Royal Commission on Broadcasting and Related Telecommunications

ELIZABETH THE SECOND by the Grace of God Queen of New Zealand and Her Other Realms and Territories, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith:

TO OUR Trusty and Well-beloved ROBERT McDONALD CHAPMAN, of Auckland, University Professor, MICHAEL JOHN ALBERT BROWN, of Auckland, District Court Judge, LAURENCE ALFRED CAMERON, of Wellington, Company Director, and ELIZABETH ANN NELSON, of Auckland, Company Director:

GREETING:

KNOW YE that We, reposing trust and confidence in your integrity, knowledge, and ability, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Robert McDonald Chapman, Michael John Albert Brown, Laurence Alfred Cameron, and Elizabeth Ann Nelson to be a Commission to inquire into the institutions, operations, financing, and control of New Zealand broadcasting and related telecommunications and to report on what changes are necessary or desirable to use in an economically efficient manner those advances in technology which fit New Zealand's circumstances and resources, to widen the choice, and improve the quality, of programmes, to secure independence, depth, and impartiality in news and current affairs programmes, and to reflect New Zealand's cultural and social variety so that the structure and resources of broadcasting may be better organised to serve all New Zealanders:

And, in particular, to inquire into and report on:

1. The opportunities presented to New Zealand by technological change for new options for the transmission of broadcasting services and the economic aspects of these opportunities, and whether the exploitation of those opportunities calls for the establishment of a Department of Communications; with particular reference to—
   (a) The benefits and costs of cable services for bringing radio, television, and information services into and out of the home;
   (b) The benefits and costs of direct broadcasting satellite services and of reception facilities for such services;
   (c) The consequences for broadcasting of the rapid spread of video cassette recording;
   (d) The rate of technological change and the manner in which the rate of technological change affects the pattern of investment decisions;
   (e) The respective roles of the Post Office and warrant holders in the provision of broadcasting services;
   (f) The cases for and against a Department of Communications:

2. The constitution, operation, programming, financing, and control of the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand; with particular reference to—
   (a) The independence of the Corporation and its continuing role as the provider of a broadening range of programmes which inform, educate, and entertain;
   (b) The Corporation's structural and financial efficiency, its resources, its profitability, and its capacity to compete without loss of programme quality;
   (c) The means by which a broadcast receiving-station licence fee should be reviewed and fixed at an appropriate level;
   (d) The purchasing by the Corporation of overseas programmes, including, the success achieved, the difficulties encountered, and the opportunities to tap services infrequently or never used;
   (e) The sources, scope, staffing, and intended development of the Corporation's news and current affairs programmes, including—
      (i) The extent to which and the manner in which officers and employees appointed under section 38 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 are used; and
      (ii) The extent to which and the manner in which persons who enter into contracts under section 34 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 (including persons commissioned to provide comment) are used, and the terms and conditions of the contracts entered into with those persons:
   (f) The benefits, the relative costs, and the staffing implications of extending in-house production of drama, nature, science, religious, and cultural programmes, light entertainment programmes, quiz and game shows, and sports programmes;
   (g) The extent to which the Corporation draws on the products of independent television production companies and the New Zealand film industry and the conditions, benefits, and costs of doing so:
   (h) The manner in which and the extent to which the Corporation commissions individual writers and artists, and the manner in which and the extent to which the Corporation, in commissioning individual artists and writers, co-operates with the Queen Elizabeth the Second Arts Council, the New Zealand Film Commission, the National Film Unit, and relevant voluntary bodies:
(i) The cases for and against fixing a quota for programmes to be produced in New Zealand, the appropriate level of any quota, and the desirability of using the Australasian points system or a modification of it in applying a quota:

(ii) How the development of the New Zealand Listener may be assured so that it continues both as an independent journal of news and opinion published by the Corporation and as a journal that gives the background to, and lists, all programmes broadcast by holders of warrants:

(k) The adequacy of the present arrangements for funding and the desirability of using the Australasian points system or a modification of it in applying a quota:

(j) Whether the number of advertising minutes per hour at various times of the day on television should be revised:

(ii) The need for advisory committees in relation to public and private broadcasting, and, in particular, the manner in which such committees should be constituted and funded:

(g) The extent to which various forms of access broadcasting are being presented and could usefully be extended:

(iii) Whether programmes should be permitted during such programmes:

