Decision No. 12/87

Reference No. IND 3/87

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following publication: The Girls of Penthouse, November/December 1986, No. 21, published by Penthouse International Ltd.

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Hearing at Wellington on the 6th day of April 1987.

Decision

This publication was part of a commercial shipment imported by airmail through the Port of Auckland in October 1986. The publication was seized by the Collector of Customs in Auckland and the importer has disputed forfeiture. The publication was referred to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

The publication is in magazine form and consists almost entirely of photographic portfolios of several nude or partly clad females. Typical of many such magazines featuring the female nude many of the photographs show the models in contrived positions which have considerable emphasis on the genitalia. Mr Ellis in his submission on behalf of the importer anticipated that aspect of the publication which caused the Tribunal concern, namely, the multiple model scenes. In a submission Mr Ellis invited the Tribunal to accept that the portrayal of nude females in multiple model scenes was no longer sufficient to justify an unconditionally indecent classification. In that regard Mr Ellis relied principally on the test to be applied in respect of indecency as set out in the majority decisions in the Court of Appeal in Howley v. Lawrence Publishing Co. of New Zealand Ltd (1986) 2 NZAR p. 193. The test to be applied was stated by Woodhouse P at p. 197 where he said:

“When all these provisions are taken together, including of course the important qualifying words of the definition in s. 2. I am left in no doubt that whatever might be the influence of any one or more of them in some particular case, or the possible difficulty which might arise when attempting to weigh some of them in a sufficiently subjective way against others, there is a clear statutory intention to withhold the censorship weapon from material which falls short of being actually injurious. As McCarthy P put it in the News Media case (at p. 615), material is not to be banned unless there is ‘discernible injury.’”

It was Mr Ellis’ submission that the criteria which the Tribunal had previously applied in assessing indecency and which had become known as the tripartite test was no longer relevant or applicable in view of the Howley decision.

In a decision of the full court of the High Court The Comptroller of Customs v. Gordon & Gotch (NZ) Limited M648/86 High Court Registry Wellington delivered on 2 July 1987 Their Honours indicated that the tripartite test was (subject to the exercise of caution in its application) still available to the Tribunal as a valid assessment or Customs classification. In that regard Mr Ellis relied principally on the test to be applied in respect of indecency as set out in the majority decisions in the Court of Appeal in Howley v. Lawrence Publishing Co. of New Zealand Ltd (1986) 2 NZAR p. 193.

One can only express a view but I do not believe such a test is wrongful per se and I think the Tribunal, by its decisions, has obviously been aware of the possible dangers mentioned in Waverley (supra). I would think no harm results from its continued use so long as it does not itself deteriorate to pigeon holing into sealed compartments unfreshened by the statutory directions which must never be departed from.

In considering whether adherence to that test was wrong in principle His Honour Quilliam J stated the position at page 5 of his judgment in this way:

“For myself I see no objection to the establishment by the Tribunal of criteria which are designed to assist it to a conclusion as to whether a document is injurious to the public good. I do not accept that there can properly be any slavish adherence to a formula in such matters. The danger of using a formula is that it tends to become in itself the test without reference to the principle which alone can be the proper basis of a decision. I therefore consider that the use by the Tribunal of the tripartite test is not in itself wrong in principle, but that the use made of that test could become wrong if it is not appropriately adapted to the particular case or to changing standards and attitudes within the community.”

The tripartite test which Their Honours were considering has been expressed in various decisions of the Tribunal in a number of ways and His Honour Quilliam J set out in his judgment the test enunciated by the Tribunal in Decision No. 1054 of 17 March 1983 which was:

“In summary, the Tribunal indicated that issues were likely to be classified as indecent if, in addition to their normal content, they contained pictorial scenes including the following:

1. Scenarios involving more than two models, and in which sex violence and intimacy and/or deviant aspects of sex are depicted among the models;

2. Multiple model scenes which depict lesbian acts;

3. Heterosexual scenarios in which there are a high degree of intimacy (e.g., fellatio or cunnilingus or intercourse) depicted in the couples actions.”

The Tribunal finds that two of the portfolios contain depictions of matters which come within the matter of concern as expressed in the tripartite test.

From pages 42–57 inclusive a sequence of photographs depict two female models in scenes of intimacy and some scenes of lesbian acts. In another sequence between pages 88–101 a male and female model are portrayed in scenes of intimate touching and fondling in a way which concerns the Tribunal when considering whether such portrayals are indecent.

