Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.
Members: Mrs R. Barrington, A. J. Graham, and Ms K. Hulme.

Appearances: No appearance for bookseller, Mr Wild for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This publication was purchased by a member of the public in a Wellington bookstore and referred to the Customs Department for action on the grounds that it was an indecent imported book. When purchased the magazine was on display behind a counter of the bookstore contained in a plastic bag and clearly marked with the words “not to be sold to persons under the age of 18”.

The retail price of the publication was $4.95. The publication consists of 44 photographs both colour and black and white. Many of these photographs which are principally of single naked female models are in the main unobjectionable in terms of the legislation.

The Tribunal is satisfied however that there are a number of elements in this magazine which clearly require an unconditional indecent classification and they so classify it. Those elements which cause concern include photographs of women having their pubic hair shaved, a photograph depicting what is clearly a lesbian encounter and a number of contrived and lewd poses of models. The written content of the publication is crude and clearly designed to attract the attention of the prurient.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1986.
Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications Teen Buds, Young American Numbers, Kip Knoll, Love, Robbie, Real Men of Australia, Playgirl Hunk Guys, Hot Surfer Trade, Teen Tricks, Loaded Spunks, Macho Spunks, Teen Cream, Easy Action, Hot Jism, Hot Punk Vol. 2, Greenhorn, The Seducers, Truck Stop Vol. 1, No. 1, Top Teens, Jocks Going Down, Red Hot Ramrods, Teen Meat, Men at Work. The Telephone Pole Vol. 1, No. 1, Hard Stud Hot Shots No. 1, Teen Trade, Young Spunk, Young Action, Teen Buds:

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.
Members: Mrs R. Barrington, A. J. Graham, and Ms K. Hulme.

Appearances: No appearance for importer, Waverley International Limited, Mr K. Wild for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These magazines were single copies commercially imported through the port of Auckland in August 1985 and seized by the Customs Department. The importer subsequently disputed forfeiture and the publications have been referred to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1976.

The importer was a private individual who brought the material into the country as passenger's baggage. The Tribunal agrees with the submission of the Comptroller of Customs that the stories portrayed are basic and crude and serve little purpose other than to arouse prurient interest.

Accordingly the Tribunal classifies Issues 3, 4 and 5 of Adult Fantasy magazine as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1986.
Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications Model Celebrities—Issues 1 and 2, and Adult Fantasy—Issues 3, 4 and 5:

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.
Members: Mrs R. Barrington, A. J. Graham, and Ms K. Hulme.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, Waverley International Limited, Mr K. Wild for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These magazines were single copies commercially imported through the port of Auckland in August 1985 and seized by the Customs Department. The importer subsequently disputed forfeiture of the magazines and the Comptroller of Customs has accordingly referred them to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Written submissions were made to the Tribunal on behalf of the importer that these particular magazines which are all English in origin had a similar format to the publications Tabu and Look decisions Nos 995 and 1020. It was submitted that a similar classification as was given to those publications would be appropriate in line with the decision of the High Court with regard to decisions Nos 937 and 962. Mr Wild on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs submitted that the Issues 1 and 2 of the magazine Model Celebrities should be classified as indecent to persons under the age of 18 as both magazines were comparable with the magazine Big Girls which was so classified by the Tribunal in its decision No. 21/84 of 3 December 1984.

The Tribunal finds that the photographs in Issues 1 and 2 of Model Celebrities are in the main unobjectionable but there are aspects of some of the photographs that require a restricted classification. Accordingly those two issues are each classified indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

The Tribunal does not take the same view with regard to the three issues of Adult Fantasy magazine. It finds that the posing of the models in these magazines is contrived and unnatural with many of them portraying crude and graphic sex and group sex. The Tribunal agrees with the submission of the Comptroller of Customs that the stories presented are basic and crude and serve little purpose other than to arouse prurient interest.

Accordingly those two issues are each classified indecent to persons under the age of 18 as was given to those publications would be appropriate.
The third category comprises 21 magazines all of which feature photographs of males indulging in homosexual activities. The Tribunal finds that none of these magazines have any merit, that they are all grossly indecent and injurious to the public good and are accordingly classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1986.
Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

Conditions of Approval

LPG fuel cylinders are approved subject to the following conditions—

1. That they be permanently and clearly marked, on a suitably attached metal plate, with characters not less than 6 mm high if space permits but in no case not less than 3 mm high, displaying the following information:

   (a) The specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.

   (b) The manufacturer's name or mark and the serial number of the cylinder.

   (c) The date of the original cylinder inspection and the identification mark of the inspection authority who made the inspection.

   (d) The date of any periodic cylinder test and the identification mark of the cylinder testing station who made each test.

   (e) The cylinder test pressure.

   (f) The nominal water capacity of the cylinder.

   (g) The tare weight of the cylinder.

2. That they be clearly marked or labelled to indicate that the cylinder is suitable for use with LPG.

3. That they be provided with valve threads and fittings which provide the following functions:

   (a) Filling connection incorporating a non-return valve.

   (b) Service valve incorporating an excess flow valve.

   (c) Contents gauge.

   (d) Pressure—relief valve.

   (e) A fixed liquid level indicator and an automatic fill shut off device which prevents the cylinder being filled beyond 85 percent of the total cylinder capacity.

   Valves and fittings shall have a service pressure rating of at least that of the cylinder to which they are fitted and shall be dimensioned, threaded and marked in accordance with the requirements of section 2.3 of New Zealand Standard NZS 5422 "The use of LPG and CNG Fuels in Internal Combustion Engines—Part 1 LPG Fuel".

4. That they be tested prior to installation and at periods not exceeding 5 years in accordance with the requirements of Australian Standard AS 2337–1980 or in accordance with the periodic test requirements laid down in the specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1986.

R. N. Abram, Chief Automotive Engineer.
