Broadcasting Standards Authority

Broadcasting Act 1989

Decisions No. 1/90 and No. 2/90

Pursuant to section 15 (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1989, notice is hereby given that the Broadcasting Standards Authority, at its meeting in Wellington on 18/19 January, made decisions on two complaints concerning programmes broadcast on television.

In Decision No. 1/90, the Authority declined to uphold a complaint by C. R. Turner that a rugby league advertisement by Lion Red Limited breached rules on "liquor advertising". The Authority held that the advertisement was "sponsorship advertising" and, as such, not in breach of the "liquor advertising" rules.

In Decision No. 2/90, the Authority declined to uphold a complaint by Patricia Bartlett, for the Society for Promotion of Community Standards, that in broadcasting The Nightworkers documentary on TV1 in August 1989, Television New Zealand Limited had failed in its obligation under section 4 (1) (a) of the Act to maintain standards consistent with the observance of good taste and decency. After finding that the programme was a balanced and informative documentary, screened at an appropriate time and with appropriate censorship classification, the Authority agreed with TVNZ Limited that, within its context, the documentary was not inconsistent with the broadcaster's responsibility under section 4 (1) (a) to maintain, in its programmes and their presentation, standards consistent with the observance of good taste and decency.

Copies of both decisions, which include in each case the Authority's reasons for its decision, may be obtained by purchase from the Authority, P.O. Box 9213, Wellington.

Decisions of the Authority may be purchased at the price of $5.00 each or by annual subscription of $100.00.

Dated at Wellington this 23rd day of January 1990.
