Decision No. 7/86
Reference No. 15/85

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decision in respect of the following publications: Loves Photo Album:

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.
Members: Mrs R. Barrington, Mrs H. P. Dick and A. J. Graham.
Hearing: on the 28th day of November 1985.

Appearances: There was no appearance on behalf of the importer (Waverley International Ltd.) K. Wild for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This publication was commercially imported through the port of Auckland in June 1983. The book was seized by the Comptroller of Customs, Auckland and as the importer disputed forfeiture it was referred to the Tribunal for classification. The ostensible purpose of production of this publication is that of a sex manual. The production is comprised principally of black and white photographs of a male and a female model engaged in sexual activity.

The table of contents includes such chapters as female oral-anal sexuality, male oral-anal sexuality, unusual sex, lesbian love, sexual fetishes, male and female sex organs. The Tribunal finds that the production is insensitive in its presentation and that the high proportion of photographs in comparison with the small amount of text shows a lack of honesty of purpose on behalf of the publisher.
The line to be drawn between publications which are genuinely presented to assist persons in relation to problems they may have regarding matters sexual and those magazines which are published to appeal to the prurient instincts of the reader can sometimes be a fine one. In this particular publication the content is such as to clearly take it outside the legitimate sex manual publications and accordingly the Tribunal classifies it as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 14th day of May 1986.

Decision No. 8/86
Reference No. 17/85
Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decision in respect of the following publication: Ranxerox in New York

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.
Members: Mrs R. Barrington, Mrs H. P. Dick and A. J. Graham.
Hearing: on the 28th day of November 1985.
Appearances: There was no appearance on behalf of the importer (Mark Peters) K. Wild for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This publication was imported through the port of Auckland by the importer in September of 1985. The publication was seized by the Comptroller of Customs and the importer has subsequently disputed forfeiture. The Comptroller of Customs has referred the publication to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Ranxerox In New York is a hard cover 41 page cartoon. The publisher is said to be Catalan Communications of New York and the printing is reputed to have been carried out in Spain. In an introduction to the publication it is said in relation to the work: “Ranxerox is a punk, futuristic Frankenstein, and with the underaged Luba, they are a bizarre Beauty and the Beast. This artist and writer team have turned a dark mirror to the depths of our Id and we see reflected the base part of ourselves that would take what it wants with no compromise, no apology—and woe to the person who would cross it. But it is all done with a black, wry, satirical sense of humor.”

The Tribunal finds that the publication contains features of drug taking, deviant sexual activity and violence of a kind and to a degree which require the Tribunal to classify it as unconditionally indecent. The publishers have placed upon the cover the words “Adults Only” but the very nature and presentation of the book would clearly make it attractive to children. It is being presented in comic book form. The introduction to the publication states that “In an introduction to the publication it is said in relation to the work”.

The Tribunal finds that the publication contains features of drug taking, deviant sexual activity and violence of a kind and to a degree which require the Tribunal to classify it as unconditionally indecent. The publishers have placed upon the cover the words “Adults Only” but the very nature and presentation of the book would clearly make it attractive to children. It is being presented in comic book form. The introduction to the publication states that “In an introduction to the publication it is said in relation to the work”.

The publication apart from a brief chapter devoted to the development of plastic explosives consists of instructions on the manufacture of plastic explosives from what may be called readily available kitchen and medicine cabinet substances. The instructions are simple and precise but clearly in the finding of the Tribunal the publication in the hands of incompetent persons would place them and others at risk of injury or death during the course of manufacture. The Tribunal in many of its decisions relating to the manufacture of explosives or the manufacture and production of firearms has expressed its concern at publications of this kind falling into the hands of persons intent on criminal activity. This publication is clearly of a kind which would attract the attention of some elements of the criminal minded community. It is classified as unconditionally indecent.

The letter went on:

“Our complaint is basically on the following grounds:

That the BCNZ is not abiding by the Broadcasting Act 1976 particularly sections 22 (c) and 24 (a).

That the broadcasting of matches is not against the national interest and that this national interest must be balanced by the wishes of the public.

