1. In this scheme, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Amenity horticulture” means the use of flowering and foliage plants, trees, shrubs and turf areas for the betterment of the environment in conjunction with natural and artificial features.

“Amenity plants” is to be interpreted in its widest sense, and includes seeds, trees, shrubs, and any flowering or non-flowering plant grown outdoors or under cover for decorative (as opposed to commercial) purposes.

“Certificate” means the National Certificate in Horticulture (Amenity Horticulture) granted by the Institute.

“Diploma” means the National Diploma in Horticulture (Amenity Horticulture) granted by the Institute.

“Diploma with Honours” means the National Diploma in Horticulture with Honours (Amenity Horticulture) granted by the Institute.

“Examining board” means the Examining Board of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture Incorporated.

“Identification” in relation to each of plants, weeds, insects, diseases and other pests, which occur in New Zealand, means the assigning thereto of its scientific name and a commonly used name.

“Institute” means the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture Incorporated.

“Pest” means any mammal, bird, arthropod, mollusc, nematode or other worm, fungus, bacterium, virus or mycoplasma injurious to horticultural plants.

“Planthouse” means any glasshouse, greenhouse, shade house or similar structure in which plants are grown.

“Practical experience” means horticultural employment approved by the Examining Board.

“Weed” means a plant growing where it is not wanted.
