

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice amends, by substituting an amended schedule, the final determination in relation to plasterboard from Thailand which was made by the Minister of Commerce on 21 December 1989 and published in the Gazette of 11 January 1990 (as amended by notice in the Gazette of 8 March 1990 entitled "Final Determination: Dumping Investigation in Respect of Plasterboard from Thailand, Amendment No. 1). The substitution is made as a result of a reassessment of anti-dumping duty carried out pursuant to section 14 (3A) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988. The amended duty applicable to the imported plasterboard is to be calculated by comparing the actual export price with a non-injurious import price level, rather than the previous method of levying a flat rate of duty.

Notice Prohibiting Supply of Disappearing Ink, Fade-Away Ink and Similar Fluids

Pursuant to section 31 (3) of the Fair Trading Act 1986, I, the Honourable Katherine Victoria O'Regan, the Minister of Consumer Affairs, by this notice, which shall come into force the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette, prohibit indefinitely the supply of the goods specified in the Schedule to this notice.

Schedule

- (a) Plastic or other containers of liquid described as "Disappearing Ink";
- (b) Plastic or other containers of liquid described as "Fade-Away Ink";
- (c) Any other plastic or other container of liquid having a pH less than pH3 or greater than pH10 and intended for squirting by children during play.

Dated at Wellington this 12th day of April 1991.

K. O'REGAN, Minister of Consumer Affairs.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice prohibits indefinitely the supply of certain liquids intended for squirting by children during play. The notice applies to liquids known as "Disappearing Ink", "Fade-Away Ink" and to any other liquid having a pH less than pH3 or greater than pH10 and which is intended for squirting by children during play.

These fluids were declared by the Unsafe Goods (Disappearing Ink and Fade-Away Ink) Notice 1989* to be unsafe goods under section 31 of the Fair Trading Act 1986. By virtue of section 31 (2) of that Act that notice expired on 12 November 1990.

Section 31 (3) of the Fair Trading Act 1986 authorises the Minister of Consumer Affairs, if 18 months has elapsed since goods were declared to be unsafe goods and if no product safety standard has been declared in respect of those goods under section 29 of that Act, to prohibit the sale of the goods indefinitely or for a specified period.

It is an offence under the Fair Trading Act 1986 to supply, or offer to supply, or advertise to supply, goods, the supply of which is prohibited under that Act.

Section 33 of that Act also prohibits the importation of such goods into New Zealand.
