

Attention Subscribers to

The New Zealand Gazette

In the first week of November your familiar copy of the New Zealand Gazette, the official "newspaper" of the Government of New Zealand, will wear a different face.

The information will be the same: a regular, authoritative, record of the official proceedings of the Executive, government departments and Parliament.

But its layout, organisation and general accessibility will be improved. The Gazettes you receive will also have a distinctive band of colour to enable you to locate, instantly, the particular kind of information you want.