In applying the statutory directions contained in the Indecent Publications Act and measuring those very carefully against the tripartite test The Comptroller of Customs v. Gordon & Gotch (NZ) Limited the members of the Tribunal are unanimous that this publication is injurious to the public good. The publication is classified as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of September 1987.

Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.
In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Male Call, No. 5, published by Undercounter Publications; Macho Collection, Vol. 1, No. 1, publisher unknown; Abducted, published by Falcon Presentations; House Master, publisher unknown; Yes, publisher unknown; John Holmes Superdong, Vol. 1, No. 1, publisher unknown.

Appearances: P. J. Eggleton for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance on behalf of importer.

DECISION

These magazines were privately imported as unaccompanied baggage through Christchurch Airport. The magazines were seized by the Comptroller of Customs and the importer has disputed forfeiture. The magazines were referred to the Tribunal by the Comptroller prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966. The Comptroller of Customs invited the Tribunal to consider classifying each of the publications as unconditionally indecent. In his submission Mr Eggleton, on behalf of the Comptroller, submitted that the photographic content in each of the publications was largely of models clearly posed so as to give maximum emphasis to the male genitalia. Mr Eggleton submitted that the magazines lacked any literary merit and that they were grossly indecent and injurious to the public good.

The Tribunal unanimously agrees with the Comptroller’s view insofar as Macho Collection, Vol. 1, No. 1, House Master, Abducted, John Holmes Superdong, Vol. 1, No. 1, and Male Call, No. 5 are concerned. The Tribunal found that these particular publications:

1. Lacked any literary or artistic merit whatsoever.
2. Contained, in some instances, depictions of multiple homosexual activity.
3. In one instance (Macho Collection) had many photographic depictions of bondage, and;
4. In a general way were coarse and lewd to an extent that taken with the other aspects these publications would be injurious to the public good.

The four magazines are classified as unconditionally indecent. The Tribunal found that the publication Yes did not require an unconditionally indecent classification and it is satisfied that a classification of the publication as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years is all that is required and it so classifies it.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of September 1987.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: The Leathermans Handbook 2, Hombre Scene, Vol. 1, No. 1 and 5;

Appearances: P. J. Eggleton for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance on behalf of importer.

DECISION

These publications were commercially imported by air freight through the port of Auckland on 25 August 1986 and were seized at Auckland through the port of Auckland on 25 August 1986 and were seized at Auckland through the port of Auckland by the Comptroller of Customs. In a letter to the Manager of Lawrence Publishing Co. Ltd., the importer, dated 6 October 1986, the Collector of Customs at Auckland gave notice of seizure under the Customs Act 1966 of each of these publications and stated that they were considered indecent within the meaning of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. The importer disputed seizure and the publications were referred to the Tribunal for classification and decision.

Mr Eggleton on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs submitted to the Tribunal that the magazines were not randomly imported and that they were imported with the following in mind:

(a) The Court of Appeal decision in Howley v. Lawrence Publishing Co. (NZ) Ltd.
(b) The passing of the Homosexual Law Reform Bill.
(c) The New Zealand Film Censor has been passing for some time video tapes depicting explicit male homosexual relations.

Mr Ireland submitted that the importer was justified in the light of those developments in considering that the publications would not be regarded as indecent under New Zealand law. Mr Ireland submitted that the bulk of the decisions banning the sale or distribution of homosexual publications had been based on the criminal law which provided that homosexual acts were a criminal offence. Mr Ireland reminded the Tribunal of the submission made by Mr W. Lindberg for the New Zealand Aids Foundation in respect of the publication Advocate Men which was before the Tribunal for consideration that same day, and in particular the submission that the magazines benefit the community insofar as they support and encourage “safe sex” practices for homosexual men. Mr Ireland further submitted that a majority of the magazines were of high quality production and that they displayed an honesty of purpose.

Whilst acknowledging that some people would be offended by the magazines Mr Ireland submitted that the Tribunal should consider whether the publications are injurious to the public good.

