PARLIAMENT AND THE PEOPLEBeth Bowden*

64 pp. 1984. $7.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

This book was written primarily for visitors to Parliament, but will also appeal to those who wish to learn about New Zealand's constitution and its development. It looks at the history of Parliament, elections, how a Bill is transformed into law, how the House of Representatives works, the appointment of the Executive Council, and the constitutional role of Governor-General. The author has set out:

- To describe New Zealand's constitution.
- To show in a reasonably simple way how it works.
- To give an account of where it came from and how it developed.
- To define a number of terms that are used in connection with these matters.

PEOPLE LIKE USA Hass, A. Webber, P. Brown, Editors*

120 pp. 1982. $9.95 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

In his introduction to this compassionate and understanding account of the personal experiences of New Zealanders who have come from widely different cultural backgrounds, Sir Guy Powles stresses that we must learn to recognise, respect, accept, and enjoy the qualities of life that a variety of cultures bring to our society. People Like Us is essential reading for all who care about New Zealand multiracial society, and is an invaluable resource book for teachers, social workers, and the general public.