That as a State monopoly the BCNZ has a duty to serve the public by which it is funded without political prejudice or censorship.”

The Broadcasting Corporation dealt with this and a number of other complaints in a 17-page decision on 8 May 1986. Although the letter of complaint had been addressed to the Chairman of the Corporation, it had been referred to the Secretary of the Corporation as being that of the national organisier of SPRI, Mrs Elizabeth Sutherland.

The Committee of the Corporation made the following decision:

“(a) Section 22 (c) of the Broadcasting Act, relied on by the complainant, is an empowering one and not a mandatory one, and does not establish the basis for a complaint. It permits the Corporation to provide sporting coverage but does not require it to do so.

(b) The other section referred to—24 (1) (a) is not capable of sustaining a formal complaint in view of section 59 (3) (a)

which specifically precludes complaints based on this section.

The Committee however considered the requirements of section 24 (1) (a) in every event, the range of sports programmes, including rugby, provided by TVNZ fully meets the requirements of 24 (1) (a).

(c) The complainant referred to the national interest. The Corporation is required to act as trustee of the national interest (section 3 (d) and, in pursuance of that role, has reached the view that it has a duty to respect the New Zealand and international structure of organised amateur rugby. Further the Corporation considers it has a duty to respond to the present policies of the Rugby Union in relation to the rebels, as well as to consider the effects immediate or potential, of its actions on other sports codes, activities and the many New Zealanders involved. The Committee examined these considerations and decided they were in accordance with the statute and do not see any reason to change the Corporation’s decision.

(d) The third ground on which the complaint is based is not a valid ground for complaint. The principle enunciated is fully accepted by the Corporation. No political prejudice or censorship has been demonstrated by the complainant.

The disputed decision was not an "arbitrary" one, but arrived at on a rational and informed basis.

The complaint was not upheld.”

On 9 May the following telegram was received by the Registrar

from Mrs Sutherland:

“We wish to lodge an appeal against BCNZ decision to not uphold complaint on coverage of Cavalier-Springbok games.

Objection is that the 17-page report received by us in reply is contradictory, non-factual and misleading and that the BCNZ has considered matters that are completely outside its duty under the Act. We prefer to appear before the Tribunal with further submissions. We declare that no legal action will be taken in respect of our complaint. In light statement made by Hugh Rennie Dominion 9/5/86 we demand Tribunal hearing immediately.”

On Monday, 12 May, the Registrar sent the following reply by telegram:

“I acknowledge your telegram which I received on Friday. I also confirm my telephoned advice that you should complete the complaint form and get it to me as quickly as possible.

I am instructed by the Tribunal to inform you that the Tribunal can consider the complaint only when it has details of the complaint and the signed declaration.

If the complaint being referred to the Tribunal is not about a programme that has been broadcast, you should indicate the grounds on which it is claimed that the Tribunal has jurisdiction to deal with the matter.”

On 14 May Mrs Sutherland’s complaint was received. She said she was dissatisfied with the decision of the BCNZ because it "still denies adequate public coverage of remaining SA/Cavalier unofficial ‘tests’. BCNZ has not given sufficient reason for its restrictive coverage of this controversial tour”. She wanted “full coverage”.

DECISION

Dated the 15th day of May 1986

On 1 May Mrs Sutherland wrote to the Chairman of the Broadcasting Corporation on behalf of SPRI—New Zealand to disagree with what she described as the arbitrary decision of the Director-General of Television New Zealand and endorsed by the Board of the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand, that the unofficial ‘tests’ between South Africa and the New Zealand rugby team known as the Cavaliers should not be televised live.

Mrs Sutherland indicated that she wished “to appeal to the Broadcasting Tribunal to seek a reversal of the decision”. She said that both she and Pat Hunt wished to appear before the Tribunal to make submissions.

COM. 3/86

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPLAINT OF THE COMPLAINANT

BY HER DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INLAND REVENUE

THE COMPLAINANT

J. SIMCOCK,

IN THE ABSENCE OF HER DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INLAND REVENUE.

she claimed that her complaint related to "news and sports and weekend sports programmes through period of New Zealand Cavaliers' tour, basically 6.30 and 9.30 p.m."