(f) Whether sufficient use is made of appropriations under section 23 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 to fund the employment of Corporation production staff and the provision of facilities for the editing and preparation of educational programmes, and whether the Corporation and private broadcasters should draw a proportion of New Zealand programmes from educational institutions and private production companies:

(e) Whether alternative or additional procedures are required:

(d) Whether, with a view to further improving the quality of programmes for children, additional or different requirements should apply to the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand and private broadcasters, and whether advertising should be permitted during such programmes:

(c) Whether specified hours of the week, outside of peak viewing periods, should be reserved as non-commercial and educational community service hours:

(b) Whether the amount of commercial radio advertising is acceptable to the public or whether it requires reduction:

(a) The reflection in broadcasting of the multicultural nature of New Zealand society, the recognition of regional, sectional, and minority interests in the design of programmes, and the provision of opportunities for access broadcasting; with particular reference to—

The desirability of developing a more direct and specific association between television and education as a lifelong process so that television would offer, at suitable times, an increasing number of opportunities for access broadcasting; with particular reference to:

(i) Whether the present monitoring of the performance of the holders of warrants is adequate for the Tribunal's purposes:

(ii) Whether alternative or additional procedures are required:

(iii) The cultural links and interests of New Zealanders with continental European or Asian backgrounds:

(iv) The role of a Maori and Pacific Islands commercial radio production centre for programmes to be broadcast from other broadcasting stations:

(v) Whether the number of advertising minutes per hour at various times of the day on television should be revised:

(vi) The reflection in broadcasting of the multicultural nature of New Zealand society, the recognition of regional, sectional, and minority interests in the design of programmes, and the provision of opportunities for access broadcasting; with particular reference to—

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to His Excellency the Governor-General in pursuance of these provisions and the conditions of employment of the holders of warrants in respect of private broadcasting stations, with particular reference to:

(a) The matters referred to in paragraphs (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) of clause 2 of this warrant, which paragraphs shall apply as if every reference in those paragraphs to the Corporation were a reference to a private broadcaster and with such other modifications as are necessary; and

(b) The cases for and against imposing an excess profit levy on the holders of warrants in respect of private television stations for the purpose of providing funds for the development of non-commercial public broadcasting services:

(c) The recruitment and training of the other staff needed to produce and broadcast programmes of interest to each cultural group, including those required for technical positions as well as those required for production and programme positions:

(d) The role of a Maori and Pacific Islands commercial radio station not only as a broadcasting station but also as a production centre for programmes to be broadcast from other broadcasting stations:

(e) New Zealand's shortwave radio and overseas programme services and their requirements for effective transmission capacity, staff, and funding:

(f) The adequacy of the internal monitoring by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand as it relates to the purchasing of overseas television programmes, and whether alternative or additional procedures are required:

(g) The extent to which the Corporation of New Zealand has sufficient independence under the Broadcasting Act 1976 to fund the employment of Corporation production staff and the provision of facilities for the editing and preparation of educational programmes, and whether the Corporation and private broadcasters should draw a proportion of New Zealand programmes from educational institutions and private production companies:

(h) Whether firm recommendations can follow from established knowledge about the relationship between television and violence:

The desirable limits on radio and television advertising, the efficacy of standards and rules, and the question of television and violence; with particular reference to—

(456) THE NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE No. 21

9. Any associated matters that may be thought by you to be relevant to the general objects of the inquiry:

And We hereby appoint you the said ROBERT Mc Donald CHAPMAN to be the Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry or investigation under these presents in such manner and at such time and place as you think expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and any such inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, save to His Excellency the Governor-General, in pursuance of these provisions and the conditions of employment of the holders of warrants in respect of private broadcasting stations, with particular reference to:

We therefore hope that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one or two of the members hereto appointed so long as the Chairman or a member deputed by the Chairman to act in his stead, and one other member, are present and concur in the exercise of the powers:

And We do further ordain that you have liberty to report your proceedings and findings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient to do so:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to His Excellency the Governor-General in writing under your hands, not later than the 30th day of June 1986, your findings and opinions on any matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And, lastly, it is hereby declared that these presents are issued under the authority of the Letters Patent of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second constituting the office of Governor-General of New Zealand, dated the 21st day of October 1983* and under the authority of and subject to the provisions of the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand.

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 13th day of December 1984.

