Decision No. 6/87

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint by NOEL VICKERS FRYKBERG of Pauanui Beach, retired:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.
Member: Robert Boyd-Bell.
Co-opted Members: Hiwi Tauroa, Brian W. Stephenson.

Dated the 26th day of March 1987.

Ruling

Mr Fykberg lodged a complaint with the corporation letter dated 5 June 1986 alleging bias during the reporting of news concerning the Republic of South Africa and he alleged:

“(1) That the news as shown on TV cannot be called objective as these reports are all culled from overseas reports’ footage and no effort is made to explain why there is a police presence at funerals organised by the militant wings of the ANC and UIF.

(2) Radio and TV give constant reports received from the political wings of the ANC and UIF and nothing in rebuttal by the South African Government Ministry of Information, or from informed South Africans, both black and white who do not support terrorism.

(3) No coverage of news events from newsmen employed by South African press, radio and TV.

(4) A barrage of ‘phone calls from newsmen representing the overseas media.

(5) Lack of objective reporting and to cite I such case, in 1985 5 million black South Africans gathered in the Transvaal and had as the guest of honour, the President of South Africa. Peace and co-operation were the theme; no mention was made of this in New Zealand by radio, no coverage by TV of an event that represented approximately 20 percent of South Africa’s total population.

(6) Lack of coverage of the rugby series just played in the republic, except to highlight controversial issues.”

He submitted that the corporation was obliged to see that when controversial issues were presented, some effort should be made to present “the other point of view”.

The corporation answered these complaints at length when it wrote on 6 August 1986 declining to uphold the complaints.

Mr Fykberg was dissatisfied with the answers and referred the complaint to the Broadcasting Tribunal.

He then introduced more detailed allegations and responses which had been set out in a letter to the tribunal dated 9 September 1986.

The corporation sent a detailed reply to the complaint to the tribunal and in particular satisfied the tribunal that some of the allegations made could not be sustained.

Notice Declaring Lands to be Infected Areas Under Potato Cyst Nematode Regulations 1974 (No. 4009: Ag. 12/8/82)
The tribunal faced a particular difficulty in this matter in that the complainant's allegations were so generalised that it would have been impossible for the tribunal to have considered the complaint carefully without watching and listening to many hours of broadcast material over a period of some years, if the material still existed. The original complaint, which is what the complainant is entitled to refer to in the tribunal, does not refer to any specific programme and in the complaint to the tribunal the dates and times of broadcast are marked "not applicable".

The tribunal cannot possibly consider complaints that are not based on specific broadcasts to which reference can be made. The tribunal therefore has no option but to rule that this complaint will not be determined by the tribunal.

The tribunal can only observe that if the complainant is still concerned about the performance of the corporation he should lodge complaints about specific coverage (as others have done) and then set out his complaints about it.

The tribunal has decided to request the BCNZ to retain copies of coverage of South Africa in news and current affairs programmes for a period of not less than 6 months from the date of broadcast, and to retain all material in respect of any programme about which it receives a formal complaint until 2 months after the complaint is dealt with by the corporation. If a complaint is referred to the tribunal the material should be retained until the decision of the tribunal on the complaint.

The tribunal considers the question of retention of copies of television news and current affairs programmes ought to be reviewed by the Rules Committee.

Co-opted Members

The tribunal co-opted Messrs Tauroa and Stephenson. They took part in the deliberations of the tribunal but the decision, in accordance with the Act, is that of the permanent members.

Signed for the tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Mr Munn argued that the cost of the promotional campaign must be covered by income generated by the BCNZ's commercial activities or licence fees. As such this cost must be viewed as a debit and classified under the terms of the Act as "payment made in money or otherwise".

Ruling

It is not necessary for a product or service to be advertised for there to be an advertisement under the Act. The role of corporate advertising is set out in "Television and Corporate Advertising" published by TVNZ Sales and Marketing in September 1983.

In this case the tribunal finds that it has no jurisdiction to deal with the complaint because the broadcast material in question is not an advertisement. No payment is made to the BCNZ since the BCNZ is itself the "advertiser".

