

breached the responsibilities placed on broadcasters to be truthful and accurate on points of fact; to deal justly and fairly with any person taking part or referred to in any programme; to show balance, impartiality and fairness in dealing with political matters, current affairs and all questions of a controversial nature; to exercise care in the editing of programme material to ensure that the extracts used are a true reflection of the overall views expressed; and to present all significant sides of a controversial public issue in as fair a way as possible.

(iv) In Decision 22/91, the Authority declined to uphold a complaint by the Christian Heritage Party of New Zealand that the broadcast by Television New Zealand Limited of the programme "Decision 90" on 27 October 1990 breached the responsibility placed on broadcasters to show balance, impartiality and fairness in dealing with political matters, current affairs and all questions of a controversial nature.

Copies of Decisions may be purchased from the Broadcasting Standards Authority, P.O. Box 9213, Wellington at the price of $5 each or by annual subscription of $100.
