

different circumstances that exist today while retaining the original intention of Mr Watt as much as possible. The main changes are:

1. Approval of an executive committee of the trustees to manage the home. The present set up of management by all twenty (20) trustees being unwieldy.

2. Enlarging the classes of children able to be helped by the home.

3. Modernising some of the rules which relate to the upbringing of the children in the home.

4. Enlarging the powers of the trustees to provide for powers to invest surplus moneys, to borrow and mortgage, and to otherwise spend surplus income.

5. To change the name of the home to the Margaret Watt Childrens' Home.

The full details of the application to the Court, the scheme, and the report of the Attorney-General on the scheme can be inspected by the public free of charge at the office of the High Court, Courthouse, Wanganui or at the offices of Messrs

Treadwell Gordon & Co., Solicitors, Suite 8, Wicksteed Terrace, Wanganui (the solicitors to the trustees).

It is proposed that the date of hearing of the application in the High Court will be on Friday, the 3rd day of March 1989.

Any person who desires to oppose the scheme is required to give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court, Wanganui, the trustees and the Attorney-General not less than seven (7) clear days before the proposed date of hearing set out above. The addresses for service of the Registrar, trustees and Attorney-General are as follows:

Registrar: Court House, Market Place, Wanganui.

Trustees: Care of Messrs Treadwell Gordon & Co., P.O. Box 4216, Wanganui.

Attorney-General: Care of Crown Law Office, P.O. Box 5012, Wellington.