The warrant holder is the BCNZ and the BCNZ is the proprietor of the services being "advertised" or promoted and therefore there is no payment possible in money or otherwise.

Any other finding would make all manner of promotional programme material and announcements advertisements.

Observations

We make no comment on the material now complained about because the tribunal's ruling means that it has not embarked on consideration of the complaint itself.

The tribunal does nevertheless observe that, apart from promoting their own broadcast programmes, warrant holders should be cautious about broadcasting material in the nature of corporate advertising or a commercial for their other business activities at a time when, by warrant condition and by statute, television is to be kept advertisement free.

It may be appropriate for the Rules Committee to consider a rule should any abuse of the position of a warrant holder become evident. We do not suggest any such abuse has occurred.

The ruling of the tribunal is that there is no valid complaint it has jurisdiction to consider since the programme complained of was not an advertisement as defined by the Broadcasting Act.

Signed for the tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Reference to the Tribunal:

In his submission to the Tribunal dated 24 December the Secretary of the Corporation, Mr I. H. McLean, described the item as "a mini-documentary on the Israeli Air Force" and submitted that a question of objectivity or impartiality did not arise.

He said the complainant had rather selectively joined a headline statement to the substantive introduction and that TVNZ did not gratuitously label the Israeli Air Force as "the great protector". Mr McLean said the item was self-contained and any recalling of earlier events in the Middle East was not relevant.

Mr McLean said the Corporation was unable to give a categorical response as to how many bombings there has been, that there was discussion over the status of attacks within the seven-mile security zone on the Israeli-Lebanon border, and that world media had difficulty obtaining comment from the Lebanese side as not only journalists but diplomats also had withdrawn from the area.

Ms Frey also drew attention to the fact that the programme had been broadcast twice by TVNZ in April and August of 1986 and had not been balanced by any other programme in that period.

Ms Frey also drew attention to the fact that the programme had been broadcast twice by TVNZ in April and August of 1986 and had not been balanced by any other programme in that period.
Ms Frey submitted that, in monitoring English language broadcasts of Radio Israel, BBC and Voice of America daily since 1982, not once had members of the Palestine Human Rights Campaign heard the Israeli Air Force described as "the great protector". She also stated that the documentary was factually wrong in stating that all Israeli men and women had to serve in the military.

The Programme Detail:

The Tribunal should record that it was eventually able to locate an off-air video recording of the Eyewitness News programme in question from an independent source. The Tribunal has viewed both versions of the item as broadcast by TVNZ. There are some differences in both content and presentation.

In its "Foreign Correspondent" broadcast on 5 April the 45 second introduction took some pains to establish the source and subject of the report, explained that the Israeli Air Force was normally off-limits to the media for security reasons, and noted that a number of restrictions imposed on the CBS team, and that some footage had been confiscated by Israel's military censors.

The introductory shot of programme host Neil Billington was supported by a chroma-key logo simply stating "Israel's Air Force".

The Eyewitness News programme of 18 August opened with a 10 second tease in which one of the programme hosts, Angela D'Audney, said:

"Good evening... Tonight we fly with the men of the great protector. The Israeli Air Force attacks Lebanon for the first time in almost a year and we join them during the report, nor did any of the contributors, including those..."

Some 13 minutes later at the end of the first segment of the programme, Ms D'Audney announced:

"Still to come, an airforce that's known as the great protector. In their first attack on Palestinian positions in Lebanon for almost a year, the Israeli Air Force strikes back."

The programme then cut to a full-frame graphic depicting military aircraft and captioned "the Great Protector". Following the commercial break, the programme's other host Lindsay Perigo presented a 45 second introduction which initially reported that day's decision by the Israeli cabinet to cut the Government budget by more than 400 million dollars, although it could not access the proposed cuts to the government budget. The introduction said any such cuts were unlikely to effect the front-line forces including the "elite Israeli Air Force" and continued:

"Israelis consider the IAF to be their great protector and it's pilots the cream of the crop. In this special report CBS 60 Minutes' reporter Morley Safer looks at the men Israel considers its best stuff. CBS was granted access to Israel's Air Force only on condition that air bases and key personnel were not named or identified."

