Decision No. 18/86

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976 and in the matter of applications for television warrants and television programme warrants:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Co-opted Members: G. J. Schmitt and M. S. Aked.

PROCEDURAL RULING

Dated the 8th Day of September 1986

Informative Programming

In a submission filed on 11 July, Mr Thomas for ITV sought a direction that TV3 be required to produce a draft of any amended schedule it proposes to produce in respect of informative programming. In support Mr Thomas said that he had produced to Mr Spitz a schedule comparing the informative programmes proposed by TV3 and ITV. TV3 disputed the accuracy of the schedule but offered to produce the correct figures overnight. When produced, most of the figures showed that ITV had either been correct or generous to TV3, said Mr Thomas.

Revised figures were then produced by Mr Thomas but were challenged by Mr Impy who, Mr Thomas said, had indicated TV3 would produce a further schedule. He offered to confer with a view to producing an agreed schedule and he had not heard anything more from Mr Impy.

As TV3 offered to produce a further schedule, Mr Impy could now be required to produce that schedule.

In reply, Mr Impy said that the only schedule presented to Mr Spitz in cross-examination by Mr Thomas, was entitled "Programmes Produced - Above-the-line Costs". He then proceeded to file a statement of TV3's position prepared by Mr Parkinson.

However, Mr Thomas pointed out that he had made a mistake in that he had referred to the wrong witness and should have referred to Mr Bennet.

The matter was raised later orally before us and Mr Impy said that the matter was dealt with in the transcript, but the TV3 programme mix charts were unchallenged by ITV and that the answers were there and in the transcript. Mr Thomas apparently had failed to take account, said Mr Impy, of the answers given in cross-examination.

In reply, Mr Thomas said he could not see why the schedule could not be prepared and had attempted to agree, but nothing had been forthcoming.

The Tribunal has read the transcript, refreshed its memory and has decided it does not require any further assistance by way of a further schedule or memorandum from TV3.

If TV3 had chosen to file it, it would have been acceptable, but the Tribunal itself does not require it to be filed.

Other matters raised by Mr Thomas which are outstanding are:

---
The Royal Commission on Broadcasting

It now appears likely that the report of the Royal Commission will be available and published before the Tribunal hears final submissions.

TV3—Inflation Factor

The Tribunal is not required to make any decision on this matter. It is sufficient to note however that it appears to be based on a misunderstanding of the remarks made by the Chairman.

Section 81 (4)

The Tribunal has been urged by Mr Baragwanath for ESTV to exercise a power under section 81 (4) during the currency of the BCNZ’s television warrants of its own motion to amend the terms and conditions of the BCNZ television warrants or to add any new terms and conditions which in its opinion are necessary in the public interest.

The Tribunal does not consider it appropriate to give reasons now but simply states that it does not, at this stage, intend to take the action urged by Mr Baragwanath.

Technical

The Tribunal does not take up the invitation issued by the BCNZ to reconvene the working party with agreed terms of reference to investigate another low impact plan.

Co-opted Members

The co-opted members took part in the consideration of the matters discussed but, in accordance with the Act, the decision is that of the permanent members.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Decision No. 17/86

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976 and in the matter of an application by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand for a commercial amplitude modulation sound radio warrant at Hawera:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Hearing: At New Plymouth, 1 April 1986.

Counsel: J. J. McGrath and G. R. Rowe for the applicant.

DECISION

The Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (BCNZ) was the holder of AM warrant 34 in respect of 2ZH Hawera for 5 years expiring 31 December 1984. The BCNZ inadvertently failed to apply for renewal of the warrant before the warrant expired.

Regulation 16 Broadcasting Regulations 1977 (S.R. 1977/171) provides that every application for renewal of a warrant should be made to the Tribunal not less than 28 clear days before the date on which the warrant expires. Where the Tribunal is satisfied that failure to make any such application within the specified period is due to justifiable mistake or other reasonable cause, it may accept an application made at any time before the expiration of the warrant.

Evidence was given to the Tribunal that the failure to apply for renewal was the result of a misunderstanding within the BCNZ. For a number of years the Hawera station had operated as a relay station on the AM-38 for 2ZH New Plymouth. At some stage the warrant was endorsed in those terms and it remained so endorsed despite the subsequent grant of a separate warrant for the Hawera station. When in 1982 the 2ZH warrant was renewed, the BCNZ was under the impression that because of the endorsement, the Hawera arrangements were consequentially renewed. When the error was discovered by the BCNZ in 1985 the Tribunal's secretariat accepted some responsibility on the basis that the endorsement should not have remained on the warrant.

An application was initially made in June 1985 to renew the expired warrant but was not accepted by the Tribunal on the basis that an application filed after the warrant had expired could not be considered or granted.

Accordingly, applications for short-term broadcasting authorisations were filed and granted and the most recent of these is due to expire on 21 April 1986.

