Poultry Entitlement Levy—Determination of Nature and Incidence (Notice No. Ag. 3648)

PURSUANT to regulation 47 of the Poultry Board Regulations 1980, the Poultry Board, with the approval of the Minister of Agriculture, gives notice of the nature and incidence of the Entitlement Levy which it has determined as follows:

1. From 1 January, 1986, the holder of every entitlement licence shall pay to the Board an entitlement levy of up to 60 cents (60c) per laying bird authorised to be kept pursuant to his or its entitlement licence per statistical period (as employed by the Board in its accounting procedures), provided:

(a) That the sum may be reduced at the Board's direction in the case of any statistical period and in the case of any producer; and,

(b) That the total amount of entitlement levy imposed shall not exceed five dollars ($5) per annum in relation to each bird authorised to be kept under the entitlement licence.

2. The rate of entitlement levy set out in the last preceding paragraph shall have continuing effect until any variation thereof shall have been determined and approved in the manner prescribed by regulation 47.

3. Entitlement levies assessed and payable as above shall be debited in the books of the Board to the accounts of the entitlement holders concerned and shall become payable by each entitlement holder to the Board on the 20th day of the statistical period following the statistical period in connection with which they are incurred on which day they shall become a debt due and owing from the entitlement holder to the Board.