The report was then broadcast and ran for a duration of 13 minutes and 9 seconds. It was substantially the same report as broadcast in the "Foreign Correspondent" on 5 April except for the final minute which comprised a montage of voice-over comments from Israelis describing the airforce and its pilots as:

"...best of the best... cream of the crop... of the elite Israeli Air Force and on the merit and news value of a person's view..."

and concluded:

"...if we want to live, we have to have a very good airforce."

DECISION

The Tribunal received no formal complaint relating to the original broadcast of the CBS report in Foreign Correspondent on 5 April. The complaint centred on the re-broadcast of the item in Eyewitness News in August and the manner in which it was presented.

Of the factual claims presented in Eyewitness News, the Corporation has conceded its inability to state categorically whether this was the first occasion on which the Israeli Air Force had bombed Lebanon in almost a year.

It is evident from the programme that Eyewitness News did not "join the mission" as stated in the programme opening.

As to the title "the great protector", no evidence has been produced that the title is in fact in general usage. Mr Safer did not use it during the report, nor did any of the contributors, including those edited into the final descriptive montage. Ms Frey asserts it has never been heard in years of monitoring reports of the Middle East conflict from numerous sources and the CBS produced no evidence on the matter. It was not referred to in the original "Foreign Correspondent" broadcast. The term would not appear to be widely recognised by the general public in New Zealand as referring to Israeli Air Force and could therefore require attribution or explanation.

Eyewitness News appeared to wander stylistically between applying the term itself directly and attributing it to Israeli usage. The Tribunal notes the contrast between the careful explanation and introduction of the item as broadcast in Foreign Correspondent and that which applied to its re-broadcast in Eyewitness News, particularly as both programmes are produced by TVNZ Current Affairs.

While there are differences in pressure on weekly and daily programmes, several of the statements made in the opening to Eyewitness News, were unsubstantiated and not supported by the report itself. There was no indication given of their source.

The Tribunal finds that the introduction failed to comply with the standards required by section 24 (1) (d) for accurate and impartial gathering and presentation of news.

The complaint in these respects is upheld.

On the wider question of objectivity, impartiality and balance of the report itself, news, current affairs and documentary programmes must comply with particular provisions of the Broadcasting Act and the Programme Rules.

Section 24 (1) of the Broadcasting Act requires the Corporation to have particular regard to (inter alia):

(d) The accurate and impartial gathering and presentation of news, to be guided by recognised standards of objective journalism;

(e) The principle that when controversial issues of public importance are discussed, reasonable efforts are made to present significant points of view either in the same programme or in other programmes within the period of current interest.

Programme Rule 1.1 (g) requires broadcasters:

"To show balance, impartiality and fairness in dealing with political matters, current affairs, and all questions of a controversial nature."

Programme Rule 5 requires a television news and current affairs service to take account of the following points (inter alia):

(5.1 (a) Viewers should always be able to distinguish clearly and easily between factual reporting on the one hand, and comment, opinion and analysis on the other. This is particularly important where a change of approach, say from news to comment, occurs during the course of a programme;

(b) News must be presented accurately, objectively and impartially;

(c) The standards of integrity and reliability of news sources should be kept under constant review;

(g) No set formula can be advanced for the allocation of time to interested parties on controversial public issues. Services should aim to present all significant sides in as fair a way as possible, and this can be done only by judging every case on its merits. That a particular person represents a majority or a minority faction should not have an over-riding effect on any allocation of air-time. These decisions should be based on such considerations as the integrity of the person concerned, on previous allocations of air-time, and on the merit and news value of a person's view..."

The Tribunal does not accept the BCNZ's submission that the item was "in the nature of a mini-documentary on the Israeli Air Force" therefore "a question of objectivity or impartiality does not arise". The question arises under obligations imposed by both the Broadcasting Act and the Programme Rules. These requirements apply as much to documentaries purchased from overseas as to programmes made in New Zealand.