The application for a fresh warrant for Hawera has been lodged to restore the status quo as it stood prior to the expiry of the previous warrants. Although the BCNZ is planning some extension of services in the area, the Tribunal considered that it was appropriate that the situation be regularised first.

There was no opposition to the application.

Evidence was given in support by Mr R. G. Davis and Mr K. K. Rossetter.

The Tribunal heard the evidence, including a lengthy description of the activities of the station and sees no reason why the application should not be granted. It is certainly in the public interest that the service should continue. No other commercial station provides a service to the area.

The Tribunal is satisfied that this mini station, with support from 2ZP, is providing a useful service to its broadcast area.

The Tribunal is also satisfied, having heard the evidence, that there would have been renewal of the warrant on the basis of the evidence filed if the renewal had been applied for at the appropriate time.

The Registrar has been directed to rectify the endorsement for a relay station on the 2ZP warrant. This has already been attended to.

Before the 2ZH warrant was granted on 12 December 1979 the BCNZ applied to extend the hours of all commercial stations 24 hours. The application was granted after the warrant had been issued for 2ZH. It is therefore appropriate to issue the new warrant for 24 hours service. Otherwise the Tribunal grants the application on the same terms and conditions as the previous warrant AM-34. The warrant dates from 1 April 1986.

Dated the 9th day of September 1986.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Decision No. 16/86

Com. 2/85

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1986 and in the matter of a complaint by M. F. Stoker against Radio Pacific:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Member: Ann E. Wilson.

Co-opted members: Mervyn S. Aked and John W. Carlisle.

DECISION

In February 1985 Mr. M. F. Stoker filed a complaint with the Tribunal alleging that Radio Pacific’s (Pacific) time signals every hour on the hour were delayed during talkback programmes by between 6 and 7 seconds. He said this had been happening from December 1983 up until the date of his complaint.

Approximately a year earlier, in January 1984, Mr. Stoker had written to the Tribunal about the same matter. At that time his concern was for Radio Pacific’s broadcasts during 1983.

He advised the Tribunal that in December 1983 Pacific had changed the format to five 1 kHz pips at 1 second intervals with the fifth lengthened to about 1 second. He understood the purpose of the change was to make Radio Pacific’s pips readily distinguishable from the accurate time signals broadcast by Radio New Zealand (RNZ). However he felt the time of the broadcast was still very inaccurate and that the new format still had the generally accepted sequence and sound of an official time signal.

He was concerned that these transmissions could be mistaken for accurate time signals by reception within the northern part of New Zealand during the day and over a much larger area of New Zealand, and possibly even overseas, at night. His concern was that this could result in confusion, navigational errors, and bring the New Zealand Time Standard into disrepute among users of accurate time.

He asked the Tribunal to request Radio Pacific to either stop broadcasting the time signals or make the necessary technical modifications to ensure that their accuracy was equal to that of the New Zealand Time Service. He enclosed a table showing errors in transmission during December 1983 and January 1984.

This letter was referred to Radio Pacific. The reply confirmed Mr Stoker’s belief that the change in pips had been made to distinguish between Radio Pacific’s signals from BCNZ signals. Mr D. Lowe, of Radio Pacific, advised that he had discussed the matter with the superintendent of the Seismological Observatory in Wellington and stated that, to the best of his knowledge, no official time pips equated with those now heard on Radio Pacific.

Mr Lowe said he would not be in favour of Radio Pacific ceasing to broadcast their time pips for several reasons, and he felt that the audio signals were sufficiently different to make it highly unlikely that Radio Pacific could cause problems in regard to navigation or time.
Mr Stoker was not satisfied with this explanation however and laid his formal complaint with the Tribunal. The complaint was for the period December 1983 until the date of filing of the complaint, in other words from the time of the change of format.

His particular objection was stated as "because broadcast time signals have been accepted for over 50 years as reliable and accurate for the determination of time for astronomy and navigation and for the rating of chronometers, the delay to time signals (broadcast by Radio Pacific) could mislead users of accurate time and could result in significant navigational errors".

The formal complaint was referred to Radio Pacific whose reply was to the effect that Radio Pacific had already altered the rhythm of the audio signals as a result of Mr Stoker's earlier submissions.

Mr Lowe's reply advised that during the entire period Radio Pacific had been broadcasting audio signals of this style they had only received one comment, which was Mr Stoker's. He felt that if the broadcasts were likely to cause distress to those at sea, Radio Pacific would have heard of them.

For these reasons Radio Pacific did not feel it necessary to make any additional changes. He did not however suggest that Mr Stoker's measurement of the accuracy of Pacific's time signals was incorrect, and confirmed that while Radio Pacific was broadcasting talk-back programmes it was "in delay" for 7 seconds for the reason that it may at time be necessary to exist from particular calls.

The Tribunal considered all the arguments put forward by Mr Stoker and Mr Lowe. It also listened to the time signals given on 2YA, as an example of the original New Zealand Time Service signals in August 1986, and those on Radio Pacific. It concluded that the differences between them were not such as to make Radio Pacific's signal, by comparison, unusual or distinctive.