The only complaint which can be referred to the Tribunal is the one she made to the BCNZ—the BCNZ's announcement that live match coverage would not be broadcast.

The Tribunal cannot deal with complaints that have not first been referred to the BCNZ.

The Tribunal's jurisdiction to deal with complaints of this kind arises from section 95B(1) which vests the function of the Tribunal to receive and determine complaints from persons who are dissatisfied with the outcome of complaints to the Corporation under section 95B(1) Broadcasting Act 1976.

Section 95B(1) casts a duty on the Corporation to receive and consider formal complaints about programmes broadcast by the Corporation.

There is of course nothing to prevent the Corporation considering any complaint whether it contains grounds for formal complaint under the Act or not. The Act makes it clear that the right of any person to lodge formal complaints arises only when a programme is broadcast.

The Tribunal's interpretation of this section is reinforced by the special provision in section 95za(1)(a)(i) which empowers the Minister of Broadcasting to refer to the Tribunal a programme which has not yet been broadcast. The Minister has first to consider that an intended broadcast which has been recorded or filmed will be in breach of certain provisions of section 24 or of the programme rules.

We have had occasion twice previously to consider whether the Tribunal has any power to deal with a complaint that a programme ought to be broadcast. In Decision 8/82 the Tribunal dealt with a complaint from H. E. Jensen who was impressed by a programme and wished to have it repeated. The Tribunal found it had no jurisdiction to deal with such a complaint.

In Decision No. 16/82 the Tribunal dealt with a complaint from Mr J. L. Hunt, M.P. (before he was Minister of Broadcasting). His complaint was that a programme, "Brideshead Revisited" which he had wanted to be broadcast in a particular version, was one which he alleged did not breach the rules. The Tribunal ruled it had no jurisdiction.

As we pointed out in that decision, the reasons for the Act not providing for reference to the Tribunal of a complaint that a programme ought to be broadcast are clear. With the one exception mentioned above, the Act makes it clear that there is to be no interference by any outsiders, whether a statutory authority or otherwise, in the programming of radio and television stations.

If complainants could refer to the Tribunal complaints about programmes that they wanted to have broadcast, we would become the very body that the BCNZ was set up to control. We would arrogate to ourselves powers that would have been granted to the board of the BCNZ which has the statutory responsibility for the BCNZ's programming and the day-to-day decisions of its executives.

Further. as we said in Decision 16/82:

"If the statutory right existed to complain to the Tribunal about programmes before they were broadcast, it would be used by those wishing to prevent the broadcast of programmes and would, in effect, constitute the Tribunal a censorship body which under the Act it clearly is not."

Mrs Sutherland's complaint therefore falls outside the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

As far as the decision of the Broadcasting Corporation on her complaint is concerned, the Corporation is correct in its interpretation that an alleged breach of section 24(e) does not establish the basis for a formal complaint.

The Corporation's interpretation of the effect of alleged breach of section 24(1)(a) is also correct. Section 95B(3)(a) specifically precludes a formal complaint based on an alleged breach of section 24(1)(a).

We note that section 95zA which sets out the principle on which the complaints procedure is based, states, inter alia,

"(d) Complaints based merely on a complainant's preferences are not, in general, capable of being resolved by a complaints procedure."

The Tribunal has found nothing in the complaint which would give it jurisdiction to deal with the complaint. There is no basis therefore for holding the oral hearing requested by the complainant.

In summary:

1. The specific complaints by Mrs Sutherland refer to sections of the Broadcasting Act in respect of which there is no right of access to a formal complaints procedure leading to the Tribunal. The fact that the Corporation has dealt with the complaints in a formal manner does not give the Tribunal a statutory jurisdiction. The Tribunal is unable to deal with the complaint except pursuant to powers given to it under the Act.

2. The Broadcasting Act provides no formal complaints procedure which could enable the Tribunal to consider a programme which—

- has not been broadcast
- is said to comply with the Act and rules
- the complainant wants to have broadcast
- the warrant holder does not intend to broadcast.