The report had been prepared under stringent conditions laid down by Israeli military authorities who had confiscated some footage. It could well be regarded by some as an exercise in public relations, which required further balance or context to meet recognised standards of objective journalism.

There was no indication from the Corporation that TVNZ had broadcast anything other than what could be regarded as presenting a contrary view to the CBS Morley Safer report broadcast twice in a period of five months.

The Tribunal considers that the Corporation has failed to comply with section 24 (1) (e) of the Broadcasting Act and the principle that reasonable efforts be made to present significant points of view.

The Complaint in that respect is upheld.

The Tribunal recorded as long ago as 1979 (Decision 6/79) that:

"... we think it is important in relation to issues such as Northern Ireland, the Arab/Israeli conflict and similar issues which arouse controversy in this country as well as overseas to keep some record of the treatment given and to review it from time to time."
And further:

“We are concerned that there is ... no regular procedure for ensuring objectivity and impartiality in the treatment of overseas controversial issues. It should be possible to detect undesirable trends in coverage and to take positive steps to redress balances when necessary.”

The Tribunal said then in relation to coverage of Northern Ireland:

“We are satisfied that there is no censorship or particular emphasis in television programming intended to show a distorted view of the Irish situation. At the same time we are concerned that proper steps be taken by television to monitor its own news and current affairs activities and to ensure that such criticism be made in the future, it will be possible to determine whether or not the coverage has been fair and balanced because television editors have been taking the necessary steps to see that it is.”

Much time has elapsed since 1979, but the BCNZ submissions relating to the current complaint reveal no evidence that the Editor of Eyewitness News in August was aware that a considerable portion of the programme had been previously broadcast in April by TVNZ Current Affairs, nor whether “reasonable efforts” had been made to represent significant points of view within the period of current interest.

The Tribunal is in no position to set itself up as an authority on the reporting of conflict in the Middle East but neither, it appears, is the Corporation. In the circumstances it has a legislative obligation to act as more than a passive client of overseas news agencies.

We refer the BCNZ to the Tribunal’s comments in Decision 6/79. The Corporation should seek assurance from its responsible news and current affairs offices that these matters will be incorporated in their procedures. Failure to do so is likely to cause recurrent unsatisfactory treatment of major issues.

We also refer to the Rules Committee the need for adequate recordings of news and current affairs programmes to be held for a reasonable period.

Rule 8.2 requires only the keeping of sound recordings for a period of 14 days, except on some occasions when a videotape may allow a programme to be more properly evaluated.

The rule appears to have remained unchanged despite the widespread use and availability of relatively low cost ½ inch video formats.

In this case, the Tribunal should have received from the Corporation a recording of the programme complained of. The complaint appears to have been lodged promptly and that should have led to the retention of the programme recording. Fortunately we were able to obtain one elsewhere.

The Tribunal considers that the Rules Committee should review Rule 8.2 and set out a revised rule and guidelines.

Co-Opted Members:
The Tribunal co-opted Messrs Brian E. Stephenson and Hiwi Tauroa as persons whose qualifications and experience were likely to be of assistance in dealing with this complaint. They took part in the deliberations of the Tribunal but the decision, in accordance with the Act, is that of the permanent members.

Signed for the Tribunal.

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

GENERAL PUBLICATIONS

THE ASTRONOMICAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE MAORI

Elsdon Best

80 pp. 1986 reprint $5.95 plus $1.50 p & p

This is one of a series of monographs prepared by Elsdon Best, who spent many years in close contact with the Maoris of the Urewera, and has prepared studies based on wide knowledge and insight. This particular monograph studies the Maori systems of astrogency, astrology and natural astrology, plus other natural phenomena. It has been reprinted without any changes because, though first published in 1922, it still provides the student and general reader with good source material.

