Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: R. E. Barrington, A. J. Graham and S. C. Middleton.

Hearing at Wellington on the 13th day of October 1987.

Appearances: Mr M. J. Wotherspoon for Comptroller of Customs. Mr Highley, importer, trading as Exchange Traders.

Decision

These publications were commercially imported in March 1988 through the port of Dunedin. The Collector having seized these issues the importer disputed forfeiture and the publications have been referred to the Tribunal prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Gent, Best of Gent and Super Stars

Most of these publications, which present sequences of photographs of naked and partially-clad female models, contain instances of the models in sexual activity of a degree of intimacy which causes the Tribunal concern. In respect of the Gent publication of November 1985 that presentation is of such a nature as to clearly be injurious to the public good and the Tribunal classifies that particular edition as unconditionally indecent. The remaining editions, although borderline, are of such a nature that the Tribunal is satisfied that an age restriction is appropriate. Accordingly, in respect of the remaining editions of these publications the Tribunal classifies each as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

All remaining publications as per the schedule above

All of these magazines predominantly feature single female models with very little, if any, text. The larger female breast is the major feature of all of these publications and the Tribunal is satisfied that they contain material which is likely to be injurious to younger readers. Each of these publications is accordingly classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of November 1988.