3. The Act does not enable the Broadcasting Tribunal to make general comments or rulings on the reasoning or processes of day-to-day judgments in broadcasting otherwise than in dealing with complaints which can legally be referred to it under the Act.

The Tribunal finds that it has no legal power to deal with Mrs Sutherland's complaint.

Signed for the Tribunal.

Decision No. 7/86
COM. 4/86
Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN THE MATTER OF THE BROADCASTING ACT 1976, AND IN THE MATTER OF A COMPLAINT BY ROBERT WALTER DAWSON OF WAIKANE

WARRANT HOLDER: BROADCASTING CORPORATION OF NEW ZEALAND (TELEVISION):

Chairman: B. H. Slane.
Member: Robert Boyd-Bell.

DECISION

DATED THE 15TH DAY OF MAY 1986

By letter dated 2 May 1986, Mr Dawson lodged formal complaints with the secretary of the BCNZ against the reporting and general coverage by Television New Zealand of the tour of South Africa by a group of leading New Zealand rugby players. His complaint was that the coverage failed to meet the requirements of section 24 of the Broadcasting Act. Mr Dawson then made complaints specifically about news coverage. Those complaints have not yet been finally dealt with by the BCNZ and therefore the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to deal with them at this stage.

Mr Dawson's other complaint which he wished to have referred to the Tribunal was "the decision to strictly limit or ignore sporting coverage and not to give live coverage of the games against a representative South African team".

Mr Dawson submitted that reasonable efforts must be made to ensure that significant points of view are presented in the period of their interest.

"In not covering the games, while extensively covering other aspects of the tour TVNZ is ignoring a significant New Zealand interest and point of view and is failing to uphold the law of the land," he said.

The BCNZ dealt with that complaint on 8 May as follows:

"It is not necessary to provide live coverage of the tour in order to comply with the requirements of section 24(1)(e) of the Act that in matters of public controversy, reasonable efforts must be made for all significant points of view to be given expression. In any event, the news coverage provided is sufficient to meet the requirements of this section, if this were to apply."

That complaint was not upheld.

Mr Dawson referred his complaint to the Tribunal by letter dated 9 May which was received by the Registrar on 12 May. The Registrar forwarded the complaints form including the required declaration and this was lodged with the Registrar on 13 May 1986. In completing that form Mr Dawson made it clear that he was not complaining about specific programmes but about "inadequate coverage of the Crusader's rugby tour of South Africa by TVNZ.

In his letter of 9 May to the Tribunal he argued that complying with the rules of objective journalism required "full coverage for the tests." He did not, in completing the complaint form, add anything specific.
On 13 May the Tribunal sent a telegram to Mr Dawson as follows:

"Your complaints relating to specific programmes have not yet been finally dealt with by the BCNZ and the Tribunal cannot therefore deal with them now.

Your complaint that there ought to be live or 'more adequate' coverage does not indicate the basis on which you consider the Tribunal can deal with the complaint about programmes that have not been broadcast.

Do you want to make any submissions on this point of jurisdiction?"

In response Mr Dawson said that the Tribunal did have jurisdiction. If it did not, it ought to.

The Tribunal has concluded that it does not have a complaint that it can deal with under the Act because the complaint—

- is not about specific programmes which have been broadcast
- is essentially a complaint that there are programmes which ought to be broadcast.

For the reasons given in the decision on Mrs Sutherland's complaint, the Tribunal does not consider it has jurisdiction to deal with such a complaint.

We do not need to set out the reasons again.

Mr Dawson's arguments concerning failure to meet standards of objective journalism can only be dealt with in relation to a complaint of the tour.

Mr Dawson's argument was also that there has been a breach of the section in relation to particular circumstances since there is live coverage of a rugby match is required to balance other reports in the period of current interest. In effect, Mr Dawson claims that the live coverage of a rugby match is required to balance other reports of the tour.

Mr Dawson appears to have misunderstood the section which relates to "discussion" and presenting "points of view". However the Tribunal has no power to make any ruling on the interpretation of the section in relation to particular circumstances since there is no jurisdiction to deal with his complaint.

