

THE HISTORY OF POLICING IN NEW ZEALAND*Vol 1, Policing the Colonial Frontier, Parts 1 and 2Richard Hill*

520 pp. Approximately per book. 1986.

$77.00 plus $9.57 p &amp; p

This is the first of a three volume set which traces the history of New Zealand Police from first European contact through to the present day.

The central theme of volume 1 is the growth and operation of the Police from 1767 to 1867. Social influences and the philosophy surrounding the need for a police force are examined.

The book is both a well researched, balanced historical document and a fascinating look at an important part of New Zealand history.

THE HOME FRONT VOL. 1 AND VOL. 2Nancy Taylor*

800 pp. 1986.

$109.45 (set) plus $9.57 p &amp; p

This is the final volume of the Official History of New Zealand in the Second World War, 1939-45. It focuses on New Zealand society in these years, describing the attitudes and activities of those who remained. The reactions to international political events, attitudes of political parties, the war efforts of New Zealand, and the political movement away from Britain towards Australia and the United States are described. It is an historical and sociological portrayal of how New Zealanders reacted, collectively and individually, to the war situation.
