

- (2) If in the committee's opinion the premium fees proposed by the medical practitioner are acceptable, the committee shall recommend to the Minister accordingly.
- (3) If the committee does not make a recommendation under paragraph (2) above, then the committee shall refer the matter to the Central Paediatric Fees Committee.
- (4) Record the premium fees, for paediatric services by way of surgery consultation, by participants in the special arrangement. Every approval recommended by the committee may be reconsidered by the committee at not less than 3-yearly intervals, upon appropriate notice to the practitioner concerned, who may make recommendations to the committee.

7. Any medical practitioner who is within the special arrangement may apply to a Children's Fees Advisory Committee for approval of a premium fee above the guideline fee specified in clause 2 of this agreement.

8. Any motor vehicle allowances and rural bonuses to which the medical practitioner is entitled under sections 94 and 94A of the Social Security Act 1964 shall apply with respect to paediatric services.

9. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, any medical practitioner within the special arrangement shall be entitled on any particular occasion to charge a fee higher than the guideline fee for paediatric services which are of more than normal complexity or of longer than normal duration, but the reason for the higher fees must be clearly explained to the patient. In cases where accounts are sent to patients, a written explanation for the higher fee shall be furnished.

10. The medical practitioner shall impose surcharges only in respect of non-medical services such as the posting of accounts, if such surcharges are his or her well established practice at the time of signing this request and undertaking.

11. The medical practitioner shall provide at his or her surgery, the following information about his or her services;

- The hours at which services are available;
- The arrangement for out of hours services;
- Whether visits are made in appropriate circumstances;
- Whether maternity services are available;
- Whether family planning services are provided;
- His or her usual charges for paediatric services and the paediatric services benefits available;

That the medical practitioner has undertaken to provide services under the terms of this special arrangement.

This information shall be provided in such a manner as to be available to patients before consultations take place.

12. A medical practitioner who has requested participation in the special arrangement may withdraw from participation upon 2 months notice.

13. The Minister may remove from the special arrangement any medical practitioner who has breached any term of this special arrangement.

14. The special arrangement made on the 17th day of December 1984 is hereby revoked.

Dated the 31st day of January 1985.

MICHAEL BASSETT, Minister of Health.
