Berryfruit Levy Act 1967

Fixing Rates of the Berryfruit Levy (Notice No. 5119; Ag. 4/54/8)

1. Pursuant to section 4 of the Berryfruit Levy Act 1967, having regard to the recommendations of the New Zealand Berryfruit Growers Federation (Inc), I hereby fix the rates of annual levy to be paid by berryfruit growers in respect of their gardens, to the Federation.

Area of Garden	Amount of Levy ($) (including GST)
Less than 250 square metres or 2,000 strawberry plants, whichever is smaller	Nil
250 square metres or 2,000 strawberry plants, whichever is smallest, to 8,000 square metres	191.25
Over 8,000 square metres	343.13

These rates of annual levy come into effect 14 days after the date of notification in the Gazette.

2. Pursuant to section 7 of the Berryfruit Levy Act 1967, having regard to the recommendations of the New Zealand Berryfruit Growers Federation (Inc), I hereby fix:

(a) a special levy equal to 2.25 cents per kilogram (including GST) of blackcurrants sold for export or processing purposes. This levy is to be paid by blackcurrant growers and is to be used for the purposes of promotion, research, and market development.

The manner of payment and collection of such levy shall be by deduction by exporters, processors, co-operatives, or dealers from the payments at the first point of sale of the blackcurrants being levied, and forwarded to:

The New Zealand Horticulture Export Authority, P.O. Box 1417, Wellington;

(b) a special levy equal to 22.5 cents per kilogram (including GST) on all blueberries sold for fresh export purposes and 4.5 cents per kilogram (including GST) on all blueberries sold for frozen export purposes. This levy is to be used for the administration, research and promotion of the blueberry industry. Of these two levies, 16.875 cents of the fresh export levy and 3.375 cents of the frozen export levy is to be used by the Blueberry Export Council, and 5.625 cents of the fresh export levy and 1.125 cents of the frozen export levy is to be used by the New Zealand Blueberry Growers Association. (All levies are GST inclusive.)

The manner of payment and collection of the blueberry levies is to be by the exporter and forwarded to:

The New Zealand Horticultural Export Authority, P.O. Box 1417, Wellington.

Dated at Wellington this 10th day of October 1991.

DENIS MARSHALL, Associate Minister of Agriculture.