The Tribunal therefore finds that it has no power to deal with the complaint referred to the Tribunal.

Signed for the Tribunal.

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of applications for commercial FM sound radio warrants in Christchurch by:

(1) CANTERBURY FM BROADCASTING LTD.
(2) RADIO AVON LTD.
(3) BROADCASTING CORPORATION OF NEW ZEALAND.
(4) MAINLAND FM LTD.
Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Supplementary Decision

On 15 July 1985, in Decision 7/85, the Tribunal granted warrants for FM broadcasting stations to Canterbury FM Broadcasting Ltd. and the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand.

The Broadcasting Corporation was already the holder of an AM warrant for 3ZM which would be surrendered from the commencement of broadcasting by 3ZM-FM. The Tribunal indicated it would grant a 90-day authorisation for the existing 3ZM operation. The Tribunal considered this more appropriate than granting an FM warrant with a supplementary AM warrant for such a short period of simulcasting. In effect, the BCNZ application was for the conversion of 3ZM from AM to FM.
Under the heading “Conditions” the Tribunal said at page 18:

“We have decided not to rule on timing at this stage for commencement of FM broadcasting. The successful applicants may make submissions. Normally we would have left the parties to make their own pace but two other considerations may apply—

(1) The BCNZ is to provide facilities for co-siting. Negotiations may take time and should not put Canterbury FM at a disadvantage.

(2) Existing stations will be affected by the new entrant. It could be argued that 3ZM should be able to start on FM at the same time as, or earlier than, Canterbury FM.

A condition may be inserted to deal with these matters after hearing submissions. If the parties cannot agree.”

We were informed that an appeal was filed by Radio Avon Ltd. in the High Court.

On 17 October 1985, counsel for Canterbury FM Ltd. filed with the Tribunal a memorandum pointing to have a condition placed on both warrants that both stations should commence FM transmissions at the same time. Two grounds were given.

The first was that co-siting negotiations would take time and there was “a real prospect of Canterbury FM being disadvantaged as a result of the Corporation being able to prolong such negotiations with 3ZM who was co-siting on FM. The second reason was the advantage of promoting the FM band with both services starting together.

On 28 February 1986 the Corporation recorded its opposition. It submitted that any delay on co-siting negotiations was of Canterbury FM’s making. The Corporation was willing a delay for discussions.

The Corporation said the Tribunal had protected the existing operator in the Manawatu by permitting the existing station to broadcast on FM 6 months before the new FM service of the Corporation.

In a memorandum filed on 27 February 1986, Mr Mortlock, for Radio Avon Ltd., neither supported nor opposed Canterbury FM’s request for a simultaneous start for both FM stations.

But he requested two conditions if 3ZM-FM commenced first:

1. A limit on advertising to 8 minutes per hour until a second station started.

2. BCNZ undertaking to arbitrate any difference on co-siting terms.

On 3 March 1986 counsel for the Corporation, B. Hudson, filed a memorandum pointing out that there had been no appeal against the granting of the 3ZM-FM warrant to the Corporation, only against the failure to impose a condition limiting advertising.

Mr Hudson’s memorandum set out the steps taken by the Corporation and the lack of response from Canterbury FM to enable co-siting negotiations to be opened.

We were later informed that the Corporation had applied to the High Court on 26 March 1986 to discharge the appeal in so far as it affected the grant of a warrant to the BCNZ.

By letter dated 26 March 1986, Mr Mortlock sought a decision from the Tribunal on the advertising condition because, he said, the matter was too urgent to be dealt with by the Tribunal rather than the High Court.

The applicant did not take a position on the question of commencement date but said that, in the event of the Tribunal ruling that both FM stations did not need to go on the air at the same time, 3ZM’s advertising of FM should be limited to 8 minutes in the hour until there were 2 commercial FM stations on air. Then the appeal in respect of 3ZM-FM could be struck out.

After considering all the submissions made, the Tribunal decided that it was not appropriate to make any decision on commencement dates before the application to the High Court had been heard.

We also said consideration could be given to the matter again after the 14 April hearing in the High Court.