The Tribunal appreciated that its decision in respect of these publications would be of importance to publishers and importers and, as part of the case for the importer Mr Ireland presented to the Tribunal a prepared statement by Mr B. M. Sheppard, a director and shareholder of Lawrence Publishing Co. (NZ) Ltd. who also for the last 9 years has been the editor of Out magazine which is published by Lawrence “as a service to the gay community”. Mr Ireland submitted that the magazines were not randomly imported and that they were imported with the following in mind:

(a) The Court of Appeal decision in Howley v. Lawrence Publishing Co. (NZ) Ltd.
(b) The passing of the Homosexual Law Reform Bill.
(c) The New Zealand Film Censor has been passing for some time video tapes depicting explicit male homosexual relations.

Mr Ireland further submitted that a majority of the magazines were of high quality production and that they displayed an honesty of purpose.

Whilst acknowledging that some people would be offended by the magazines Mr Ireland submitted that the Tribunal should consider whether the publications are injurious to the public good.

The Tribunal appreciated that its decision in respect of these publications would be of importance to publishers and importers and, as part of the case for the importer Mr Ireland presented to the Tribunal a prepared statement by Mr B. M. Sheppard, a director and shareholder of Lawrence Publishing Co. (NZ) Ltd. who also for the last 9 years has been the editor of Out magazine which is published by Lawrence “as a service to the gay community”. Mr Ireland submitted that the magazines were not randomly imported and that they were imported with the following in mind:

"At the time the decision was given homosexual acts between males was still a criminal offence and this may have materially influenced the result. With the passing of the Homosexual Law Reform Act 1986 that situation has changed, but this fact alone is not to be regarded as determinative of the present appeal."
And the following further directions of His Honour at pages 5 and 6:

“The main consideration must be whether what was before the Tribunal demonstrated that the publication had ‘the capacity for some actual harm’.”

“From the point of view of young people we cannot escape the conclusion that the publication is capable of actual harm. We accordingly conclude that its availability should be limited to adults.”

With all of those considerations and submissions in mind the Tribunal finds as follows:

The Leatherman’s Handbook 2

The Tribunal finds that this paperback publication contains what can only be described as a manual for homosexual sadomasochism. In the publication are items dealing with bondage, male castration and descriptions of sexual deviancy. There are also items which appear to the Tribunal to advocate drug use and the whole publication has in its Tribunal’s view the encouragement of the more deviant aspects of homosexual activity. The Tribunal finds the Leatherman’s Handbook unconditionally indecent and classifies it accordingly.

Hombre Scene, Vol. 1, No. 1, Hombre Scene, Vol. 1, No. 5

This publication is largely text interspersed with drawings and photographs. A high deal of the text relates to both the fantasies of homosexual men and in some cases the reporting of such fantasies being converted into realities. There are drawings and photographs involving multiple models of a kind which concern the Tribunal. It is because of the overall effect of the publications that the Tribunal classifies them as unconditionally indecent.

Di’s Dilemma, Off-Shore Duty & Others

Both of these publications are printed in the United States and are relatively cheaply produced novels. Both novels contain a great deal of material devoted to homosexual activity and although they have a plot which is clearly discernible they cannot pretend to be works of any literary merit. The Tribunal is satisfied that these books would have a limited market and that they do not require an unconditionally indecent classification. The Tribunal classifies both books as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

The Zeus Collection, Zeus Presents Robert La Tourneau, Zeus in Bondage, Zeus Presents Joe Paducah, Zeus Cowboys, The Zeus Collection, The Complete Portfolio

These publications are distributed by Hudson Communications Inc. of New York and the Tribunal finds that they are predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of homosexual sex and bondage. The bondage by itself would call for an unconditionally indecent classification but it is the whole tone of the production which satisfies the Tribunal beyond any question that these type of publications must be given an indecent classification. The Tribunal as such, as in its finding they are clearly of a type which would be damaging to the public good. Each publication is classified as unconditionally indecent.

These publications largely consist of photographs of males nude, partly clad and clad. They also contain articles, stories and letters to the editors. Each of the main are directed towards the male homosexual market. Some of them have aspects of bondage and which in the Tribunal’s view came very close to requiring an unconditionally indecent classification and we mention that so that the importers and distributors will be made aware of that concern. The Tribunal is satisfied that the appropriate decision to be made in respect of these particular magazines is for limited distribution and accordingly each is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Mandate October 1985

This particular issue caused concern for two reasons. The first being a series of photographs with limited text under the heading of “Window Display”. The photographs depict a nude male model in various poses with plastic male mannequins. That feature of the publication which caused most concern to the Tribunal was however a short story commencing at page 69 of the magazine which dealt with bondage and flagellation in a way in which the Tribunal found to be not only unwholesome but clearly damaging to the public good. This particular issue is classified by the Tribunal as unconditionally indecent.