MAORI DIVISION OF TIME

Elsdon Best

52 pp. 1986 reprint $5.95 plus $1.50 p & p

This monograph, reprinted without revision, provides a record of the Maori division of time as well as references to other Polynesian systems. The Maori year, the months of the Maori year, and the nights of the moon are examined. The names of seasons, terms employed to denote time and miscellaneous notes are also included, making this a fascinating and comprehensive source document.

FISHING METHODS AND DEVICES OF THE MAORI

Elsdon Best

264 pp. 1986 reprint $29.95 plus $3.75 p & p

This book is one of a series of bulletins prepared by Elsdon Best and reprinted without revision. This bulletin remains the only comprehensive account of most aspects of Maori fishing. The emphasis is upon inland and estuarine techniques, as these are the techniques best able to observe most closely. The detailed fishing methods are accompanied by descriptions of the artifacts used, together with associated chants, magic formulae, special observances, and fishing lore. This comprehensive book provides a wealth of information for the student and general reader.

THE MAORI SCHOOL OF LEARNING

Elsdon Best

31 pp 1986 reprint $5.95 plus $1.50 p & p

This monograph, reprinted without revision, studies the objects, methods, and ceremonial side of the Whare Wanaga, or Maori school of learning. It is rich in its store of material, and is indispensable for today's students.
SPRITUAL AND MENTAL CONCEPTS OF THE MAORI
Elson Best
57 pp 1986 reprint $5.95 plus $1.50 p & p
This monograph, reprinted without revision, analyses the different concepts held by the Maori about the spirit and the mind. The material is very valuable and the concepts discussed in this particular monograph provide a deep insight into the social customs and beliefs of the Maori people.

EADRESSING: A PROFESSIONAL APPROACH
David Bendell
352 pp 1986 $39.95 plus $3.75 p & p
This text book has been especially prepared for New Zealand hairdressing apprentices. The three major sections relate to first qualifying, second qualifying, and advanced Trade Certificate.

THE HISTORY OF POLICING IN NEW ZEALAND
Vol 1. Policing the Colonial Frontier, Parts 1 and 2
Richard Hill
520 pp. Approximately per book. 1986. 70.00 plus $6.50 p & p
This is the first of a three volume set which traces the history of New Zealand Police from first European contact through to the present day.

THE HOME FRONT VOL. 1 AND VOL. 2
Nancy Taylor
800 pp. 1986. $99.50 (set) plus $6.50 p & p
This is the final volume of the Official History of New Zealand in the Second World War, 1939–45. It focuses on New Zealand society in these years, describing the attitudes and activities of those who remained. The reactions to international political events, attitudes of political parties, the war efforts of New Zealand, and the political movement away from Britain towards Australia and the United States are described. It is an historical and sociological portrayal of how New Zealanders reacted, collectively and individually, to the war situation.

JOINERY 4 STAIRS
N.Z. TECHNICAL CORRESPONDENCE INSTITUTE
112 pp. 1986. $27.50 plus $3.75 p & p
This is the latest in a series of text books designed to assist in the training of apprentices. It has been prepared by the New Zealand Technical Correspondence Institute in conjunction with the Joinery Industry Training Board.

A DICTIONARY OF THE MAORI LANGUAGE
H. W. Williams
In 1844, the Mission Press at Paihia issued the first edition of a Dictionary of the New Zealand Language, compiled by William Williams, then Archdeacon of Waapu. Since that historic event, the Dictionary has been revised several times, at first by members of the Williams family. Now the Williams Dictionary is into its seventh edition, fully updated and augmented by a subcommittee of the Advisory Committee on the Teaching of the Maori Language.

MATERNITY IN DISPUTE NEW ZEALAND 1920–1939
Phillipa Mein-Smith
120 pp. 1986. $14.95 plus $2.00 p & p
This book looks at birth in New Zealand throughout the twenties and thirties.

SEVEN MAORI ARTISTS
Darcy Nicholas and Keri Kaa
88 pp. 1986. $18.95 plus $2.00 p & p
Using Maori protocol as a basic structure, Seven Maori Artists presents interviews with, and the work of, seven contemporary Maori artists. It is in essence a marae, where the reader is invited to sit down and meet the artists, who speak about their work and the influences they have experienced.