The question of a limitation of advertising on 3ZM if it were the only FM station broadcasting could be addressed if an application were made for 3ZM to go on air before any other FM station.

Such an application has now been made by the Corporation. It has informed the Tribunal that, on 14 April, His Honour the Chief Justice made the following comment:

“An application having been made by Canterbury FM to the Tribunal to determine the start date of the FM warrant, as per its counsel’s (Mr Impey) memorandum of 14 October 1985 and the Broadcast Corporations Act 1984 (in a ruling on the admission of evidence during the hearings of the applications) to the Tribunal’s view on arbitration.

We are not satisfied that the Corporation would refuse to arbitrate or cause delays. If such a situation occurred we would expect that the Tribunal would be informed and the Corporation would be aware of the implications for future co-siting warrant grants. Mr Mortlock has referred to a statement made by the Browne hearing counsel for the Corporation.

In view of the actions taken by the Corporation in Christchurch co-siting negotiations we do not consider that it is necessary in this case to impose a condition as to arbitration. We do not make any comment about the legality of such a condition. Mr Mortlock inquires as to any condition regarding co-siting. The warrant will show the location of the transmitter and it is a usual condition that the private warrant holder co-site with the Corporation. Any change to that would have to be approved by the Tribunals.

Limitation on Advertising

Finally, Mr Mortlock has submitted that a condition ought to be imposed that, until such time as a second commercial FM station goes on air in Christchurch, 3ZM should be limited to a maximum of 8 minutes of advertising in any 1 hour.

The Tribunal said at page 15 of its decision:

“3ZM estimated 6 minutes per hour in the first year, 7 minutes in the second year and 8 minutes in the third year. This was less than that proposed by Canterbury and Avon...”

The reference here was to average, not maximum, minutes per hour.

“If one FM warrant were granted the Tribunal would impose a limit of 8 minutes per hour. The grant of 2 warrants would make that statutory limitation unnecessary as we believe the competitive element would tend to limit the amount of advertising.”

Canterbury FM does not support the imposition of such a condition on 3ZM-FM.

We understand that the appeal by Radio Avon Ltd. is against the grant to Canterbury FM Ltd. upon the basis that the warrant ought to have been granted to Radio Avon Ltd.

It would therefore appear that there will eventually be 2 FM warrants—one in the hands of the BCNZ and the other in the hands of the applicant or the respondent.
In these circumstances we do not need to impose such a condition but reserve the point in case the High Court should rule that there be no second warrant granted.

As to the interim situation between the start-up of 3ZM-FM and the private station, we have no doubt that such a condition is unnecessary. It would not be in the interests of a new station being established to drench its programmes with advertising. 3ZM-AM limits itself to 12 minutes per hour. There might be some excess over 8 minutes on occasion on 3ZM-FM. We do not consider that the purpose of such a condition in this case should be to protect existing AM stations but rather to protect the FM format.

We expect commercial realities and programme promotion for the new FM mode will militate against an undue amount of advertising by 3ZM-FM.

The Tribunal therefore directs the Registrar to issue a warrant on the usual terms but containing the following condition:

The Tribunal may impose a condition relating to the volume of advertising there should be no other warranted commercial FM station broadcasting in Christchurch within 12 months of the date of this decision.

Signed for the Tribunal.

THE BOAT OWNER'S GUIDE TO CORROSION

by L. H. Bolton

DEPARTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH

$4.25 plus 80c p & p

Much has been written about marine corrosion and its mitigation and yet the same problems and many old misconceptions still seem to persist. This booklet aims to assist the boat owner to identify the basic types of metallic corrosion, to understand their causes and the procedures that should be followed to avoid corrosion situations from developing in the first instance.

THE PATH TO REFORM

Edited by C. Burns

$15.75 plus $2.00 p & p

The Path to Reform, derived from the 1981 Convention of the New Zealand Institute of Public Administration is about the path to administrative reform in the State Services in New Zealand. It continues the exploration begun in "State Services and the Public in the 1980's" and continued in the "Accountability of Executive." Like its predecessors, "The Path to Reform" reads like a Who's Who of New Zealand public administrators.