Each of these publications which are largely pictorial displays of the male figure, and in the case of Torso containing a reasonable amount of text, are classified by the Tribunal as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years. The Physical Man and Exposures which are also entirely photographic depictions of the male nude are both quite sensitively and artistically produced with a lack of objectionable material. We however feel that an age limit of 16 is justified. The magazine Torso has a significant amount of text of a kind which would have of itself justified its restricted publication and as indicated all five magazines are classified indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Riders

This publication which consists almost entirely of photographs is classified as unconditionally indecent for two reasons. Firstly the multiplicity of models engaged in homosexual activity of a sexual nature and secondly the many portrayals of bondage. Either of these aspects on their own justify the classification.

All Muscle

This is another well produced publication but differs from the publications to which we have given an R16 classification in the more contrived poses with emphasis on the erect penis of the models. The Tribunal classifies this publication as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Playguy: Vol. 5, No. 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12, Vol. 6, No. 11, Vol. 7, No. 4, 5 and 6, Vol. 8, No. 3 and 6

These magazines are a mixture of text and photographs of the male figure nude and partly dressed. There were some aspects of the text which caused the Tribunal concern that their coarseness and explicit depictions of sexual activity is clearly designed to attract the prurient interest of homosexual males. There are also some elements of bondage which concern but not to the extent of justifying an unconditionally indecent classification. The majority of the photographs concentrate on the erect penis of the various models. The Tribunal finds that these particular publications are indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years and so classifies them with the additional condition and requirement and respect of their sale and distribution that they not be exposed for sale or distribution.

Decision No. 5/87

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Hearing at Wellington on the 6th day of April 1987.

Appearances: P. J. Eggleton for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance on behalf of importer.

Decision

This publication was privately imported through parcel post through the Port of Auckland on 7 October 1986. The Comptroller of Customs advised the importer that he was seizing the publication and that it should be forfeited to the Crown as indecent. The importer disputed forfeiture and the publication was referred to the Tribunal for classification.

The Tribunal at the hearing on 6 April 1987 had before it a substantial number of magazines directed at the male homosexual market and this was one of those. Although the magazine contains no serious articles much of its content is devoted to Graphic and lurid. The Tribunal is unanimous in its finding that an age restriction is all that is required and accordingly we find it to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years and so classifies it.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of August 1987.

Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

Decision No. 6/87

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Oui, Vol. 15, No. 11, published by Laurent Publishing Ltd.; Adam, Vol. 30, No. 11, published by Knight Publishing Ltd.;

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: H. B. Dick, R. Barrington and A. J. Graham.

Hearing on the 28th day of November 1985.

Appearances: Mr Wild for the Comptroller of Customs. There was no appearance on behalf of the importer.

DECISION

These four publications are very similar in their content. They can best be described as bawdy in the extreme with a not insignificant proportion of the written material containing objectionable racist, sexist and anti religious content. Insofar as the obligation of this Tribunal is concerned we are satisfied that it is sufficient to classify each of the publications as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years. The objectionable content to which we have referred is not a matter which calls for further comment from this Tribunal.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of August 1987.

Judge R. R. KEARNEY. Chairman.
The violent excesses from Mr Lewis’ films. In the Tribunal’s clear view the publication is not a serious publication which might otherwise be given a specialist classification such as indecent except in the hands of scholars or persons having a real interest in film production and accordingly the Tribunal classifies the publication as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of August 1987.

Decision No. 15/87
Reference No. IND 25/86

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Penthouse is a glossy magazine apparently printed and published in the United Kingdom is principally a presentation of photographs depicting heterosexual and homosexual couples either female, or male and female engaged in sexual activity. The sexual activity includes oral sex and masturbation. Although the magazine is well produced in terms of the quality of the paper and clarity of photographs, the Tribunal finds that it has no literary, artistic or social merit of the kind which it has to consider under the legislation. An analysis of its content, the Tribunal classifies this publication as unconditionally indecent.

