Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Final Determination and Imposition of Anti-Dumping Duty: Automotive Oil Filters from the U.S.A.

Pursuant to section 13 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), I, Philip Burdon, Minister of Commerce, hereby give notice that I have made a final determination that the goods specified in the First Schedule to this notice (hereinafter referred to as "the subject goods") imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand, are goods in respect of which I may direct the imposition of anti-dumping duty in accordance with section 14 of the Act.

I hereby give notice that I am satisfied in relation to the importation into New Zealand of the goods that—

- (a) The subject goods are being dumped; and
- (b) By reason thereof material injury to the New Zealand automotive oil filter industry has been and is being caused—and state that section 14 of the Act applies to the subject goods, and that there shall be charged, collected and paid on demand of the Collector anti-dumping duty on the subject goods. The anti-dumping duty shall be at the appropriate amount specified in the Second Schedule to this notice in relation to the type and supplier of the oil filter.

First Schedule

Subject Goods

Country of origin:

U.S.A.

Description of goods:

Automotive oil filters for use on internal combustion engines exceeding 20 horse power (HP).

The goods are currently classified under the following Tariff Item and Statistical Key of the Tariff of New Zealand:

8421.23.00 01B

The Tariff Item and Statistical Key is provided for convenience and Customs purposes only, the written description being dispositive.

Second Schedule

Amount of Anti-dumping Duty

The amount of anti-dumping duty to be paid in respect of the above goods shall be:

- (a) For subject goods from suppliers for which a specific normal value was established in the investigation, the amount by which the Normal Value (Value for Duty Equivalent) exceeds the Value for Duty of those subject goods when entered for home consumption;
- (b) For subject goods from a supplier investigated for which a normal value was not established in the investigation, a rate of duty represented by the weighted average dumping margin established in respect of that particular supplier;
- (c) For subject goods from suppliers not investigated and for which no normal value was established, a rate of duty being the highest weighted average dumping margin established in respect of the suppliers investigated.