Decision

These 2 books were part of a commercial shipment imported through Auckland. The Tribunal was not told how they came to be imported but it is assumed that they were referred to avoid forfeiture.

Both books are written anonymously. It was suggested that they were written by the same author who wrote Him, Them, Us, Me and Two which received an age classification. We would doubt this because the style is different and the language less subtle. In many respects they resemble the books we considered in Decision 1083 but it can be said that they are better produced. Nevertheless each publication deals with the sexual exploits of the principal character in a variety of ways. The descriptions are explicit. Neither has any literary or artistic merit, and each is injurious to the public good. Each is classified as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 30/84.

Ref. No. Ind. 24/84.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 8th day of November 1984.

These publications were imported privately through the port of Auckland in April and were seized as being indecent.

Forfeiture has been disputed so that the books are referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Mr Simpson submitted that both books had been produced in the form of sex manuals ostensibly as educational publications. He contended that a comparison could be drawn with publications earlier considered by the Tribunal The Ecstasy of Sex and The Marriage Bed.

Ann Summers' own Book of Love Positions is a paper back published in Great Britain. The same models are featured throughout the 128 pages and the accompanying text, although not technical, puts it into the category of a sex manual.

The book can be compared with the publications The Ecstasy of Sex and The Marriage Bed in decision No. 6/84. The Tribunal similarly finds this publication to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Marilyn Chambers' Sensual Secrets is also a paper back published in Great Britain.

In the introduction Marilyn Chambers says:

"... I've tried to pull together the threads of my active sex life into a single volume of personal advice that will stimulate and excite you beyond your wildest dreams."

The text dwells mainly on the author's experiences with various sexual partners which removes it from the realm of a sex manual. Most of the book describes heterosexual experiences but the latter pages are devoted to lesbianism, bondage and group sex.

For these reasons the Tribunal finds the publication indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 28/84.
Ref. No. Ind. 26/84.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Venus in the Country, published by Grove Press, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Mr. J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 13th day of December 1984.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, Music World Ltd. K. Wild for Comptroller of Customs.

Decision

These 3 publications were seized at Christchurch in May 1984. Forfeiture has been disputed so that they have been referred for classification. Venus in the Country and the Amorous Memoirs of Captain Charles De Vane are both written anonymously and are set in Victorian England. Venus in the Country is said to have been first published by members of the Society of Priapus. It relates the sexual exploits of a young girl. The title The Amorous Memoirs of Captain Charles De Vane indicates the nature of the story. Both books are explicit with little plot and with no literary or artistic merit.

A Man with a Maid is also written anonymously and recounts the sexual activities of a man who has been jilted. It was submitted that this book was virtually identical to The Pearl. The Pearl has been considered by the Tribunal on 2 occasions. First in 1969 (Decision 146) where it was classified as being indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18, engaged in research relevant to this material. It was again considered in 1976 (Decision 861) when it was classified as indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18 years whose profession or academic studies extend into the fields covered by them. We have taken the opportunity to refer to The Pearl and we feel bound to say that there is no relationship between the 2 publications. The Pearl is said to be a journal of lascivious and voluptuous reading. Apparently it was initially published about 1879 in a series at monthly intervals. The paperback copy we referred to was published in 1968 and comprises a reprint of 18 issues published in 1879-1880. Because of its format and its style it justifies the classification then given. A Man with a Maid is a very different publication. It is explicit and as we have said it relates the sexual activities of the principal character. It lacks literary, artistic or other merit.

Each of these 3 publications would have an appeal only for the Lewd and prurient and are considered to be injurious to the public good. They are classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

P. L. NOCK, Secretary.

Trading Bank Reserve Asset Ratio

PURSUANT to section 33 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, the Reserve Bank, acting with the approval of the Minister of Finance, hereby gives notice that as from the close of business on the 1st February 1985 and until further notice each trading bank shall maintain during each calendar month balances at the Reserve Bank plus holdings of Reserve Bank notes, of New Zealand coin, and of New Zealand Government securities, such that the aggregate of the averages of those balances and holdings during that month (determined in accordance with clauses 1 to 7 of this notice) equals or exceeds the aggregate of:

27.0 percent of that trading bank's average demand and time deposit liabilities in New Zealand in the immediately preceding month (determined in accordance with the provisions of clause 6 of this notice);

Provided that a trading bank may make up its balances and holdings as aforesaid for a calendar month to the amount hereinbefore required for that calendar month by way of borrowings from the Reserve Bank made during the next following month and on terms and conditions to be determined by the Reserve Bank and the proceeds of all such borrowings shall be credited to the account of that trading bank with the Reserve Bank termed "Contra Deposit Account" and on terms and conditions to be determined by the Reserve Bank.

