Summary of Bills Introduced

Student Loan Scheme Bill
This bill provides for the repayment of loans made by the Crown to tertiary students. The bill applies to existing and future borrowers.

Matters such as eligibility, credit limits, drawdown limits and interest rates are dealt with in the loan contracts signed by the borrowers and are not covered in this bill.

The provisions of the bill are consistent with general principles in loan contracts that:
(a) The annual amount payable is based on a percentage of the borrower's assessable income for the income year after deducting a repayment threshold;
(b) Collection is to be made by the Inland Revenue Department;
(c) The annual loan repayment amount shall be paid at the same times and in the same manner as if the loan repayment were income tax of the borrower; and
(d) If the loan repayment amount is not paid, the amount payable shall be subject to a late payment penalty of 2 percent per month.

The bill provides for the setting of the repayment threshold (currently set at $12,670) and the repayment percentage (currently set at 10 percent) by Order in Council.

The bill makes specific provisions for repayment by non-New Zealand residents.

Submissions close on 13 November 1992.

Imprest Supply Bill (No. 5)
This bill enables the issue and application of certain amounts of public money towards the service of the year ending with the 30th day of June 1993 and to authorise costs to be incurred towards the service of that year.

Canterbury Museum Trust Board Bill
Amends the law relating to the Canterbury Museum Trust Board, made necessary by the reform of local government, by altering the constitution of the Board, better defining its functions, and making provision for the continuation of the work of the institution and for the finances and administration of the Board.

Public Notice

Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975
State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986

This notice concerns the land on the corner of Fort Street and Wilson Street, Cambridge, which was formerly used by and is now leased by the Ministry of Transport. It also concerns Maori claims under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975.

The land at the corner of Fort Street and Wilson Street, Cambridge is described in legal terms as 3025 square metres, Block IX, Cambridge Survey District. Allotment 700, Cambridge East, certificate of title 43A/786, South Auckland Registry.

The land was once owned by the Crown. It was transferred to a State Owned Enterprise under the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986.

There is a special notice or “memorial” on the certificate of title for the land which provides that, if the Waitangi Tribunal recommends it, the land shall be resumed by the Crown and returned to Maori ownership (see sections 27A and 27B of the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986).

The current owners of the land, Jack Beresford Shannon and Peter Samuel Lewis as trustees in the EJ Webb Family Trust, have applied to the Waitangi Tribunal to have this notice removed. This has been done under section 80 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975.

Any Maori person who considers that they, or any group which they belong to, has a claim to make to the Waitangi Tribunal about this land, should submit their claim to the Waitangi Tribunal before the 11th day of February 1993. Section 6 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975, describes what a claim is. Claims may be posted or sent to the Registrar, Waitangi Tribunal, Seabridge House, 110 Featherston Street, P.O. Box 5022, Wellington.

The following claims have already been submitted to the Tribunal in respect of this land:

Claim by Robert Mahuta, the Waikato-Tainui Maori Trust Board, Nga Marae Toopu, which has been submitted under number Wai 30. The claim of Robert Mahuta is a general claim and it is yet to be determined if it is a claim in relation to this land.

If no claim in relation to the land is submitted to the Waitangi Tribunal before the date specified in this notice, the tribunal may recommend that the land be no longer liable to resumption under section 27b of the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986.

Inserted by Matthew Philip Hanna of Cambridge, Solicitor, care of McCaw Lewis Chapman, Solicitors, P.O. Box 529, 77-79 Duke Street, Cambridge.
