Broadcasting Standards Authority—Decision No. 3/90

Pursuant to section 15 (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1989, notice is hereby given that the Broadcasting Standards Authority has made a decision on a complaint concerning an advertisement broadcast by Television New Zealand Ltd.

In Decision No. 3/90, the Authority upheld a complaint by Dr Jane Ritchie concerning an advertisement for Bluebird Lite potato chips. It was held that the advertisements infringed the prohibition, contained in the advertising standards laid down in the Codes of Broadcasting Practice for Television, on the portrayal of women in a manner which uses sexual appeal simply to draw attention to an unrelated product. While declining to make an order under s. 13 (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1989, for the reason that none was appropriate to the breach that had occurred, the Authority's view was that the appropriate result of its decision would be for the advertisement not to be broadcast in future.

Copies of the Decision may be obtained by purchase from the Broadcasting Standards Authority, P.O. Box 9213, Wellington.

Decisions may be purchased at the price of $5.00 each or by annual subscription of $100.00.

Dated at Wellington this 8th day of March 1990.

G. POWELL, Executive Officer.