Girls of Penthouse, Collector’s Edition, No. 3

This publication is almost exclusively a collection of glossy photographs of female nude or partly nude figures. A significant number of the photographs depict female models in contrived positions so as to highlight the genitalia. That which causes the Tribunal to regard this publication as unconditionally indecent is the fact that the Tribunal finds that this material would attract and because most of the material (or similar material) has been published in magazines freely available in New Zealand and principally because the Tribunal is unable to find that the material meets the criteria necessary for an unconditionally indecent classification the Tribunal classifies this particular publication as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

In respect of the remaining publications reviewed in this decision there was no representation of the importer or of any other interested party other than the Comptroller of Customs, nor were there any written representations on the file presented to the Tribunal. These publications can in most cases be conveniently dealt with in groups.

Australian Variations For Liberated Lovers; Australian Variations for Liberated Lovers, No. 2

These 2 publications are printed in Hong Kong, largely it seems for distribution in Australia. Each contains 129 pages of largely printed material and carries an identical format, design, content with Penthouse Variations. Penthouse Variations is printed in London and it is significant that the cover graphics for both magazines are identical. For exactly the same reasons as applied in respect of Penthouse Variations for Liberated Lovers, the Tribunal finds Australian Variations for Liberated Lovers and Australian Variations for Liberated Lovers No. 2 unconditionally indecent.

Couples, Volume 1, No. 2

This small publication of 97 pages is a monthly publication published in America. The publication is principally text dealing almost entirely with the prurient aspects of sex in a coarse and corrupting fashion. This publication would be of little interest to anyone who could advance for the publications that they had any pretence of literary, artistic or social merit. The fact that this publication has a real likelihood of corrupting persons and certainly has no literary, artistic or social merit nor honesty of purpose and as indicated is classified unconditionally indecent.

Genesis Letters Winter 1984

This is an identical publication to Penthouse Letters, No. 4 and for the same reasons is classified indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

New Direction, Volume 13, No. 2

A 67-page glossy magazine apparently printed and published in the United Kingdom is principally a presentation of photographs of nude females. The great majority of these photographs are of... models posed in such a way as to prominently display the genitalia and some of those photographs indicate models who appear to be masturbating.

There are a large number of photographic advertisements offering sex for sale and the like and such written material as it does contain is of a coarse nature dealing with sexual activities of a variety of kinds. There are many photographs of models engaged in lesbian sexual activity. The Tribunal finds that there is absolutely nothing to commend this magazine in a literary, artistic or social sense and it classifies it as unconditionally indecent.

_Velvet._ Volume 9, No. 5; _Velvet._ Volume 9, No. 9

Each of these magazines which again are of the glossy girly type production contain about a hundred pages including scenes with multiple models engaged in lesbian and heterosexual sexual activities involving oral sex and masturbation. The Tribunal classifies these 2 publications as unconditionally indecent.

_The Bawdy Beautiful_

This could best be described as a collection of coarse verse, some of it amusing, much of it crude and unwholesome. The great bulk of the collection is of verse with sexual connotations. There is a quite lengthy introduction by the compiler and at worst it can be said that it is an attempt to bring together much of the recorded and previously unrecorded coarse poetry of the English speaking world. The Tribunal is satisfied that the material is not harmful to said that it is an attempt to bring together much of the recorded and previously unrecorded coarse poetry of the English speaking world. The Tribunal is satisfied that the material is not harmful to the adult population but that it should receive a classification of indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years and finds accordingly.

_The Bedroom Saga of Ned and Elizabeth; Oral Love in Pictures_

Each of these rather cheaply produced publications contain a balance of black and white photographs and text. In neither publication can the text be described as having any literary merit. Although by and large neither book is as coarse or as vulgar as many of the publications which the Tribunal has to consider. That which in each case satisfies the Tribunal that the publications should be classified as unconditionally indecent is the almost entirely multiple model photographic sequences portraying various sexual activities between a male and a female. The Tribunal classifies them accordingly.

_Nicole in Flight; Back Street Sex; Diana’s Debut; On the Road By Fionia; Denise; Gimmicks; Slaught; The Autobiography of a Flea; She Asked For It; The Gong Kiss; Lucinda; The Butcher Knife Killings; Media Madness; Dirk and Honey; Jennifer, Book No. 2. Book No. 5 and Book No. 6; Christina’s Touch; and Diana’s Desires_

These publications are all paper-back novels of a kind which more and more frequently are being imported into New Zealand and in many cases are referred to the Tribunal because the importer disputes forfeiture. These particular publications have as their source a variety of foreign countries of origin but they show marked similarities. Many of the books are obviously cheaply produced on poor-quality paper and are poorly bound and in some cases have been badly proof read. The dominant effect of the publications is the presentation of sexual activity with a monotonous regularity. A great variety of sexual activities are related in explicit and gross detail and most of the publications are in fact portrayals of such sexual activity and one encounters barely concealed by what might be called the flimsiest of plots. The literary ability of the various writers differs from book to book but largely they have no literary merit whatsoever and they certainly in the finding of the Tribunal have no artistic or social merit. The Tribunal believes that there is a dishonesty of purpose in the publications and that they have a real potential for corruption and in the case of each of these particular publications under this section of our decision the Tribunal has no alternative but to classify them as unconditionally indecent and does so accordingly.