The Tribunal's view was that the Pacific signals sound similar to the official time signals and could be confused.

It may be that these audio signals are not intended by Radio Pacific to be official, accurate time signals, but Mr Lowe himself refers to these audio signals as "the time signals" (refer letter dated 3 February 1984).

If a station is broadcasting an audio signal closely resembling the official time pips played by Radio New Zealand stations, then such signals are likely to be perceived as time signals by members of the listening public. This being so, they must be accurate.

As Mr Stoker pointed out, time signals have been broadcast in New Zealand for over 50 years. They were in fact first broadcast on 2YA in 1930 and then, as now, were broadcast as accurate time signals. These signals originate from the New Zealand Time Service and are regarded as the "official" time signals for many purposes.

The Tribunal considered Mr Stoker's argument that the delayed time signals from Radio Pacific could mislead users of accurate time and could result in significant navigational errors. Our view was that in fact significant navigational errors were unlikely as those navigators of military or commercial vessels who use regularly time signals for their navigation would probably be aware of the exact form of the official time signals. They would be able to distinguish between the Pacific signal and the Radio New Zealand signal. However this might not apply to amateur sailors who could possibly be misled by Pacific's signal to the extent of navigating incorrectly.

The Tribunal understands however that a signal that is inaccurate by 7 seconds could result in a navigational error of up to 1/4 mile or so. A similar level of error could well be caused by tidal flow or currents, and navigation involving the use of time would typically be used out at sea where such a level of error would be of little significance compared with coastal navigation.

The Tribunal considered Mr Lowe's reasons for not discontinuing the Pacific time signals. First, they are used as an indicator for talkback hosts that it is time to cross to the newreader. The Tribunal has some difficulty with this argument as we considered that this indicator may not be essential for the smooth running of Radio Pacific. There are alternative non-broadcast procedures available for indicating the time to radio hosts.

Secondly, the time signals are used as a definitive warning that all network stations must join the link to take Radio Pacific's news service. The same comments apply here: such an indicator is not necessary and there are other alternatives available.

The Tribunal considered the complaint in the light of rule 1.1 (h) which says:

"In the preparation and presentation of programmes, broadcasters are required:

(h) to avoid the use of any deceptive programme practice which takes advantage of the confidence listeners have in the integrity of broadcasting of Radio Pacific.

Radio Pacific has not maintained that these audio signals are broadcast as official time signals. However there is so little difference between the signals broadcast by Radio Pacific and the official time signals broadcast by Radio New Zealand that the Tribunal considers that they could easily be confused; that Pacific's signals could deceive a listener into thinking an accurate time signal originating from the New Zealand Time Service was being broadcast. The Tribunal therefore considers that there has been a breach of this rule and the complaint is upheld.

Co-opted Members

Messrs Aked and Carlisle were co-opted as persons whose qualifications or experience were likely to be of assistance to the Tribunal in dealing with the complaint. They took part in the consideration of the complaint and the deliberations of the Tribunal but the decision is that of the permanent members.

Dated the 12th day of September 1986.

A. E. WILSON, for the Tribunal.

Notes to the Accounts

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

   General Accounting Policies:

   - the measurement base adopted is that of historical cost. Reliance is placed on the fact that the Bank is a going concern.
   - accrual accounting is used to match expenses and revenues.

   The following particular accounting policies which significantly affect the measurement of the Bank's profit and financial position have been applied on a basis consistent with previous years.

Depreciation

Depreciable fixed assets are depreciated on a straight line basis at rates estimated to write off the cost, less residual value, over the useful life of each class of asset. The principle rates in use are:

- Buildings: 1 percent and 2 1/2 percent
- Office equipment, fixtures and fittings: 10 percent and 20 percent
- Computer equipment: 12.5 percent

New Zealand Government Stock—

New Zealand Government stock is recorded at par value less discount on acquisition which is amortised over the term of the investment on a straight line basis. The stock is regarded as a long term investment and under normal circumstances is held to maturity and redeemed at face value.

Periodically the stock is sold to improve interest yield. The realisable value of the stock fluctuates with movement in the rate of interest and it is customary for such fluctuations to be disregarded in the accounts of the long-term institutional investor.

3. Taxation

   The charge for income tax is the amount of tax liability in respect of the accounting profit for the year.

   The deferred tax account has been established using the liability method to record the tax effect of timing differences between accounting and tax profits. The major differences relate to depreciation and accrued income.

AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF Taranaki Savings Bank

We have obtained all the information and explanations that we have required. In our opinion proper accounting records have been kept by the bank so far as it appears from our examination of those records.

In our opinion, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the said records, the financial statements are properly drawn up so as to give, using the historical cost method, a true and fair view of the state of the bank’s affairs as at 31 March 1986 and the results of its business and the changes in financial position for the year ended on that date.