WOMEN IN WARTIME
Compiled by Lauris Edmund
200 pp. 1986. $29.95 plus $3.75 p & p
This book brings together New Zealand women's written and oral reminiscences of their lives during World Wars I and II. Extracts from diaries and letters are also included. The reminiscences contain both humour and hardship, making this the sort of book impossible to put down once begun.

WHAT GRASS IS THAT?
N. C. Lambrecht
This well-known book has been revised to include a new identification key and four more cereals. It covers a selection of the more common and economically important species, and will be helpful and informative to all readers, irrespective of their botanical knowledge.

EDIBLE TREE NUTS IN NEW ZEALAND
P. B. Bull, D. Jackson and T. Bedford
72 pp. 1985. $13.95 plus $2.00 p & p
Interested in growing nuts or improving the yield of your trees? Macadamias, hazelnuts, pistachios and other edible nuts can all be grown in New Zealand. Edible Tree Nuts tells you all there is to know about climatic requirements, propagation, pests and diseases, yields, harvesting and many other aspects of nut growing. This valuable and practical guide will help you whether you are a commercial grower, a potential commercial grower, or a home gardener.

HOW TO REPAIR ELECTRICAL FUSES AND FLEXIBLE CORDS SAFELY
Electrical Registration Board and Ministry of Energy
29 pp. 1982. $1.95 plus 80c p & p
This book is an essential safety item for every household. It contains detailed diagrams and step-by-step instructions showing the correct way to fix a blown fuse and to connect flexible cord to plugs. Extension sockets and appliance connectors.
The Maori used many of their games to develop quickness of eye, rhythm, anticipation, and agility. The actions described in this handbook not only play an important part in the school's physical education programme but also complement classroom work in music, drama, art, craft, language, and social studies. The clearly set out instructions and accompanying diagrams and photographs make these games easy to teach and fun to perform.

WAYS AND MEANINGS
A Guide to Interviewing Pacific Islanders
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
$1.00 plus 65c p & p
This booklet is intended as a guide for those whose work involves interviewing, for various purposes, recent Pacific Island migrants to New Zealand.

WHO MAKES SOCIAL POLICY?
N.Z. PLANNING COUNCIL
$5.25 plus $1.50 p & p
This report is largely descriptive and interpretive. It reaches conclusions, but stops short of making recommendations for improvement. It is believed that its analysis and conclusions will be useful to many people concerned with social policy, inside and outside the Government system.

THE BOAT OWNER'S GUIDE TO CORROSION
by L. H. Bolton
DEPARTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH
$4.25 plus 80c p & p
Much has been written about marine corrosion and its mitigation and yet the same problems and many old misconceptions still seem to persist. This booklet aims to assist the boat owner to identify the basic types of metallic corrosion, to understand their causes and the procedures that should be followed to avoid corrosion situations from developing in the first instance.

THE PATH TO REFORM
Edited by C. Burns
THE PATH TO REFORM
$15.75 plus $2.00 p & p
The Path to Reform, derived from the 1981 Convention of the New Zealand Institute of Public Administration is about the path to administrative reform in the State Services in New Zealand. It continues the exploration of the States Services begun in "State Servants and the Public in the 1980's" and continued in the "Accountability of Executive." Like its predecessors, "The Path to Reform" reads like a Who's Who of New Zealand public administrators.

MANPOWER PLANNING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
STATE SERVICES COMMISSION
51 p. 1981. Discussion Paper No. 1. $3.95 plus 80c p & p

‘Manpower planning’ is a term which has a wide and rather ill-defined meaning. This report, addressed to the central question: “What is manpower planning?”, opens with the philosophy of manpower planning, what it is, its aims and objectives. This is followed by a discussion of what is involved in forecasting the supply and demand for people and skills in the public service. The essentials of departmental manpower is then discussed followed by a chapter devoted to the practice of career development and concluding with a statement on the future development of manpower planning in the public service.