_Pen Up Frenzy; Bitter Wine; Games; The Fiesta Letters_

As all members of the Tribunal had not read and considered these particular publications a decision in respect of each of them is further deferred.

Dated at Wellington this 2nd day of September 1987.

Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

DECISION

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: _Advocate Men_, August 1986, Vol. 2, No. 11.

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: H. B. Dick, A. R. Hulme, R. E. Barrington, and A. J. Graham.

Dated at Wellington on 6 April 1987.

Appearances: P. J. Eggleton for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance on behalf of Importer, Waverly International Ltd.

DECISION

These magazines were imported by Waverly International Ltd. as sea freight through the port of Auckland. The magazines were seized by the Comptroller of Customs and the importer has disputed forfeiture.

Whilst accepting that the magazines do not contain anything blatantly offensive and are lacking in the multiplicity of models and crudely pornographic aspects of other publications which have been forfeited the Comptroller of Customs through Mr Eggleton submitted the publications for classification by the Tribunal.

The Tribunal finds:

1. That the magazines are largely of unclothed and partly unclothed young females and that they do not have the concentration on the genitalia area which is an aspect of some magazines which has given concern to the Tribunal.

2. That the models are not posed in a contrived and suggestive sexual way to the extent that many other magazines of their kind are.

The Tribunal classifies both magazines as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of August 1987.

Judge R. R. KEARNEY, Chairman.

DECISION

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: _Advocate Men_, August 1986, Vol. 2, No. 11.

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: H. B. Dick, A. R. Hulme, R. E. Barrington, and A. J. Graham.

Dated at Wellington on 3 December 1986.

DECISION

_Advocate Men_, Vol. 2, No. 11, was privately imported through the port of Auckland in 1986. The magazine was seized by the Comptroller of Customs and the private importer has disputed that seizure and forfeiture. Lawrence Publishing Co. NZ Ltd., the publisher of _Out_ magazine as the official representative and distributor for Liberation Publications Inc., the publishers of _Advocate Men_ made representations in writing to the Tribunal and were also represented by Mr Ireland, counsel for the importer. The Tribunal had also received and given consideration to a statement from Mr R. N. Tuffery, the original importer of _Advocate Men_, August 1986. In addition to the importers and publishers, evidence was called in support of the publication from Mr Warren Lindberg, the Director of the New Zealand Aids Foundation of Auckland. Finally, in respect of the interests of parties in relation to this magazine the Tribunal received written representations from Mr K. S. J. Matthews, whose copy of the August issue of _Advocate Men_ was likewise seized by the Comptroller of Customs.

The Comptroller of Customs, through Mr Eggleton, advised the Tribunal that his main area of concern with this publication related to the photographs contained which he described as being of male models posed in such a way as to give maximum emphasis to the male genitalia. The Comptroller was also concerned but to a lesser extent with the advertisement content of this magazine.

Mr Ireland in his submission to the Tribunal drew attention to the decision of the Court of Appeal in _Howley v. Lawrence Publishing Company Limited_ (6 NZAR) 193 and submitted that there was no evidence that these publications had a capacity “for some actual harm” to the public good.

In his lengthy well prepared and well presented brief of evidence Mr Lindberg expressed the New Zealand Aids Foundation’s concern that the people most at risk and in need of prevention education are homosexual men with a poor self image. Mr Lindberg informed the Tribunal that in his view these magazines provided attractive erotic alternatives to unsafe sex and he held the view that magazines of this type should be encouraged rather than restricted.