For the purposes of this notice:

1. Balances held by a trading bank at the Reserve Bank shall (subject to clause 7 of this notice) include both demand deposit balances and time deposits balances of that trading bank.

2. The average of a trading bank's holdings of Reserve Bank notes and of New Zealand coin for a calendar month shall be the average of the figures for those holdings recorded by the Reserve Bank for that trading bank as at each Wednesday in the month. For the purposes of this paragraph, the figures so recorded as at each Wednesday shall be the figures set out in the weekly return of banking statistics relating to the preceding Wednesday, supplied by the trading bank under the Statistics Act 1975.

3. The average of a trading bank's balances at the Reserve Bank shall be the average of the balances of that trading bank at the close of business on each day of that calendar month, as recorded by the Reserve Bank at the settlement of all transactions which are recorded as having been effected on that day.

4. The average of a trading bank's holdings of New Zealand Government Securities for a calendar month shall be the average of the New Zealand Government Securities held by it on each day of that month, taking into account all transactions in New Zealand Government Securities with the Reserve Bank carried out for the purposes of settlement of the trading bank's current account at the Reserve Bank which are recorded by the Reserve Bank as having taken place on that business day.

5. For the purposes of this notice, the term "New Zealand Government Securities" shall mean Government Stock and Treasury Bills as these terms are defined in the Public Finance Act 1977 (at nominal value), and any bonds, stock, or other securities issued by the Housing Corporation of New Zealand under section 30 of the Housing Corporation Act 1975 (at nominal value), and any Government of Western Samoa stock issued and registered in New Zealand after the 1st day of August 1976 (at nominal value).
6. The average demand and time deposit liabilities of a trading bank in a calendar month shall be the average of the figures for days within that calendar month, as shown in that trading bank’s weekly returns of Banking Statistics under the Statistics Act 1975. And the proceeds of any such borrowing shall not be included in the balances held by that trading bank at the Reserve Bank for any other calendar month.

7. The proceeds of any borrowings made by a trading bank pursuant to the proviso to this notice shall be deemed to be a part of and be included in the balances held by that trading bank at the Reserve Bank on the last day of the preceding calendar month;

Dated at Wellington this 21st day of December 1984.

R. S. DEANE, Deputy Governor.

MANPOWER PLANNING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
'Manpower planning' is a term which has a wide and rather ill-defined meaning. This report, addressed to the central question: "What is manpower planning?", opens with the philosophy of manpower planning, what it is, its aims and objectives. This is followed by a discussion of what is involved in forecasting the supply and demand for people and skills in the public service. The essentials of departmental manpower is then discussed followed by a chapter devoted to the practice of career development and concluding with a statement on the future development of manpower planning in the public service.

FIELD GUIDE TO TOWN BIRDS OF NEW ZEALAND
By Dr P. C. Bull
93 p. 1983. Illustrated. $9.95 plus 85c p & p
Each bird description is accompanied by a full colour photograph of the bird in its natural habitat. The birds are defined as either introduced or native and if it is a protected species. Then follows a full description of the adult bird, its call, where it is commonly found, its eating and nesting habits, how to identify the eggs, incubation period and lastly details of the young.

THE PATH TO REFORM
Edited by C. Burns
219 p. 1982. $15.75 plus $1.50 p & p
The Path to Reform, derived from the 1981 Convention of the New Zealand Institute of Public Administration is about the path to administrative reform in the State Services in New Zealand. It continues the exploration of the State Services begun in "State Servants and the Public in the 1980's" and continued in the "Accountability of Executive." Like its predecessors, "The Path to Reform" reads like a Who's Who of New Zealand public administrators.

By Mervyne J. Pope
Mervyne Pope presents and discusses some new data series designed to give a broad overview of the nature and extent of public sector involvement in the New Zealand economy. Subjects include Government as a Tax Collector; As a Spender; As a Producer; As a Provider of Household Incomes; Composition of Government Non-Market Sector Expenditure; What Government Provides; Organisational Form; Funding-Current Activity; Capital Formation, and Capital Funding.
