Decision No. 17/85
Com. 8/84

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint by ANTHONY JON SIMPSON of Wellington, writer:

Warrant Holder: Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (Radio New Zealand National Programme):

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Members: A. E. Wilson and R. Boyd-Bell.

Co-opted Members: W. Kerekere and A. Pradhan.

DECISION

Mr Simpson lodged a complaint with the Broadcasting Corporation concerning the Morning Report programme broadcast on the National Programme on Friday, 27 July 1984. The item concerned a report of the opening of the New Zealand diplomatic post in New Delhi and included a voice report by an Indian journalist and a short interview with the Indian caretaker of the New Zealand High Commission land. At the conclusion of the item the announcer added "and we swear Peter Sellers was nowhere in sight."

Mr Simpson expressed his complaint thus:

"The well known comedian, the later Peter Sellers, considered it amusing to imitate the accents of Indian speakers of English which he apparently thought were ipso facto funny and this was in its turn a reference in the Morning Report item to the interview which had just taken place. Clearly your announcer thought that it too was ipso facto funny because of the nature of the pronunciation used."