The full-bench of the High Court in a judgment delivered on 2 July 1987 Lawrence Publishing Co. (NZ) Ltd. v. The Comptroller of Customs (M No. 341A/85) allowed an appeal against a decision of the Tribunal in respect of the publication Gay Scene, Decision No. 3/85. The Tribunal had classified that publication unconditionally indecent largely because “it is directed towards criminal activity”. Such classifications were frequently made because the publications under consideration encouraged or seemed to encourage male homosexual acts which were, until recently, criminal offences in New Zealand.

The Tribunal, having given careful consideration to all of the submissions and evidence, is satisfied that this publication should be subject to an age restriction and accordingly finds it to be indecent bearing the certification mark of the Standards Association of New Zealand.

PLANTS IN NEW ZEALAND POISONOUS TO MAN

Jose Stewart

40 pp. 1981. $6.55 plus $2.20 p & p
This is a handy, colourful guide to the 50 or more plants in New Zealand known or suspected to be toxic to humans. The plants are listed in alphabetical order by their common names and each entry has a colour photograph identifying the poisonous part of the plant. The botanical name, a general description of the plant, the toxin, and the symptoms of poisoning are also given. Plants that are toxic if eaten, and touch irritants, are dealt with in separate sections.

KUMARA GROWING

B. P. Coleman

43 pp. 1978. $2.20 plus $1.21 p & p
The kumara has outstanding food value and, pound for pound, has a calorie content of about half as much again as the ordinary potato. In this book the author discusses climatic factors, propagation of plants, fertilisers, moisture requirements, harvesting, curing and storing, pests and diseases of the kumara.

COMMON WEEDS IN NEW ZEALAND

E. B. V. Parham and A. J. Healey

172 pp. 1985. $10.95 plus $2.92 p & p
Written at an elementary level for general readership, this book is a reliable photographic guide to the identification of 139 of the most common weeds found throughout New Zealand. It includes a useful section on noxious plant control, and lists weeds that are poisonous to humans and livestock.

GROWING TAMARILLOS

W. A. Fletcher

27 pp. 1979. $1.65 plus $1.21 p & p
The tamarillo, or tree tomato, is a native of Peru and is grown in many parts of the world. However, the fruit is grown on a commercial scale only in New Zealand, where certain localities are particularly suitable for its propagation. This small book is crammed with information on growing the fruit. General requirements for growing, varieties, soil preparation, pest and diseases, harvesting, grading, packing, and storage are all covered.

HOME FRUIT GROWING IN NEW ZEALAND

Dale Williams

Hardcover. $38.45 plus $5.50 p & p
Softcover. $30.75 plus $5.50 p & p
This comprehensive guide to fruit growing has been prepared especially for the New Zealand home gardener. It replaces The Home Orchard, a very popular Ministry of Agriculture bulletin. Completely revised, it contains detailed and practical information on establishing and caring for a fruit garden, and provides guidelines for harvesting and storing fruit. Regardless of the space available, be it an orchard or a balcony, this guide to home fruit growing will provide you with valuable information, instructions and advice.

P. J. Forsyth
43 pp. 1985. $8.70 plus $2.20 p & p
Colour illustrations and an informative text introduce rock types, minerals, and landforms found in New Zealand. The distribution of rocks and minerals are shown on colour-coded maps, and geological processes are explained with drawings and diagrams. The need for a simple book on New Zealand geology is met in this book which is suitable for children and adults.

TOWARDS A STRATEGY FOR NEW ZEALAND AGRICULTURE
Rowland Woods, Ken Graham and Peter Rankin
234 pp. 1984. $27.44 plus $5.50 p & p
For 100 years, agriculture has been the driving force of the New Zealand economy. It is tempting to assume that this will always be the case, but it is important to realise that the future of New Zealand agriculture is not certain. It is, in fact, affected by economic, political and cultural events and trends. This report addresses the agricultural problems facing New Zealand farmers and business people. It sets out guidelines for future planning, and offers advice for agricultural management.

PARLIAMENT AND THE PEOPLE
Beth Bowden
64 pp. 1984. $8.25 plus $2.20 p & p
This book was written primarily for visitors to Parliament, but will also be of interest to those who wish to learn about New Zealand’s constitution and its development. It looks at the history of Parliament, elections, how a Bill is transformed into law, the House of Representatives, the appointment of the Executive Council, and the constitutional role of the Governor-General. The author has set out:
- To describe New Zealand’s constitution.
- To show in a reasonably simple way how it works.
- To give an account of where it came from and how it developed.
- To define a number of terms that are used in connection with these matters.

