985.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.
