Revocation of Notice Imposing Anti-Dumping Duty and Countervailing Duty in Respect of Certain Catamarans Imported From Australia

In accordance with section 19 (1) and section 19 (3) (a) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, and pursuant to section 186L (4) of Part VA of the Customs Act 1966 (as inserted by section 2 (1) of the Customs Amendment Act (No. 3) 1987, the Minister of Commerce gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title—(1) This notice may be cited as the Revocation of Notice Imposing Anti-Dumping Duty and Countervailing Duty in Respect of Certain Catamarans From Australia.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the day after the date on which it is published in the Gazette.

2. Revocation of notice imposing duty—The notice given by the Minister of Customs entitled "Final Determination Pursuant to section 186κ of the Customs Act 1966" dated 2 March 1988 and published in the Gazette of 4 March 1988 ("the principal notice") is hereby revoked and the duties imposed by the principal notice shall cease to be payable.

3. Reason for revocation—The reason for the revocation of the principal notice is:

(a) In relation to the imposition of anti-dumping duty, that section 16 of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Amendment Act 1990, with effect from the 1st day of July 1990, effectively terminated any action in relation to the continuation, completion, determination, and enforcement of any investigation into any alleged dumping initiated under section 186H of the Customs Act 1966 (as inserted by section 2 (1) of the Customs Amendment Act (No. 3) 1987) in respect of goods of Australian origin; and

(b) In relation to the imposition of countervailing duty, that a review of the continued need for the imposition of the duty was carried out and it was found that there is now no New Zealand industry in relation to the catamarans described in the principal notice, thus the importation into New Zealand from Australia of the catamarans described in the principal notice no longer causes or is likely to cause material injury to an industry in New Zealand.

Dated at Wellington this 27th day of August 1990.

D. BUTCHER, Minister of Commerce.