ECONOMIC GEOLOGY OF NEW ZEALAND
G. J. Williams
490 pp. 1974. $28.05 plus $5.50 p & p
More than a century of geological and mining endeavour is chronicled in this major scientific publication, the fourth in a series of 7 volumes covering the economic geology and mineral industries of Australia and New Zealand. First published in 1965, and extensively revised and updated in 1974, this has become the recognised text and reference work on the subject. Illustrations fully complement the text, which is of value to oil and mineral explorers, geologists, and engineers.

THE GEOLOGY OF NEW ZEALAND
R. P. Suggate, G. R. Stevens, M. T. Te Punga. Editors
820 pp. 2v. 1978. $49.50 plus $5.50 p & p
The definitive work on New Zealand geology, this superbly produced 820-page 2-volume set has been written by some 88 specialists under the editorship of 3 of New Zealand’s most eminent geologists. The Geology of New Zealand is illustrated with over 370 photographs in colour and monochrome, and with more than 200 maps and line diagrams.

PEOPLE LIKE US
A Hass, A. Webber, P. Brown, Editors
120 pp. 1982. $10.95 plus $2.92 p & p
In his introduction to this compassionate and understanding account of the personal experiences of New Zealanders who have come from widely different cultural backgrounds, Sir Guy Powles stresses that we must learn to recognise, respect, accept, and enjoy the qualities of life that a variety of cultures bring to our society. People Like Us is essential reading for all who care about New Zealand multiracial society, and is an invaluable resource book for teachers, social workers, and the general public.

THE RESTLESS LAND: The Story of Tongariro National Park
DEPARTMENT OF LANDS AND SURVEY
112 pp. 1981. $8.25 plus $2.20 p & p
This book is a colourful and informative guide to Tongariro National Park. It describes the volcanic action that formed the existing landscape, the mythology of the area, plant and animal life and recreational opportunities. It contains comprehensive glossaries and a map enabling a greater understanding of the park.

LAND OF THE MIST: The Story of Urewera National Park
DEPARTMENT OF LANDS AND SURVEY
111 pp. 1983. $8.75 plus $2.20 p & p
Urewera National Park is the third largest national park in New Zealand. It is also the country’s largest remaining untouched native forest tract. As Katherine Mansfield wrote, “It is all so gigantic and tall—and even in the brightest light it is so shadowy. Land of the Mist will help visitors understand the spirit of this national park.

RESTORING WITH STYLE
Martin Hill
80 pp. 1985. $21.95 plus $5.50 p & p
This is a lively ‘style book’ of the New Zealand House. It shows the architectural influences that have gone into the New Zealand House and gives details of what materials should be used when restoring houses. The author presents approximately 40 New Zealand Houses illustrating external and internal design, specific and architectural features, floor plans, and drawings of mouldings and details. If you are a home renovator, or have an interest in architecture or building, this book will certainly be of interest to young.

THE BACH
Paul Thompson
120 pp. 1985. $27.45 plus $5.50 p & p
This is a light-hearted yet nostalgic look at a fast disappearing New Zealand institution—the bach. The bach’s origins and its rise and fall, from North Cape to Stewart Island are traced. Photographs of baches in all their variety are included to create the flavour and atmosphere of this unique way of getting away from it all.

THE NEW ZEALAND WARS

By James Cowan

This book was first published in 1922 and reprinted without amendments in 1935. It has been out of print for many years. This edition has a new and perceptive introduction by Michael King and in addition the original seven page index has been replaced by a substantial and comprehensive index. This 1983 edition is called a facsimile edition because it is being reproduced from the original text. However, the introduction, index and illustrations include alterations and improvements on the original.

ELECTRICITY FOR MOTOR MECHANICS

N.Z. TECHNICAL CORRESPONDENCE INSTITUTE

256 p. 1986 reprint. Illustrated. $16.50 plus $2.92 p & p

Now in paper-back, this popular publication provides a basis for the study of automotive electricity for apprentice motor mechanics. Car owners, too, and persons interested in the general maintenance of motor engines will find the book a reliable guide to the detection and remedy of minor electrical faults.

VISUAL WAYS

By Geoff Moss

46p. 1982. Illustrated. $6.35 plus $2.20 p & p

Too often people find themselves having to speak in public, to train new employees, to teach various skills, or to give advice on arranging displays and exhibits without having had any relevant basic training. If you are such a person, this book was written to help in getting a message across more effectively by using visual aids.
